Carolyn Marie Knudsen Judge

Carolyn Marie Knudsen Judge passed away in her sleep surrounded by family on November 11, 2015 at Barrett Hospital and Healthcare in Dillon, MT. Carolyn was born May 29, 1932 on the family homestead located about halfway between Malta and the Missouri River Breaks. She was the third of George Victor Knudsen and Mary Margaret Bibeau's ten children. Carrie attended one-room schoolhouses (Ester Lake and Phillips) through the eighth grade and graduated from Malta High School.

Carolyn soon met the man of her dreams, Francis James "Franny" Judge, and they were married on the sixth anniversary of D-Day, June 6, 1950 in Saco, MT. This union lasted 45 years and produced six children: Mike, Dick, Cathi, Boomer, Kenny, and Patti (a handful plus one). Mom and Dad began their lives together in Malta, moved to Lewistown in 1958 and to Bozeman in 1973. By 2006, Bozeman had become too busy for Mom's liking so she moved to Dillon where she could keep an eye on half of her children and several grandchildren.

While in Bozeman, Carolyn worked numerous jobs including Life of Montana, Darigold, and Gallatin County Treasurer's Office where she eventually retired. After Dad's passing, Mom spent the better part of two years crocheting afghans (there are at least 1 for every child, grandchild, and great grandchild) before getting bored to the point she walked down to the Bozeman Senior Center and signed up as a volunteer. The volunteer position soon became full-time and she spent the next 9 years working there. This afforded her the opportunity to make many friends and travel quite extensively as either a participant or tour guide/chaperone. She made numerous trips to Jackpot, NV, Philipsburg Fiddle Festival, Coeur D'Alene, Nashville, Mississippi River Boat Cruise, and the National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas to name a few. She also developed the "cruise bug" and was able to take one with Franny, and numerous others including through the Panama Canal.

Family was the thing that Carolyn treasured the most. She had two main highlights every year, the annual Knudsen-Bibeau reunion in July at Camp Maiden in the Judith Mountains north of Lewistown and the gathering of nearly all the children and grandchildren at Grampa and Gramma's over the Thanksgiving holiday. Franny loved the game of baseball at all levels and passed his ardor for it along to Carolyn. The Saint Louis Cardinals were their team and as a result of many years of zealous gift giving, her home evolved into a huge collection of Cardinals in every shape and size. Mom and Dad will be remembered every time we see a cardinal or hear "their song" – The Tennessee Waltz.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her parents, brothers George E. "Spike" (Ann), Donald L. "Ike" (Mary Ann), and sister Doris [Royal] Paus. She is survived by brothers: Lloyd (Earline) of Malta; Lee Ray (Shirley) of Malta; Clyde [Anna Jane] of Billings; and Carl (Pat) of Seeley Lake/Mesa, AZ; sisters: Donna (Gary) Young, and Mary Lou (Bob) Young, both of Malta. She is also survived by her children: Michael James (fiancé Elvie White) of Mesa, AZ; Richard Lloyd "Dick" (Barby) of Dillon; Cathi Jane (Gary) Love of Dillon; Robert Edward "Boomer" (Bonnie) of Colstrip; Kenneth Francis (Signe) of Fernley, NV; and Patricia Marie (Harv) Lake of Dillon; grandchildren: Daniel and Rita; Brian, Shannon and Taryn; Shonda, Kayla and Shann; Connie, Madison, Stacy, and Michael; Chad, Stephanie, Erica, Krista, and Haley; and Jason, James, and Alexander; and 16 great-grandchildren.

The family would like to thank Drs. Judy Wilson (nurse Theresa) and Anna Loge, and the Barrett Hospice nurses Marie, Nancy, Tammy, Gina, and Julie for the care and compassion they showed for Carolyn.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made in her name to the Bozeman Senior Center, Southern Montana Shrine Club Hospital Transportation Fund, or Barrett Hospital Hospice.

Carolyn wishes were to be cremated and her ashes interred next to those of her beloved Franny in Mountain View Cemetery in Dillon. She also requested to have a funeral mass which will be held at Saint Rose of Lima Catholic Church in Dillon at 12:10 p.m. on Friday, November 27, 2015 since almost all of the family were planning on spending Thanksgiving at Gram's. Brundage Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements and additional information is available at their website brundagefuneralhome.com.

20 E. Bannack 683-3548Montana journalist fired
after upsetting wealthy landowner

On the heels of an article about public access on the Ruby River in Outside Bozeman magazine, author Don Thomas has been relieved of his position at Ducks Unlimited (DU), where he worked for the organization as a magazine columnist and field editor for 15 years. According to Thomas, he was fired "due to [billionaire James Cox] Kennedy's displeasure with the article." Kennedy is a financial supporter and former board member of DU.

"As an outdoorsman and conservationist who supports the North American Model and the Public Trust Doctrine, I find DU's action reprehensible," Thomas wrote in a letter after his termination. He pointed out that DU is a sportsman's organization, and his article—which appeared in a Montana publication with no ties to DU—was in support of sportsmen and their right to access the Ruby River, in accordance with Montana's Stream Access Law. In 2003, Kennedy blocked off a historic access point running through his land, and the resulting legal battle wound up in the Montana Supreme Court this year. The court did not find in Kennedy's favor.

Outrage over Thomas's firing appeared on social media, including the online forum Hunt Talk. Overall, the response has been overwhelmingly supportive of Thomas, and critical of Kennedy and DU. "The decision to fire [Thomas] over his stance on public access should be an eye-opener to all DU supporters," wrote one hunter. Thomas himself sees this as a dangerous omen. "If every journalist reporting on these issues faces this kind of vindictive retribution," he wrote, "the future of wildlife and wildlife habitat—not to mention the hunters and anglers of ordinary means who form the backbone of groups like DU—is bleak indeed."

*Attached is a copy of Thomas's letterDucks, Politics, and Money

As many of you know, I have been a regular contributor to Ducks Unlimited magazine for nearly twenty years, serving as their Field Editor and writing the back page column in every issue. Not any more. In October, 2015 I wrote a piece for Outside Bozeman magazine, "A Rift Runs Through It," about the long Montana legal battle to secure and maintain public access to the Ruby River in accordance with the state's stream access law. (I will make a copy of that text available to anyone on request.) To summarize a complex issue for those unfamiliar with the case, wealthy Atlanta businessman James Cox Kennedy engaged in extensive litigation to prevent such access, only to be denied repeatedly in court due to the efforts of the Montana Public Land and Water Access Association. While the article was not complimentary to Kennedy, no one has challenged the accuracy of the reporting.

James Cox Kennedy is a major financial contributor to Ducks Unlimited. On November 10, a Ducks Unlimited functionary informed me that my position with the magazine was terminated because of Cox's displeasure with the article.

Several points deserve emphasis. The Ruby River article had nothing whatsoever to do with ducks or Ducks Unlimited (DU hereafter). The article did strongly support the rights of hunters and other outdoor recreationists to enjoy land and water to which they are entitled to access, and DU is a hunters' organization. By terminating me for no reason related to my work for the magazine and the organization, DU has essentially taken the position that wealthy donors matter more than the outdoor recreationists they purport to represent.

As an outdoorsman and conservationist who supports the North American Model and the Public Trust Doctrine, I find DU's action reprehensible. As a journalist, I find it chilling. Wildlife advocates today face ever increasing pressures to abandon these principles in favor of the commercialization of these public resources, largely from wealthy individuals like James Cox Kennedy. If every journalist reporting on these issues faces this kind of vindictive retribution, the future of wildlife and wildlife habitat—not to mention the hunters and anglers of ordinary means who form the backbone of groups like DU—is bleak indeed.

This issue is not about me or my professional relationship with Ducks Unlimited magazine. It is about integrity and the future of wildlife in America. If you share my concerns—especially if you are a DU member—I encourage you to contact the organization (ducks.org; attn: Dale Hall), express your opinion, and take whatever further action you might consider appropriate.
