Senior Citizens 'Now We Know'

By: MJ

"Old is the New Vogue." Seniors are making a comeback and not accepting the status-quo. As we grow older society tends to put us in the back corner where we become invisible.
Invisibility isolates us, makes us anxious and depressed. All of which have an ill-effect on our health, longevity and over all well-being. Being invisible or isolated makes us feel unattractive, worthless, lonely, and diminishes.

It is true the brain does age along with the rest of the body.
Studies show that additional brain regions can be activated in older adults during cognitive tasks like taking a memory test.
Is that why seniors have been able to adapt to the new hi-tech world they live in today?

Over the many years of life the senior has collected a massive amount of data. Could it be that seniors appear to be thinking slow when in reality they have an abundance of information stored in our brain that takes time to recall? Brains are much like a computer that struggles or can be slow as it is booting.

One might say assisted living facilities is an acceptable way to dispose of the elderly and slows down their brain power. Yes, there are people who need a great deal of help. Maybe it would be healthier for a person to stay in their own home and hire help to assist them instead of being put in a 12 x 12+-room with nothing that requires your attention. Example: a pet to feed, a meeting to attend, dishes to do...

Seniors, there is a bright light in the future. There are cars out there you don't have to think to drive, helpful programs to help you enhance your skills with new hi-tech gadgets, improved walkers, implants replacing loss teeth, new hips, knees...

All the seniors that I know have some form of a computer, I-pad, cell phone, T.V. and many other electronic devices that are available. The difference between the elderly and younger people is the elderly don't depend on the cell phone to keep them company, the computer for their only entertainment, face book for gossip/news...

Sometimes seniors go to several rooms to locate their car keys. Would that be nature's way of giving them much needed exercise and not a memory problem. Instead of denouncing the older people, maybe we should learn to embrace them and help each of us become a better person and live a happier life. Life is full of challenges and it is no different when we get older.

Letter to the Editor

This is a letter of thank you and appreciation to Jay and the folks at Dillon Collision Center. I picked up my '09 Subaru Forester today. I had the unfortunate collision with a deer a few years back. Though she expired the front of my car was much worse for it. Jay and the team did a marvelous and most professional job on all the repairs needed. The car does look like new. They 'detailed' the outside and the inside and even polished the drivers side head light to make it look like new though the passenger side headlight assembly had to be replaced. You cannot tell the difference between the old and the new. Thanks Jay!

Ed Flanders

Congratulations!

Christopher Edwin Allen and Coty Christina Cross were married on November 20, 2015.

DEAR BOSS

I have enjoyed working here these past several years. You have paid me very well, given me benefits beyond belief. I have 3-4 months off per year and a pension plan that will pay my salary till the day I die and a health plan that most people can only dream about.

I plan to take the next 12-18 months to find a new position. During this time I will show up for work when it is convenient. In addition, I fully expect to draw my full salary and all the other perks associated with my current job.

Oh yeah, if my search for this new job proves fruitless, I will be back with no loss in pay or status. Before you say anything, remember that you have no choice in the matter.

I can and will do this!

Sincerely,

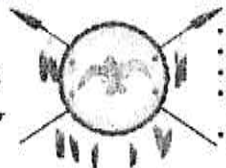

Every Senator or Congressman running for President.

2016 MONTANA NEIGHBOR AWARDS

Governor Steve Bullock, along with a group of Montana-based organizations, is seeking nominations for the "Montana Neighbor Awards".

The awards give recognition to landowners who work collaboratively with their neighbors to enhance Montana's sense of community.

The group is seeking nominations of landowners from across Montana. Winners will receive specially printed and framed Montana Neighbor Award certificates signed by Gov. Bullock and awards committee members.

The Montana Neighbor group includes Artemis Common Ground, The Nature Conservancy of Montana, Montana Council of Trout Unlimited, Montana Association of Land Trusts, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks, and the Office of the Governor.

"It's no secret that land ownership in Montana has been in transition," said Chris King, Winnett rancher and member of the Montana Neighbor Awards Committee. "There is tension out there between landowners, public resource agencies, and sportsmen. Those situations get press. But the fact is there are many new and long-time landowners who are great neighbors in the Montana tradition. We want to give them recognition."

Award criteria include cooperation, neighborly land access, land stewardship and conservation ethic, and community leadership.

Nomination forms can be obtained from any office of the participating organizations and from FWP regional offices. Send nominations to: Montana Neighbor Awards, C/O Jennifer Bond; Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks; P.O. Box 200701, Helena, MT 59620-0701; or email to: jebond@mt.gov, or to Brian.Kahn@earthlink.net.

Safety Advised on National Forest
during Trapping Season

Montana's trapping season is in full swing and the Beaverhead Deerlodge National Forest wants to offer important reminders for all winter recreationists.

Melany Glossa, Beaverhead Deerlodge National Forest Supervisor, says "Montana's Fish Wildlife and Parks (FWP) has trap setback requirements from roads, trails and campgrounds and most trappers take additional efforts to place traps in areas well away from those frequented by other recreationists." Dog owners and others concerned about trapping can minimize risks by staying on well used routes and keeping pets close by when hiking, snowshoeing, or skiing." Glossa adds "keeping pets close to you while out in the woods helps reduce not only accidental trapping concerns but also keeps pets from unnecessarily harassing wildlife." According to FWP, winter recreationists should be on the look-out for signs of trapping activity; a lightly traveled snowmobile track or a few footsteps in the snow may indicate a trapper's presence and should be avoided.

Recreationists who want to learn more about Montana's trapping season should look at the website <http://fwp.mt.gov/hunting/trapping/>. The link has good information, like how to become more proficient at releasing traps and snares and Montana Fish Wildlife and Parks contact information.

For additional information about winter recreation opportunities on the Beaverhead Deerlodge National Forest contact us at (406) 683-3900 or look us up on the internet at <http://www.fs.usda.gov/recmain/bdnf/recreation>.

Fox Statement on Fifth Circuit Ruling against President Obama's Immigration Executive Action

Court says Montana and other states

'likely to succeed' in ultimate legal challenge

Montana Attorney General Tim Fox released the following statement regarding the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals upholding an injunction against President Obama's executive actions on immigration:

"Once again a federal court has agreed with Montana and 25 other states that President Obama acted beyond his authority with his executive action on amnesty and illegal immigration. The president's duty is to faithfully execute the laws enacted by the peoples' elected representatives in Congress. He cannot ignore or change those laws to suit his own agenda. Montana will continue to stand up against executive overreach and defend the rule of law whenever necessary."

Last year Montana and other states filed suit against several executive actions that the president undertook unilaterally, actions that would effectively grant amnesty to millions of illegal immigrants. In February of this year, a federal judge prevented the new program from taking effect. In May, a federal court panel refused to let the program continue while it considered the appeal. Yesterday's ruling on the appeal is the third time federal courts have sided with Montana and the other states on this legal challenge.

The ruling is available online here: <https://dojmt.gov/wp-content/uploads/15-40238-CV0.pdf>

GIVING TREE

The Giving Tree is going up! With the closing of the Dilmart, we weren't sure what we were going to do, until the Mason's stepped in with an offer to help. The Tree will be housed in the old Bert's CD's building and manned by volunteers. Target date is to have the three up and full of tags by November 24th. Slips from families needing gifts are scattered around town - at the Office of Public Assistance, Yellowstone Boys and Girls Ranch office, Migrant Council Office and Adult Probation and Parole.

If anyone has questions, feel free to call Gail @ 660-2528. A huge "THANK YOU" to the residents of Beaverhead County for the support you have given the Giving Tree for the past 27+ years.

CITY BUS RIDE TO COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING DINNER

The City Bus will be giving rides to the Community Thanksgiving Dinner on Thursday. If you need a ride call the City Bus 660-4247 by Wednesday Nov. 25th at 5:00 pm to reserve a ride. Pick ups are at 11:00 am and the departure from the dinner will be at 1:00 pm for everyone.

ELKS HIDE DRIVE IS UNDERWAY

You may see blue steel barrels full of animal skins scattered around at various Beaverhead County and City of Dillon sites. What is going on is the annual collection program of the Dillon Elks Lodge of all seasonal hides (except antelope) as a free service to the community and hunters and as the major annual funding source for the Lodge's activities and programs. Please help us by encouraging all to use this service as it is a win-win for everyone. Any other collection receptacles or services are not Dillon Elk Lodge sponsored. Should you notice any tampering with these barrels or their contents, please immediately contact law enforcement or Travis at (406) 596-0182. Defacing or removing these barrels or their contents is a criminal offense and will be prosecuted. Thanks to all from the Elks for your support of this important community program. Have a happy and safe hunting season.

REMEMBER THE FOOD PANTRY

The Food Pantry Needs Meat! Please remember the local Food Pantry when you make room for your fall butchering. Meat must be professionally processed and not older than one year. The Food Pantry is open Wed. 12-30 - 3:30 or you can call Janey 865-0225.
