Carlene Holt Davis, 73

Carlene Holt Davis, 73 of Dillon, Montana passed away peacefully at her home on November 22nd. Services are pending arrangements and will be next week. A full notice will follow. Guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Donna Sitz Arthun, 78

Donna died at home on Nov. 19, 2015, in Billings.

Donna Scriffiny was born Jan. 24, 1937, to Italian-born parents, Anthony and Linda Zioni Scriffiny. The family lived on a small farm in Monarch, Colorado, where Anthony worked in the coalmines to make ends meet. Donna had two older brothers: Joe and Jim. Donna attended a small country school in Superior, Colorado. Life was difficult, and cash was practically non-existent in the family, but that doesn't mean that they didn't have fun when they could.

Then, in 1949 when Donna was only 12, tragedy struck when her 45-year-old father, while on top of a haystack helping a neighbor, had a fatal heart attack. Life, which had been difficult before, became even tougher. Donna's maternal grandfather spent the last eight years of his life living with Donna's family. Donna remembered that he never learned to speak English and that he signed his name with an X. But more importantly, she also remembered that he quite often provided necessary items for his grandchildren that they wouldn't have had otherwise during this financially difficult time in their lives, things such as shoes.

Donna graduated from high school and went to work. Her first job was for a magazine similar to The Readers' Digest. Then she got hired at Rocky Flats Atomic Energy located northwest of Denver in the accounting department.

In June 1957, Donna - five feet tall, 90 pounds, with an 18" waist - married a young man from Longmont, Colorado, by the name of Bob Sitz, whose family was developing a herd of registered Black Angus cattle. The newlyweds set up housekeeping in Longmont where Bob worked with his mother, Frieda Sitz, on the farm, and Donna continued to work for the atomic energy plant for a couple more years for the financial stability it afforded the young couple of a regular paycheck.

Bob and Donna's family got its start with the birth of Debbie in May of 1958. In the fall of 1959, Bob and Donna decided to look for a ranch in Montana. Their search ended with the purchase of a ranch at Harrison, and in January of 1960, the Sitz family - which consisted at that time of Bob, Debbie, and a very pregnant Donna - moved to Harrison, Montana.

Those early years presented many challenges to the young couple: taking over a place that needed a lot of improvement, establishing themselves in a new area, growing their Angus herd, and raising their growing family - a second daughter Sherrie was born in March of 1960, Bob Jr. in September 1965, and Jim in April 1968.

Dillon, MT Since 1991

In addition to raising the children and keeping the house, Donna did her part by doing the paperwork and the advertising. Bob had an eye for cattle, and over the years, Sitz Angus became a nationally recognized source for purebred Angus seedstock.

In January 1989, a tragic tractor accident took the life of Bob Sitz at age 54. As you can imagine, those first couple of years without Bob Sr. were challenging, but through teamwork, Donna and her children met the challenge. In 1997, the family purchased two more Montana ranches.

Donna's children are actively involved in ranching operations today; Deb and her family operate Bar 69 Angus in South Dakota, Sherrie and her family raise Angus cattle in New Zealand, and the boys Bob Jr. and Jim manage the Sitz Angus Ranch operation in Harrison and Dillon, Montana.

In 1996, Donna married family friend Arvin Arthun. Together, Donna and Arvin worked as a team representing not only the Sitz Ranch but also the entire livestock industry with their attendance, participation, and support to many state and national organizations and activities. Arvin died in February 2011.

Donna was preceded in death by her first husband, Robert Sitz and also preceded by her second husband Arvin Arthun, and her parents Anthony and Linda Scriffny.

Grateful to have shared her life are her children, Debbie (Craig) Kukuchka, Sherrie (Mark) Stokman, Bob Sitz (fiancé Christine Franklin), Jim (Tammy) Sitz, stepdaughters Christine (Chuck) Murphy and Pam Arthun and her special friend Elsie Jackson. She loved her grandchildren Chase (Ashton) Kukuchka, Callie Kukuchka, Cameron and Jake Stokman, Taylre and Lane Sitz, Amber, Ashley, Tyler, and Tucker Sitz, and her great-granddaughter, Ellie Kukuchka.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, Nov. 27, at Smith West Funeral Chapel, located at 304 34th Street West, Billings. Graveside services will be held at 10 a.m. Sat., Nov. 28 at the Pony Cemetery, Pony. A reception will be held at the Pony Senior Citizens Center afterwards. Casket is closed. Condolences may be shared with the family by visiting smithfuneralschapels.com.

Memorials may be sent to the Montana Rescue Mission or Montana Range Days Scholarship Fund.

Chicken salad pulled from Montana Costcos for E.coliThe Department of Public Health and Human Services (DPHHS), along with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and other western states, are issuing a notice to Costco customers who have purchased chicken salad between October 18 and November 23. Customers who have purchased chicken salad from Costco stores in Montana should not consume this product, due to a risk of illness.Since late October, six individuals in Gallatin, Lewis and Clark and Yellowstone counties have become ill from E.coli 0157:
H7 bacteria. Two of the cases were hospitalized. The six Montana cases are part of a larger outbreak involving multiple states. The exact origin of the outbreak is unknown at this time. Others states with confirmed E. coli cases linked to Costco chicken salad include Colorado, Utah, and Washington.However, illness investigations have identified Costco chicken salad as a risk factor. Costco has already voluntarily removed the chicken salad (item #37719) from their shelves and no other products are a concern at this time. Local health authorities in Montana are contacting Costco stores in their areas to verify the product has been removed from shelves, and are no longer available for purchase.

Disease Epidemiology Section, the state is issuing this urgent message to ensure the product is not consumed. "If customers have consumed this product, and they have become ill, we encourage them to consult with their healthcare provider," she said. Fejes also indicated that Costco has been very helpful with our investigation and taken steps to protect the public by removing the product. "Our concern is that chicken salad already purchased may still be in someone's refrigerator or freezer and that product should not be consumed," she added.

People who become ill from E. coli 0157:H7 usually get sick within two to eight days after ingesting the bacteria. Symptoms from illness may include diarrhea, and abdominal cramps. Most people recover within a week, but sometimes the illness develops into a more severe form that will likely require hospitalization.

Customers who still have Costco chicken salad in their possession, and the container has a packaging date or sell-by date on the label dated between October 18, 2015 and November 23, 2015, are encouraged to dispose of any remaining product. Additional information can be obtained at www.fcsc.mt.gov.

Bulldog freshmen gain experience at NAIA Cross Country Championships

The University of Montana Western freshmen cross country runners – Paul Bielawski and Mindy Kaufman – may not have had their best races of the season, but they gained valuable experience as they wrapped up their first season of college competition. Kaufman, who placed 8th at the Frontier Conference meet with a time of 19:43, continued her season-long trend of improvement as she finished the 5k race in 19:20, her fastest time of the season. Among the 321 competitors at the championship race, she finished in the top half as she was the 141st female to cross the finish line. Kaufman was also the 28th freshman to finish the race and the No. 2 freshman out of the Frontier Conference.

The women's race was won by Kellian Hunt from Biola, who finished in 17:16. Northwest Christian won the overall team National Championship as Frontier Conference teams Carroll College and Lewis-Clark State College finished at No. 5 and No. 16 overall, as the automatic qualifying teams from the conference.

Bielawski, an 11th place finisher at the Frontier Conference meet with a time of 27:19, experience some stiff competition as he finished his 8k race in 27:28 and was the 255th male to cross the finish line. He found himself stuck in a pack of the 326 championship competitors and was never able to fight his way out. He was the No. 16 finisher from the Frontier Conference that saw the two automatic conference qualifiers Lewis-Clark State and Carroll College finish No. 6 and No. 8 in the nation.

The men's race was won by Geoffrey Kipchumba from William Carey, as Oklahoma City repeated as team National Champions. It was a great inaugural season for the Montana Western Bulldogs, who look to make strides heading into their second season of competition in the rough-and-tough Frontier Conference.

BARRETT

HOSPITAL & HEALTHCARE

Dear Patients of Barrett Hospital & HealthCare:

As of October 19, Barrett Hospital & HealthCare no longer has a contract with New West Health Services. Barrett Hospital & HealthCare will not have a contract with New West Health Services in 2016. If you are insured through New West Medicare Advantage, you will need to confirm with New West how this change affects your benefits.

Choosing a plan that includes your choice of doctors and hospitals is an important decision. During "open enrollment," October 15th through December 7th, you have an opportunity to consider changing your insurance for 2016. Your insurance coverage is a matter of your personal choice. Seniors considering a Medicare Advantage Plan should consider whether their hospital, clinic and doctor will be in-network prior to making a decision for 2016. Barrett Hospital & HealthCare, including our employed physicians, is not currently contracted with New West and will not have a contract with New West for 2016.

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is a provider for regular Medicare and all Medicare supplemental plans. Please see the information below about accessing independent information for Medicare options.

We share your disappointment with this situation but we look forward to continuing our relationship with you. Between now and the end of the year, we will do our best to work with you regarding this change. You may contact us at 683-1188.

Thank you.

You can find more information at <http://dphhs.mt.gov/sltc/aging/SHIP.aspx>.
