Carlene Ann Holt Davis, 73

Carlene Ann Holt Davis, 73, a nearly seven-decade resident of southwestern Montana, passed away peacefully at her home in Dillon on November 22, 2015.

Carlene was born in Rock Springs, Wyo. on January 26, 1942, daughter of Carl and Virginia Holt. She grew up in Pinedale, Wyo., where her grandfather was sheriff of Sublette County. In 1950, the family moved to Montana and settled on the old Lite Ranch on the upper Madison above Cameron, in Madison County. Carlene grew up riding horses, working cows, and helping with chores on the ranch. She loved all animals and even had a pet skunk for a time. She graduated from Ennis High School in 1962. Later that year, the Holt family sold the ranch to Montana Fish and Game. It is now the Wall Creek Game Range. The family moved to the Big Hole area near Jackson, where they leased Hair Pin Ranch.

Just after high school, Carlene was helping on the Hair Pin when a handsome brand inspector came to check the cows. R.L. "Buzz" Davis of Dillon became the love of her life. They married in 1964 while Carlene was earning an Associate Degree in Business at what was then Western Montana College. Together they owned the Conoco Bulk Plant in Dillon. In 1974, Carlene gave birth to their loving daughter, Cinda. Buzz was elected sheriff of Beaverhead County in 1975 and Carlene helped cook and run the jail. Later, Carlene worked as a bookkeeper for several agriculture businesses, including Strozi's Fertilizer.

Carlene was a devoted mother until the very end, a homemaker while working, and loved spending time with her family and friends. She enjoyed baking, crafts and having coffee with friends. She will be remembered for her quiet and loving ways, amazing friendships, her strong support of law enforcement, the Western Rodeo team, and calling a spade a spade.

Carlene is preceded in death by her parents and husband. She is survived by her daughter, Cinda Davis of Belgrade; her brother and sister-in-law, Dave and Colleen Holt of Whitehall; nephews Cotton and Chase Holt of Whitehall, sisters-in-law Dolores Husted of Jackson, Martha Davis of Dillon, and many nieces, nephews and cousins on both sides of her family.

A celebration of her life will be held at 2 p.m. Friday, December 4 at the Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon. Memorials may be made to the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Awareness Foundation, the UM-Western rodeo team in Dillon, or the donor's choice. Condolences may be expressed at brundagefuneralhome.com.

Tully Springs Subdivision
 By: MJ
 Tully Springs is a privately owned piece of land at the south end of Dillon by the college. The owner would like to build himself a home on the property and possibly have three other home sites. This area would provide landscaping for beautiful homes while increasing tax dollars for the city.
Problems: There seems to be many hitches that accompany this subdivision like misplaced paper work, paper work that is gainsay and missing files. The subdivision was a county/city subdivision. The county approved it and city annexed it. Who is liable for the infrastructure costs? Costs that could be in the $500,000 range. Was there an improvement guarantee for the water, sewer and streets required and filed with the plat? The owner, Mr. Craig Cornell, Mayor Klakken, Mr. Richard Miller and Mr. Dolan are diligently trying to find answers to the many unanswered questions.
 This is one of those issues that could be classified as a can of worms and will require a great deal of compromise by all parties involved. The zoning document might be a problem when it comes to compromising however there is always a way if there is a will. This subdivision offers a wonderful location for upscale family homes.

Presbyterian Church Evergreen Swag Sale
 The First Presbyterian Church will be selling handmade evergreen swags on Friday evening, December 4th, in front of the Knock-About during the Christmas Stroll, and Saturday, December 5th from 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. in the church's Fellowship Hall. First Presbyterian Church is located at Pacific and Glendale. A long-standing tradition, the church has been providing these Christmas greens as a service to the Dillon community for over 40 years. Greens are collected locally, and the swags are made by members of the congregation. Each swag sells for $15.00, comes with a bow and stays fresh and beautiful all season long if placed outdoors.
 Also for sale will be an assortment of nuts and dried fruits, just in time for your holiday baking.
 For further information, please contact the church at 683-2655.

FIRE CALLS
 Early Thanksgiving morning DVFD was called to a possible gas leak on Antelope Drive. It was not a leak. In the afternoon we were called to a non injury Motor Vehicle accident on Highway 91 South for traffic control.

Glazing Workshop

The Southwest Montana Arts Council is excited to announce its free art workshop for December. Local artist and SMAC board member Katie Barba will be providing a glazing workshop for ages 3 to 10 at the Mason Building on the corner of Idaho and Bannack streets (the old Bert's CDs) on Friday, December 4, at 4:30 p.m. Participants will be glazing Santa cookie plates. Parents of children ages 3 to 6 should plan to stay to help their children with their creation. There are 30 spots available, so please call 683-6208 to register.

This event is free thanks to the generous sponsorship from United Way of Beaverhead County and Eric Hammer & Sandra McIntyre.

RED ALERT

Can you believe that it's already December? You know what that means? Yes! Santa will be here soon.

We are told that Santa lives at the North Pole with Mrs. Santa, the Elves, and some reindeer. If this is true why were so many of the toys he delivered last year stamped with, "Made in China?" Have they moved the North Pole? Did Santa fire those cute little Elves and hire some new workers?

I just wonder if the Elves got together and joined a union? Maybe the Elves just got fed up working all year and found a better paying job! I am sure that Santa would not down size the Elves because they are already down sized.

I know for a fact one of the Elves got a hernia last year loading the sleigh. And to top it off, the Elves have no health insurance. The medical bills took all the poor guys life savings.

Santa, being a man of the world must speak a lot of different languages. Some have said if he doesn't speak English he should not be allowed in the United States.

It has been reported that Donald Trump called Santa a, "fat man that has a funny laugh!" Ben Carson claims Santa is a Socialist. Others are looking into Santa not having a "Reindeer Permit." This has been turned over to the "Cruelty to Reindeer Society." Santa and the ACLU are looking into this matter.

Another group is upset that Santa has a list of "naught and nice." This group headed by Ted Cruz says it is an infringement of their rights and Santa should mind his own business.

There is a concern with "Homeland Security." Santa is an alien and classified as a "red alert."

A group of conservatives are concerned about what he has in his sleigh. No toy guns, no knives, no war toys and if he has food it must be gluten free!

If Santa doesn't come to your house this year you know why! I know my name is on some list. But not on the Santa list!

Life's Too Serious

By: Joe Barnhart

I don't know about you but I'm thankful to live in a country that has chicken nuggets - or mini-corn dogs, for that matter. My policy: "If it takes more than three steps to prepare it - it isn't food." And opening a box is one step. But I've paid my dues in the kitchen. This happens when my wife leaves and takes the credit card. Here's just a sampling of the delicacies I've concocted:

Wienito: This tasty treat is suitable for groups who're three sheets to the wind or your in-laws.

Ingredients: Large flour tortilla, wiener (all beef, pork, or muskrat, who cares?!), Velveeta, pork n'beans, and catsup.

Directions: Lay tortilla flat, smear on beans with cold compress (ice cubes are ideal), place wiener on beans, add healthy chunks of Velveeta, dump on catsup, roll up and microwave for one minute. Substitute taco sauce for catsup for a rich, Southwestern flavor. Garnish with Frosted Flakes, where available. (Caution: If wiener sets out overnight, wash first.)

Pizza soufflé: It's refreshing in our wasteful society to find a dish where recycling is crucial.

Ingredients: 2 - 12 eggs, leftover pizza (avoid digging through trash).

Directions: Dice pizza into elk-scat sized chunks. Whip eggs till frothy then dump in pizza. Stir until pizza crust resembles a swollen rodent embryo coated in calf mucus. Cook in skillet and season to taste. Add panda bear jerky for a unique Asian flavor.

Cheesy Carrot Delight: This humble, satisfying creation was born on my rookie meet-n-greet Boy Scout camp out.

Ingredients: Raw, limp, un-washed carrots, 1 jar Cheez Whiz.

Directions: Leave Cheez Whiz on dash of Ford Bronco. Wait until trip home when you're close to starvation because one of your patrol members brought concentrated orange drink instead of his share of food. Open jar and liberally coat carrots with orange petroleum-based "Whiz." Warning: No matter who's daring you, never do shots of concentrated orange drink. (They didn't invite me back.)

Quickie Apple Crisp: When friends come over, they always ask, "Joe, is that your real hair?" But what's really worrying them is, did I cook dinner? Luckily, I never do. But here's a handy dish I often "whip up" when the wife and I are alone, and she refuses to make dessert.

Ingredients: Applesauce, granola.

Directions: Fill bowl with applesauce and sprinkle granola on top. To add "sugar rage," chuck a dollop of non-dairy topping coated with brown sugar. Try these tasty alternatives: for peach cobbler, use canned peaches; cherry pie, use cherry pie filling. The possibilities are endless.

I also have a recipe where the main ingredients are Skittles, strawberry yogurt, and diet Coke. You can never go wrong with yogurt. But, my time is up.

PERFORMING ARTS SERIES PRESENTS
"THE MERCHANT OF VENICE"

The Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series continues its series with performances of "The Merchant of Venice" on Tuesday, Dec. 8, 2015.

Montana Shakespeare in the Schools will present two performances at 1 p.m and 7:30 p.m. in the Beier Auditorium.

"The Merchant of Venice is a fantastic play that resonates with young adult audiences because of themes such as identity, love and loyalty and the risks of rebellion," said director Kevin Asselin.

Shakespeare in the Schools is a an educational outreach program of Montana State University - Bozeman.

This fall marks the 21st season that Montana Shakespeare in the Schools has brought a live Shakespearean play and workshops directly to middle schools, high schools and universities.

"The Merchant of Venice" and two other upcoming productions are a part of The Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series during the 2015-16 season.

Season tickets for all three productions are available for $40 for adults by calling 406-683-7101.

Upcoming productions include "The Diary of Anne Frank," and "Rabbit Hole."

The Bank of Commerce Performance Series passes are honored. Individual performance tickets are $8 for adults, $5 for youths and can be purchased the day of at the Beier Auditorium on the Montana Western campus. Free admittance for UMW students.
