Ridicule & Humor

By: MJ

People that use mocking laughter, mimicry (gestures), or comments intended to make fun of somebody in a condescending way is wrong and they need to take a look at themselves and the reason why they do it.

Many people think that if we are talking & laughing about someone the focus is taken off us.

The fact is that we all want to be better, but most of us don't want to get better. To get better seems too hard, risky or bewildering. We can take a long step forward by learning techniques by which we keep our talking and listening intact.

State what happened or what you want to share without using words that are demeaning and without raising our voices to others. Laughter is an important part of human's life. Laughter does wonders for our emotions and our body's well being; however no good thing comes from laughter at someone else's expense.

Western shuts down Northern

The University of Montana Western men's basketball team won their second Frontier Conference game in as many games as they defeated the visiting Lights of MSU-Northern - 72-57.

The 'Dawgs (5-4, 2-0) started the first half lights out as they connected on 15 of 27 field goal attempts and 3 out of 6 long range bombs including two from Shyke Smalls.

Smalls erupted for 13 first half points on 5-8 shooting, he also had two steals to lead the up-tempo attack that led to 39 points in the first half.

Montana Western opened the first 5:03 of the game on a 16-4 tear, the Lights answered back with a 14-6 run of their own to come within four points - 22-18 - as the final 10 minutes resulted in a back-and-forth and the teams went to intermission in a battle, 39-34.

Demitrius Balark added 12 points on four made field goals and 4-5 from the free throw line.

The new-look Bulldog defense continued to stymie their opponents as they held a potent Lights offense to 57 points. They came in averaging nearly 80 points per game.

Steve Keller coached teams have always traditionally played man-to-man, in 37 years of coaching, Keller said this is the first time his team has ever predominantly played zone.

It seems to be paying dividends as the Bulldogs improved to 2-0 in conference play and have held their last two teams well below their season averages.

"It was a great team defensive effort," stated Keller, "the zone has been great and we've cut back on fouls."

While the defense is what ultimately won the game for the home team, they were no slouches offensively as they pumped in 72 points on 28-53 shooting from the field. They were paced by Balark's 21 points, which included his first 3-pointer of the season with 3:02 to play to end the scoring.

Smalls cooled off in the second half as he finished the game with 15 points and added on five rebounds, four steals and two assists.

Dexter Williams, Jr. had perhaps his best all-around game of the season as he finished with 13 points, 16 rebounds, two assists and one block.

Last week, boys' basketball hosted Butte East. 7B won 21 to 6. 7A won 37 to 19. 8A won 50 to 23. And 8B won 29 to 15 in overtime. What an exciting night of basketball. Boys' basketball will finish up their season this week. The teams will travel to Butte East tomorrow, Tuesday, December 8th. The bus leaves at 2:00 pm. 7B plays at 3:30, 7A at 4:30, 8B at 5:30 and 8A at 6:30. Then, on Thursday, December 10th, the A teams will host Butte Central in the new gym. 7A will play at 4:00 pm, followed by 8A at 5:00 pm.

Ladies, it's not too early to begin thinking about your basketball season. Practice will start Monday, January 4th, which is our first day back to school after our Christmas vacation. If you are interested in playing, please make sure you have your physicals, concussion packet read and signed, and parent permission form signed and turned in. Remember that you need a new permission form for each sport that you participate in.

The Middle School food drive is in it's second week. Students, if you bring in food on Wednesday, you can wear your hat and/or shades. Also, this Thursday, bring canned goods to your eighth period class and enjoy ice cream. Don't miss out on this opportunity to help others in our community.

Rader Creek Road Closed for the Winter

Rader Creek Road #240 located near Homestake Pass, closed Dec. 1 to motorized vehicles for the winter to provide non-motorized recreation opportunities through March 31, 2016. The road closure begins at Homestake Lodge, located three miles south of Homestake Pass, and continues for approximately two miles south of the lodge. Full size vehicles will not be able to travel from Homestake Lodge south for approximately two miles, and from Montana Highway 2 the closure begins approximately five miles north of the highway.

In order to avoid the groomed cross country ski trail system around Homestake Lodge, a bypass route will be opened to the public once snow conditions are deep enough and the ground is frozen underneath the snow to allow snowmobiles and ATVs to access routes.

Stingy defense leads 'Dawgs to win over Argos

The University of Montana Western men's basketball team bounced back in a big way to earn a win in their first conference game of the season, 79-52.

After giving up nearly 86 points per game in non-conference games to start the 2015-16 campaign, the Bulldogs (4-4, 1-0) locked down defensively and limited the Argos (5-2, 0-1) to a season-low 52 points on 19-59 (32 percent) from the field and forced 19 turnovers.

The first half started as a pitchers duel that saw the Bulldogs hold a 4-2 lead nearly eight minutes into the game before breaking the game open to a 10-point halftime lead, 31-21.

Despite shooting an identical 9-29 from the field, the 'Dawgs were able to take control by knocking down 10 of 12 shots from the charity stripe and hit three 3-pointers in the half. Two by Kurtis Parson, who came off the bench to spark the late first half run.

Great Falls shoot an ice-cold 0-9 from beyond the arc in the first half. The Argos also turned the ball over 13 times in the half.

The second saw the home team score 48 points on 14 for 26 (54 percent) shooting led by the hot-hand of senior Ryan McCarty. He scored nine of his game-high 15 points in the second half, including two 3-pointers to push the Bulldogs over the top.

Montana Western also pushed the tempo in the second half and got to the rim, where they either finished in traffic or forced an Argo foul. The Bulldogs were 18 for 21 in the half from the line and finished 28 out of 33, compared to 9 for 14 from the visitors.

Dexter Williams, Jr. (14), Demetrius Balark (14) and Kurtis Parsons (10) joined McCarty in double digits. Williams Jr. added five rebounds, two blocks and two steals to his 5 for 9 shooting performance. Balark, who finished 8-10 from the free throw line chipped in two assists and two steals. Junior guard Shyke Smalls continued to stuff the stat sheet as he finished the game with eight points, five rebounds, five assists and four steals in 30 minutes of action.

It was a very balanced night offensively as four Bulldogs reached double figures and 12 players found the scoring column.

For a squad that has been forced to win games on the offensive end of the floor, tonight's game was won on defense.

The Argos finished with a measly 32 percent shooting effort from the floor - including 5-25 from downtown - 19 turnovers and only allowed 14 free throw attempts.

Montana Western never trailed in the game as they led for 36 of the 40 minutes in the game.

They will return to action as they play host to Montana State - Northern on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in Straugh Gymnasium.

Lady 'Dawgs fall to No. 11 Great Falls

The University of Montana Western women's basketball dropped their second consecutive game after starting the season 9-0 – a 79-70 defeat to No. 11 University of Great Falls.

The Bulldogs struggled to get stops at the defensive end of the floor as the Argos shot a blistering 32-64 from the floor (50 percent) and knocked down nine 3-pointers and shot 40 percent from long distance. (Box Score)

They hit shots early and often as they were 20-34 (59 percent) in the first half as the Bulldogs faced a 47-36 deficit. The Argos were led by Nneka Nnadi's 19 first half points on 9-13 from the field and 1-1 from the free throw line.

The second half saw Montana Western limit Nnadi to just two second half points, she finished with 21 in the game. With Nnadi held in check, All-American point guard Erin Legel took over to score 15 of her game-high 23 points in the second half. Legel finished 8-16 from the field, including 5-9 from downtown.

Legel also had nine rebounds, seven assists and two steals as she played the entire game from start to finish.

Argo's Whitney George and Morgan Grier joined Legel and Nnadi in double figures with 13 points apiece. Grier was 3-7 on 3-pointers.

For every punch the 'Dawgs threw – in the form of a Kaye Bignell or Molly Klinker inside basket – the Argos answered with a 3-pointer to take the momentum right back.

Klinker led the Bulldogs with 21 points in a season-high 36 minutes of action. She also grabbed six rebounds and dished out two assists.

Kaye Bignell scored 16 points on 7-14 shooting and grabbed a team-high nine rebounds to go with three assists.

Despite shooting nearly 43 percent from the field Montana Western was unable to close the gap – that stretched to 17 points in the middle of the third quarter – after committing 11 turnovers and giving up 10 offensive rebounds.

The 'Dawgs will return to action on Saturday, Dec. 5 at 5:30 p.m. as they take on No. 6 Montana State – Northern in the Straugh Gymnasium.
