Montana Western athletic training program awarded $7500 in sports equipment

The University of Montana Western and athletic trainer Kaleb Birney was recently awarded $7,500 in sports medicine equipment and supplies to serve student athletes as part of Mueller Sports Medicine's "Need A Hero" campaign.

The "Need A Hero" campaign asked contestants to upload a picture or video to Instagram, Twitter or Facebook showing why they would like to receive the Mueller sports equipment. Birney submitted information about UMW athletic training services and was chosen out of 1,873 trainers across the country.

"The Mueller Hero kits and equipment that were donated to our program will help Montana Western's athletic training program be more efficient when supporting our athletes through recovery and promoting excellence," said Birney.

"As the result of Kaleb's efforts in applying for this recognition, the resources provided by Mueller Sports Medicine will allow our staff to provide high quality care to the nearly 325 Bulldog student-athletes," Head athletic trainer, Dr. Russ Richardson stated, "we are very appreciative of both Kaleb and the generosity of Mueller Sports Medicine."

Kaleb Birney is currently in his second year as an athletic trainer for the University of Montana Western Bulldogs and is a 2008 graduate of Sublette High School in Sublette, Kansas. He pursued his bachelor's degree in Athletic Training at Wichita State University (WSU) and graduated in 2012.

One of his clinical education rotations in his athletic training degree, Birney completed an internship with the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs during 2010 and 2011.

Upon graduation from WSU, Birney worked as an intern in the Georgia State University Sports Medicine Department for two years, where he provided patient care to the men's soccer and baseball teams.

He earned a Master's degree in Performance Enhancement and Injury Prevention from California University of Pennsylvania in December of 2014.

Open Letter to the Citizens of Beaverhead County

On the 20th and 21st of November, the Dillon community participated in the annual Festival of Trees event. It was held at the Elks Club with one of the largest crowds ever in attendance. The first night was especially memorable watching so many children from the surrounding area buy bags of homemade candy, put their tickets in for special drawings, and explaining to Santa Claus what they would like for Christmas.

The committee of 26 ladies who organize this event are to be commended for their efforts in sponsoring such a worthwhile and rewarding program. Also just as important are you, the general public, for participating in this endeavor. Without you, the program would not be what it is. Your generosity is overwhelming.

This year's recipients of "The Festival of Trees" were the Dillon Library and Beaverhead Search and Rescue. Each participating agency received $8000.00 to be used on previously designated projects. The money the Search and Rescue received will be used for communication equipment for the unit. We will purchase as many new pagers, which are used to notify members of missions, as possible with the funds.

Once again the Beaverhead Search and Rescue would like to thank all individuals who participated in this wonderful event. The unit sincerely appreciates your generosity and for being given the opportunity to be a recipient of the program.

Cordially,
Mel Rice

No. 6 Skylights edge 'Dawgs in Frontier battle

The University of Montana Western Bulldogs (9-3, 0-2) played host to the No. 6 Skylights of MSU-Northern (8-1, 1-1) in Frontier Conference action on Saturday night in Straugh Gymnasium.

In a battle of teams who dropped their conference openers, the Skylights emerged with their first league win of the season, by a score of 52-44.

The first half proved to be the defensive battle everyone expected it to be. The Bulldogs came into the game allowing 57 points per game, as the Skylights allow only 54 points per contest.

Trailing 15-8 at the end of the first stanza, the home team went on a 13-6 run capped off by a Molly Klinker 3-pointer to tie the game at 21-all with 3:06 remaining in the second quarter.

Western went into halftime trailing 24-27 as they were limited to 9-24 shooting from the field. Despite the poor shooting performance they kept themselves in the game on the defensive end of the floor as they held Northern to 9-25 from the field.

The slight edge came from the charity stripe as the Skylights hit all eight of their free throw attempts as the Bulldogs were 5 for 6.

Molly Klinker and Callie Kanthack led the 'Dawgs offensively in the first half as they scored seven and six points respectively. Jacy Thompson scored nine first half points to lead the lights on 2-6 shooting and 4-4 from the line. A 16-13 third quarter run led by freshman Brandy Bookout's 12 points, saw the game enter the final quarter of regulation deadlocked at 40.

A back-and-forth defensive battle in the third quarter saw the Bulldogs take a 48-44 lead with 2:53 to play in the game, their first lead of the game, before Northern answered back to score the final eight points and put the game away at the free throw line for their first conference win of the season.

Bookout finished with a game-high 17 points in 18 minutes of action. The freshman from Draper, Utah was 6-8 from the field and 5-5 from the free throw line before fouling out with 1:03 to play.

Klinker notched a double-double as she finished with 11 points and 14 rebounds in 34 minutes, she also had a team-high two steals.

Both teams struggled to find the bottom of the net and knock down shots due to the outstanding defensive efforts of both squads.

The home team had 18-52 from the field, including 1-11 from downtown as the visitors shot 35% from the field (17-49) and 15% from three (2-13).

Montana Western was forced into 14 turnovers compared to just 10 for Northern. Northern also outshot the Bulldogs from the charity stripe - 16-22 to 11-14 - to complete a road-win.

The Bulldogs will return to action on Dec. 9 at 5:30 p.m. as they travel to Helena, Mont. to face the Carroll College Fighting Saints.

By: MJ

I am thankful for my critics expressing their First Amendment rights. They give me nonstop insight to issues. I am not too fond of those who are just plain angry at the world and use an article I wrote as their ammunition to express their anger. However, if I read or listen beyond the anger there is always a point to take note of. Dillon is a giving humble community. Dillon sits in the heart of a beautiful landscape. Here you can be an individual, do your own thing and not have a crowd around you. If you love the outdoors there is no end to the adventures you can have in the surrounding area. For a small town Dillon offers experiences for those who prefer a musical performance, art show, books, sports...

City Boards: With the rules and regulations created by appointed boards and approved by council let us work toward capitalizing on what Dillon offers and what is genuine. Let's work to promote the economy, safety, morals, public health and convenience for the sake of the community development. Example: If tourism is one component of improving the economy then let's do long term planning for the growth of tourism. Leaders that have the knowledge and leadership skills to bring growth that may or may not bring more jobs

While offering a wide variety of different ways to enjoy your life, Dillon also has all the problems that humans bring with them. Dillon seems to have many leaders that bring emotions with few facts to the table. It appears there is not enough people willing to follow and do the detail work. It seems that those on the committees want to be in charge and if they aren't in charge then they break away and start a new committee or they remove the members on the committee that are a threat to them. This is not a recipe for success when doing long term planning. Question: Would too many leaders and not enough workers be delaying the advancement in Dillon's future?

To my critics I say don't stop. All I ask is; keep it clean and present factual information with reality sprinkled around. Thank you

Beaverhead Search and Rescue News

Submitted By: Mel Rice S&R Public Relations Officer

The December meeting of the Beaverhead Search and Rescue was called to order by Commander Tommy Goins on the 2nd day of the month. With 32 members in attendance, the new deputy for the Sheriff's department, Jeremy Wirey, was introduced. He may be working with the S&R unit during searches and during initial call outs.

A number of items from the past month were discussed. Dr. Mike Clarke, training officer, talked about the ICS Training Basics program that was offered on the 17th of November. The next item discussed was the "Festival Of Trees". Members of the Search and Rescue participated in this annual event by making homemade candy that was sold Friday night and then prepared hors d'oeuvres for all auction participants Saturday night. The Unit split the proceeds from the event with the Dillon Library. Each group was awarded $8000.00. The S&R will purchase pagers to be used by members for notification of Search and Rescue call outs/activities. The funds will afford us to purchase about a third of the number of pagers needed to cover the membership. The paging system we are using now is out dated and inefficient.

Five call outs during the past month were critiqued. These searches/rescues took the unit from the west side of the Big Hole to the south portion of Sage Creek and several points in between. Searches included:

- A 45 year old gentleman in the Medicine Lodge had not been heard from for several days. His wife became concerned and called for assistance. A major winter storm was in that night. He was found in his camp in good shape unaware that anyone might be concerned about his wellbeing.

- A 21 year old college student had been hunting with friends. He became separated but did not notify anyone that he was fine. He came home from the hunt and went back out the next day without talking to anyone. Concerned individuals called and reported him lost. He was located after finding his vehicle in the Dice Creek area. When picked up he was walking back to his vehicle unaware of the possibility that someone may have turned him in as lost.

- 5 individuals; a 1 yr. old, a 5 yr. old, a 20 yr. old female, a 30 yr. old female and a 54 yr. old male, became stuck in their vehicle in the Basin Creek area in Sage Creek. They called for assistance on their cell phone. S&R was deployed to assist in getting the individuals to safety. Location was known but very difficult getting to the location. All were in good shape.

- A 16 year old male individual hunting in Cattle Gulch by Divide became disoriented in the dark. Weather conditions and snow conditions made it very difficult for him. Search and Rescue members were deployed. Conditions made it very difficult for the unit to get around. The individual's location was known due to his ability to call from his location with a cell phone. Even with the location known, it took S&R members a very long time to reach him. Other than being emotionally upset because of the ordeal, he was physically in good shape. The unit had one 4 wheeler with tracks break down on the mountain and had to be recovered the next day.

• 2 individuals, 18 and 20 years of age, became lost in the Schultz Saddle area on the west side of the Big Hole. They made a 911 call from their location. From the call their GPS location was determined. The two young men were told to sit tight and Search and Rescue members would get to them and take them out. They were located and safely returned to their vehicle. Other than being extremely cold, they were taken out in good shape.

Also discussed during the meeting was the annual Stan Shafer Memorial Fish Derby. Members picked up tickets for sale and signed up for door prize pickups. The date for the derby is January 30, 2016. Dr. Clarke provided dates for future training opportunities for the unit.

- December 15th - Communication training
- January 26th - Clark Canyon disaster training
- January ? - Map & GPS training
- February 5th & 6th - Avalanche disaster training

The meeting concluded with nominations of officers and board members for 2016. Nominations are open until elections are conducted at the January meeting. All are welcome to attend our meetings. Come check us out, you might find something worthwhile participating in.

Let's remember too, with the onset of winter and the possibility of extreme weather conditions comes the increased chance of falling prey to hypothermia. This is a condition that occurs when the body core temperature drops below normal level for a prolonged period of time. The condition becomes life threatening as it progresses through various stages. Also check on avalanche conditions. You don't need steep slopes for this to occur. Take care when venturing into the outdoors. Make sure you are properly prepared and equipped for your adventure. Make sure you let someone know where you are going and when to expect you back in town. Let's have a safe and enjoyable winter.

Looking for the perfect stocking stuffer? Give the gift of performance art! The Southwest Montana Arts Council has four more shows in its 2015-16 Showcase Series:

Tuesday, January 12 - Vince & Mindi - Country western music featuring award-winning harmonies, rich vocals and even some yodeling.

Friday & Saturday, February 12 & 13 - Wild & Scenic Film Festival - Outdoor films from around the world. Each night features a different set of films.

Thursday, March 24 - Queen Nur - African and African-American folk tales told in an interactive setting with an African drum beat.

Friday, April 9 - The Quiet American - Traditional and original folk ballads, banjo breakdowns, raggy choruses, gospel duets and other dusty American gems.

Buy a ticket for all four for $40 for adults, $30 for senior citizens (65+), $12 for youth (ages 4-22), $80 for a family ticket (2 adults, 2 youth).

Or purchase a Showcase Sampler—tickets to your choice of three events—$30 for adults, $25 for seniors, $10 for youth, and $65 for a family ticket.

Tickets at the door are $15 for adults and $8 for youth, so this is a great deal for these amazing events!

Tickets can be purchased at Wildwood Floral in downtown Dillon for the entire month of December.
