Ben Tyvand

Ben Tyvand is no longer the oldest living Grizzly football player. Ben died in the early morning hours of Nov. 30, 2015, secure in the fact that the Grizzlies of 2015 were heading to their second playoff game. He was 94 years old.

Born on Jan. 14, 1921, in Butte to Henry and Lota Tyvand, Ben (Judge) spent many memorable summers with his brothers, Hank (Trapper) and Ray (Rock) at the family cabin at Dewey on the Big Hole River.

Ben graduated from Butte High in 1938, where he was a multi-year letterman in basketball, football and track.

Following high school graduation, Ben played football and basketball and participated in track for the Grizzlies until his college years were interrupted by Pearl Harbor. From 1942-1945 he was a member of the 91st Infantry Division (Powder River, Let 'er Buck).

After the war, Ben returned to the University of Montana where he received his bachelor's degree in education from the University in 1948.

Ben's teaching career started at Beaverhead County High School in 1948, as a history teacher. Ben transferred his athletic expertise to coaching in Dillon where he coached football, basketball, and track. After a successful seven-year run with the Beavers, Ben became the head coach of the Anaconda High Copperheads from 1955-1959.

Following Anaconda, Ben moved to Wallace, Idaho, where he spent 19 memorable years as a teacher and a coach of all sports.

Ben ended his career in education in Victor, Montana where for the first time he coached girls' basketball. After a short period of time, he also became the principal at Victor. After three years, he retired.

Just prior to his move to Victor, Ben married Mary, his wife of nearly 40 years. They shared many adventures including a couple of car trips to the East Coast and a trip to the Summer Olympics in California. They attended all Grizzly football home games and were from the start, enthusiastic Lady Griz fans.

Ben enjoyed a long and vigorous retirement. He drove school bus for Beach Transportation. During the summers, he could be found on the University golf course. He competed in masters' track meets until his early 70's, and kept himself in marvelous physical condition with a workout at the gym three days a week. Ben was also a superb dancer and he and Mary were often seen on the dance floor on weekends.

Ben was preceded in death by his brothers and his daughter, Leslie.

In addition to his loving wife Mary, Ben is survived by his daughter, Charlene Bader and her family; step-children, Pat Dowdall (Susanne), Mary Anne Dowdall, Colleen Dowdall (Jay Gilmartin) and Karen Dowdall-Sandford (Christopher Sandford); grandchildren, Brendan, Colin and Michael Dowdall; Adam, Eric and Tara Bucy; Siobhan, Patrick and Bridget Gilmartin; and Nicholas Sandford; and numerous nieces, nephews and great-grandchildren.

At Ben's request, there will be no service. Donations in his memory may be made to the Ben Tyvand Scholarship Fund at: Wallace Sr. High School, 1 Miners Alley, Wallace, Idaho 83873

UMW GRAD NAMED HEAD FOOTBALL COACH OF MSU BOBCATS

University of Montana Western graduate Jeff Choate has been named head football coach at Montana State University.

Choate, an Idaho native, graduated from Montana Western in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in secondary education.

"When I got into coaching I didn't just set out to be a head coach," said Choate. "I've always wanted to be a Big Sky Conference coach. It's the league I grew up around and I have strong ties to Montana."

MSU athletic director Peter Fields said Choate earned the respect of everyone involved in the selection process. "Jeff Choate is a well-respected person who has enjoyed coaching success throughout the Northwest and beyond at the high school and college level," said Fields.

Choate played football for the Bulldogs and began his coaching career with the Bulldogs from 1991-93.

Choate later went on to begin a high school coaching career in Idaho where he coached for a number of years. He began his Division I career in 2002 at Utah State where he coached the defensive line and special teams and safeties. He then coached at Eastern Illinois, Boise State, Washington State, University of Texas at El Paso, University of Florida, and most recently, University of Washington.

Choate was introduced to the media and public on Mon., Dec. 7 by MSU president Waded Cruzado and athletic director Peter Fields.

Boots' Christmas Music Special

Boots will be holding her 2015 Christmas Music Special in Divide on Saturday the 12th of December.

She will be featuring many local performers as well as performers from the Divide-Wise River area.

There will be a meal put on by the Divide Grange ladies. They always put on a very good meal.

The meal will start at 6:00 pm with the music show starting at 7:00 pm.

Admission is
$5.00 per person for show only
$10.00 per person for meal & show
$20.00 per family for meal and show

The proceeds will go to the Divide Grange and The S. W. Montana Veterans Memorial.

Holidaze Contest

Dillon Garden Club is once again sponsoring the Holidaze Contest to see who has the best Holidaze Decorations.

Decorations must contain at least 50% Live items (No Artificial Trees). Categories include Inside and Outside of Residential, Neighborhoods, Business/Commercial, Religious and Most Unusual.

As you are decorating keep in mind the use of Live Materials.

Judging is scheduled to take place on Dec. 11 & 12th. Call Kerstin at 683-2552 to schedule a judging time or have any questions. When leaving a message clearly give Name, Address, Phone Number.
