Allen Nygren

Nels Allen Nygren passed away at his home in Argenta on December 18, 2015. Allen was born January 17, 1963 to Nels Ernest and Diane (Nygard) Nygren in Dillon, Montana. Allen grew up in Argenta with his grandparents, dad and sister.

Allen graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1981. After high school he lived and worked in Alaska and enjoyed all of the hunting and fishing there. He always wanted to go back. He was an avid hunter, trapper and fisherman and loved to hike and camp at the high mountain lakes. As a young boy he trapped and mined with his dad and grandfather.

Allen married Sheri Smith on October 11, 1986. Together they raised three sons; Gyle, Gary "Bear" and Jeremiah.

For the past 20 years he owned and operated Nygren Lumber and custom cut lumber for his customers. Everyone loved the wood he cut because he always made sure it was the best. No one could beat his work ethic or his integrity. He made friends easily and everyone who knew him loved him.

Allen is survived by his wife, Sheri, three sons, Gyle, Gary "Bear" and Jeremiah, sister Tracey (Dave) Roberts, Argenta, brother Mike (Chandra) Block, Las Vegas, sister, Cathy (Bob) Leaver, Deer Lodge, grandsons, Jackson and Walker Nygren and granddaughters, Bethany and Sarai Nygren, numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and many, many friends. Allen was preceded in death by his grandparents, Rudolph "Rudy" and Lily (Duck) Nygren, father, Nels Nygren, and sister, Nancy Holmes.

The family would like to invite everyone to a viewing on Tuesday, December 22, 2015 from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the Brundage Funeral Home and on Wednesday, December 23, 2015 at 1:00 p.m. to a pot lunch celebration of life luncheon in Allen's honor at the Elks Lodge in Dillon. Please come and share your memories.

Stockings for Seniors Update

Last Saturday, people of the community met at nursing homes and assisted living facilities to give out STOCKINGS FOR SENIORS. Initially, we had a goal of gathering 50 stockings for the residents of Parkview Acres but with the overwhelming generosity from people and businesses in our county we ended up giving 133 stockings to both Renaissance locations, some residents of the Bicentennial Apartments and ALL the residents of Parkview Acres.

Special thanks to Kayla Peacock from Best of the West Properties for organizing this event and to the people of Dillon Assembly for stuffing the stockings. Thanks also to our drop-off locations: Women's Resource Center, The Good Life, Shepherd's Garage, Best of the West Properties & Hook and Horn in Wisdom.

If you would like to be involved next year, please "like" our Facebook Page: StockingsForSeniorsDillonMT
Thank you to all who donated and we wish you a MERRY CHRISTMAS!

UMW SENIOR RECOGNIZED FOR ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC ACHIEVEMENTS

University of Montana Western senior Jesse McCloud recently received recognition for his accomplishments on and off the football field.

McCloud was recognized by the National Football Foundation's Hampshire Honor Society for his academic performance and excellence in intercollegiate football.

"I am very honored to have received this award, as well as blessed to have been surrounded by so much support at Montana Western, from athletics to academics," McCloud said.

Montana Campus Compact honored McCloud and 14 other Montana students during halftime of the "Brawl of the Wild" football game between University of Montana and Montana State University for their achievements in academics, athletics and volunteerism.

McCloud has also been recognized in the past as three time Frontier Conference defensive all-conference team selection, Frontier Conference academic all-conference, 2014 pre-season NAIA All-American, AFCA NAIA All-American and NAIA Daktronics Scholar Athlete.

A native of Manhattan, Mont., McCloud finished his senior year with 60 tackles and five interceptions that ranked him in the top 20 nationally for interceptions per game. In his four-year career as a Bulldog, McCloud accumulated 246 tackles, 13 interceptions and two blocked kicks.

McCloud also serves as a volunteer coach and youth mentor. He will graduate in December of 2015 with a degree in K-12 art education and a minor in K-12 health and physical education.

Montana Campus Compact is Montana's largest higher education network and works to improve community life by educating students for civic and social responsibility.

No. 4 Arizona Christian rallies to beat Montana Western

The University of Montana Western Bulldogs men's basketball team was unable to hold off the No. 4 Arizona Christian University Firestorm as they fell 79-76. (Box Score)

The first eight minutes and the last eight minutes proved to be costly as the Bulldogs could not weather the Firestorm full court run-and-jump defense to start or finish the game.

The first half started slow and finished fast as the Bulldogs took a 37-30 lead into intermission. No. 4 Arizona Christian started the game on a 10-2 run and held their eight point lead to a 16-8 lead with 12:14 to play in the half. The 'Dawgs answered with a 29-14 run to conclude the first half of action.

If not for the Firestorms' Chris Sterling's hot hand, the Bulldogs may have taken an even larger lead to start the game. Sterling scored 20 first half points on 6-10 shooting from the field, including 3-5 from downtown and 5-6 from the charity stripe.

Senior Demetrius Balark (12), freshman Kooper Kidgell (9) and senior Dexter Williams, Jr. (7) paced the first half scoring. Kidgell came off the bench to knockdown two long-range bombs that sparked the Bulldogs late first-half push.

In a battle of two NAIA Sweet 16 qualifiers from a season ago proved that defense is the key to success as both teams struggled to knock down shots at a consistent clip in the first half.

The Bulldogs shot just 40 percent (13-32) from the field and limited the Firestorm to 32 percent (9-28). Sterling was 6-10 as the rest of the team combined to go 3-18 from the field.

Montana Western picked up where they left off as they continued to steadily grow their lead in the early goings of the second half. They stretched their lead to as many as 16 points (65-49) after a two-point bucket by Shyke Smalls with 8:17 to play.

Following an Arizona Christian timeout, the Firestorm took off to score 12 unanswered points and finished the game on a 30-11 run to result in the final score of 79-76.

The game saw six ties and nine lead changes, no lead change was bigger than when Bobby Gray scored two of his eight points to take the lead for good at 71-69.

After scoring 20 first half points, Sterling was limited to seven second half points and a game-high 27 points.

With the defensive focus on the All-American Sterling,

925-1003

Brandon Newman scored 21 of his 22 points in the second half, including five 3-pointers to help propel the Firestorm to a non-conference victory.

Shariff Watson joined Sterling and Newman in double-figures with 15 points.

The Bulldogs were led by junior Shyke Smalls who scored all of his team-high 26 points in the second half as he finished 10-16 from the field and knocked down 5-9 3-pointers.

Balark finished with 17 points on 6-12 shooting, he also dished out three assists, grabbed four rebounds and recorded three steals.

After playing all 40 minutes, Williams, Jr. nine points, brought down seven rebounds, tallied three steals, dished out two assists and blocked a shot.

Ryan Sullivan finished with a game-high 10 rebounds. Montana Western will return to action on Saturday at 4 p.m. as they take on Benedictine-Mesa in their final game of the Chandler-Gilbert Classic.

Williams, Smalls power Bulldogs to victory over Redhawks

Coming off a heart-breaking loss to No. 4 Arizona Christian, the Bulldogs bounced back to beat Benedictine University at Mesa behind the high-powered scoring attack of Dexter Williams, Jr. and Shyke Smalls - 82-69.

It appeared to be déjà vu as the Bulldogs (7-6) again found themselves in a big first half hole as they trailed 18-4 just 6:40 into the game.

Sparked by back-to-back and-ones by Connor Woodill and Kooper Kidgell the Bulldogs fought themselves out of the double-digit deficit and cut the Redhawk's lead to just five points in less than two minutes. (Box Score)

A back-and-forth battle concluded the first half as BenU at Mesa took a 35-31 lead into the break. The Redhawk's were led by 19 first half points from junior Troy Conley on 6-6 shooting from downtown. Montana Western was paced by Williams, Jr. as he pumped in 12 first half points.

Kooper Kidgell and Woodill were big off the bench to keep the 'Dawgs close by scoring 13 points in the half.

After shooting just 32 percent from the field in the opening stanza (10-31) and 9 percent from beyond the arc
