NOURSE NAMED BULLDOG FOOTBALL COACH

University of Montana Western Chancellor Beth Weatherby announced today that current athletic director Ryan Nourse has been named head football coach replacing B.J. Robertson who resigned earlier to become an assistant coach at Montana State University.

Nourse will also serve as interim athletic director until a replacement can be hired.

"We are fortunate to have made great progress in our athletic programs over the last two years under Ryan's leadership," Weatherby said. "He has developed a foundation from which we can continue to build a strong program."

Weatherby said the university will begin a national search for an athletic director July 1, 2016.

"I'm excited to return as Bulldog head coach," Nourse said. "I'm looking forward to building on coach Robertson's success and putting structures in place to provide stability and consistency in our program."

A 1997 graduate of Montana Western, Nourse previously coached football at the high school level and at Western State College, Truman State University and Morningside College. He was head coach of the Montana Western football team from 2011-2013 before becoming athletic director.

During Nourse's tenure as athletic director, Montana Western added cross country and cheerleading as varsity sports. He has also credited with growing athletic fundraising efforts including installing a corporate sponsorship program and significantly increasing revenue from the Bulldog Booster Bash, the program's major fundraising event.

Nourse earned a Bachelor of Science in history and political science from Western Montana College (now the University of Montana Western) in 1997 and a Master of Arts in professional education from Morningside College in 2007.

Nourse will begin coaching duties with the team immediately and will officially take over the program upon approval by the Montana Board of Regents.

The Giving Tree

Dillon Masonic Lodge No. 16, AF & AM would like to thank Dillon and the local area for your fabulous support of the Giving Tree, co-sponsored by the Dillon Masonic Lodge along with Gail Kuntz of the Good Life. Generous people brought in over 200 gifts for children to brighten up the children's Christmas. In past years, the Dilmart hosted and co-sponsored the popular event and since they are no longer in business, the Masons decided to help sponsor this most worthwhile project. The Lodge donated their building space at the corner of Idaho and Bannack Streets for nearly a month to set up three eight foot trees donated by the Conovers. Members decorated the trees and manned the room to let people come in and pick out one or more tags for gifts then to accept the gifts and present them under the tree for display. Gail Kuntz and her friends will take the gifts and distribute them after the closing date of December 18th, just in time for Christmas. Although really no count was made where people were from who contributed, but members noted Glen, Lima, Grasshopper Valley and even Sheridan were where some of the generous people were from. Again, many thanks from the Dillon Masonic Lodge to all our generous friends and neighbors who made this Giving Tree possible.

What Do We Love About Christmas?

What do we love about Christmas,
 Does our delight reside in things?
 Or are the feelings in our hearts
 The real gift that Christmas brings.

It's seeing those we love,
 And sending Christmas cards, too,
 Appreciating people who bring us joy
 Special people just like you.

MERRY CHRISTMAS !

FROM

BEAVERHEAD RIVER COWBOY CHURCH !

AS WE CELEBRATE THE BIRTH OF JESUS CHRIST THIS SEASON WE PRAY FOR THE PEACE AND WELLBEING OF YOU AND YOUR FAMILIES.

GOD BLESS EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU

'Twas the night before Jesus came and all through the house
Not a creature was praying, not one in the house.
Their Bibles were lain on the shelf without care
In hopes that Jesus would not come there.
The children were dressing to crawl into bed,
Not once ever kneeling or bowing a head.
And Mom in her rocker with baby on her lap
Was watching the Late Show while I took a nap.

When out of the East there arose such a clatter,
I sprang to my feet to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash
Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash!

When what to my wondering eyes should appear
But angels proclaiming that Jesus was here.
With a light like the sun sending forth a bright ray
I knew in a moment this must be The Judgement Day!

The light of His face made me cover my head
It was Jesus!.... Returning just like He had said.
And though I possessed worldly wisdom and wealth
I cried when I saw Him in spite of myself.

In the Book of Life which He held in His hand
Was written the name of every saved woman and man.
He spoke not a word as He searched for my name;
When He said "It's not here" my head hung in shame.

The people whose names had been written with love
He gathered to take to His Father above.
With those who were ready He rose without a sound
While all the rest were left standing around.

I fell to my knees, but it was too late;
I had waited too long and this sealed my fate.
I stood and I cried as they rose out of sight;
Oh, if only I had been ready tonight.

In the words of this poem the meaning is clear;
The coming of Jesus is drawing near.
There's only "one life" and when comes the last call
We'll find that the Bible was true after all!
