If a Commissioner Resigns?

By: MJ

What is the protocol if a commissioner resigns before he is termed out? There are many reasons why a commissioner might resign like; health, moving away, family... If a position is vacated there are statutes that govern how a replacement will be chosen. Question: Will a replacement be chosen with a process that is "fair, open and transparent?"

1. The remaining county commissioners shall fill the vacancy and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election unless otherwise provided. 7-4-2106

2. If the resigning person was an independent, nonpartisan, or originally nominated by a party that does not meet the requirements of 13-10-601, the remaining commissioners shall invite applications for the vacancy in a notice published as provided in 13-1-108 and shall accept an application from any person who has lived in the unrepresented district for at least 2 years immediately preceding the day the vacancy occurs. 7-4-2106

Elected position such as a commissioner necessitate people to have leadership skills, education with finances, land issues, private property rights, water, statutes, ability to do long term planning and the list goes on. As in all political positions politics do come into play.

- Vacated positions provide the people the opportunity to be brave and proud of their county by standing-tall and getting involved in a selection procedure for replacements? If you don't get involved the person chosen -- handpicked by the seated commissioners may or may not be a friend of person picking, a person regarded as someone important in local society, someone owed a favor to, someone that the people in office perceive they can control...

Would it be true that politics are actively working in our county? The rumors on the street right now is that there are at this time people being discussed to be a commissioner if a seat is vacated. Question: Would this be a fair, open, and transparent method for the people or might it be considered working behind doors? Remember if there ever is a vacancy then the position must be noticed in the local paper before position is filled.

NEW WATER BILL FORMAT

The City of Dillon has changed the format for Water & Sewer bills. Watch for the new bill in an envelope and printed on a full sheet of paper. They should be in mail boxes during the first week of January.

Lady Bulldogs drop non-conference matchup to Valley City State

The Montana Western Lady Bulldogs dropped a back-and-forth non-conference battle to Valley City State - 68-64 - in the second day of the Rocky Mountain College Hampton Inn Classic at the Fortin Center.

The Bulldogs faced there largest deficit with 3:01 to play in the game at 62-51 before going on a 10-0 run over the next two minutes cutting the Viking lead to just one point with 57 seconds remaining.

Senior guard Sierra Higheagle led the push as she scored eight points and nabbed two steals during the run to bring her team within striking distance. Valley City State remained calm as they knocked down 6 of 8 free throws over the final 27 seconds to put the game away.

Higheagle finished the game with 12 points, four steals, three rebounds and two assists in 29 minutes of action.

The last-ditch effort was not enough to overcome the hot-shooting from the upstart Vikings (9-5) who have now won five consecutive games, including a 64-62 defeat of No. 20 Rocky last night. In the game, Valley City State shot 47 percent (26-55) from the field and a blistering 59 percent (10-17) from behind the arc.

The Vikings were led by Georgia Williams who pumped in 19 points on 6 for 8 shooting, including a perfect 4 of 4 from downtown.

Montana Western was paced by four players to score in double-figures - Palmore scored a team-high 14 followed by Higheagle's 12, Molly Klinker's 12 and McCall Hasquet with 10.

Hasquet scored eight points in the first six minutes of the game as she kept the Bulldogs in the game early, she also grabbed five rebounds.

Palmore also had a game-high five assists to go with five rebounds as Kaye Bignell chipped in with five points, five rebounds and three assists.

After committing a season-low eight turnovers in the game, Montana Western forced the Vikings into 19 turnovers and turned them into 22 points.

Despite outshooting Valley City State from the free throw line - 17 to 8 in attempts - the Bulldogs were unable to convert as they made just 9 of 17 attempts in the game.

The Bulldogs will return to action on Jan. 7 as they travel to Montana Tech and open up the New Year with Frontier Conference play.
