Philip G. "Bud" Reeves
Nov. 8, 1927 – Jan 3, 2016

Philip George "Bud" Reeves of Dillon passed away on January 3, 2016 at Barrett Hospital in Dillon. He was born November 8, 1927 in Shaunavon, Saskatchewan, Canada to Howard and Mildred Reeves. The family moved to Billings and then to Lovell, WY, Rapelje, Shawmut, and eventually to Alder, MT and he graduated from Sheridan High School in 1944 at the age of 16. Bud served two tours of duty in the US Army and was honorably discharged in 1950.

Bus started working as a young man as a heavy equipment operator and was considered to be one of the best "cat skinners' in the state. He probably worked road construction on every section of interstate in Montana.

Bud enjoyed camping, hunting, and fishing all over Montana and he loved to play cribbage. He was known for his quick wit and nicknames for his friends and family. Bud married Billy Geiger and she passed away in June 1983. He married Elizabeth "Bessie" McNinch on September 11, 1999. She was his soul mate and fishing partner and the only person who could out-fish him.

Bud was preceded in death by his parents, first wife, his sister Lila and his brothers-in-law Elmer Gee and Albert Brown. He is survived by his wife Bessie, her niece Bernice Nadeau and her family, sisters, Roberta High of Twin Bridges, JoAnne Brown of Butte, nephews, Dan High of Twin Bridges, Jay High of Powell, TN, Larry Gee of Rapelje, Richard Gee of Shepherd, Billy Brown of Easton, WA, and nieces Colleen Meyer of Stevensville, Yvonne Cappelano of Conn., and Susan Leiner of CA.

Cremation has taken place and no services are planned as per Bud's wishes. His ashes will be scattered at his favorite fishing hole in the spring. Memorials may be made to charity of choice.

After Colleen graduated high school, she moved to Logan, Utah, and worked at Thiokol as a secretary, where she met her husband of nearly 54 years, Rex Rasmussen, who affectionately called her "Collie". After a whirlwind romance of five weeks, they were married Feb. 9, 1962, at the Rasmussen family farm in Cache Junction, Utah. In 2012, they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary surrounded by family and friends.

They moved often with Rex's career advancement with IBM and ITEL. In 1994, they settled back in Cache Valley. Colleen was very proud of her work as an office manager for Cordell Lundahl, who greatly respected her judgment, integrity and common sense.

Over the years, Colleen and Rex had the wonderful opportunity to travel internationally and take family trips to Hawaii and Mexico. Colleen said that no matter what happened in life no one could ever take away those memories and experiences.

Colleen often said there was nothing she wanted more in life than to be a mother. She had two children, Janna in 1965 and Todd on her birthday in 1968. She was a patient and affectionate mom, who loved her kids unconditionally. Colleen was a favorite among Janna and Todd's friends because of her willingness to talk openly and her youthful exuberance. Colleen was the "cool" mom that everyone loved.

Colleen was fun-loving and brought warmth and humor to any gathering. Her laughter was infectious. Her daughter, Janna, inherited her goofy humor and laugh. Colleen often joked that when they giggled together it was like hearing an echo. Todd inherited her desire to please and ability to communicate with people.

Colleen was sentimental and even cried during heartwarming commercials. She loved Rodgers and Hammerstein musicals. Her son-in-law, Joe, fondly remembers catching her dancing and singing around the kitchen to music from "South Pacific" on Thanksgiving 1987.

Colleen had her own unconventional fashion sense. "Auntie Mame" - that was Colleen. She loved "baubles," bright colors, animal prints and high heels. She especially missed wearing high heels in more recent years. We hope that she's now enjoying wearing red high heels again - like those she was wearing when she first met Rex.

Colleen was an excellent cook but joked that her dishes never turned out the same way twice. Todd inherited her love of cooking and experimentation in the kitchen. She loved to entertain and was the "hostess with the most-est".

Although Colleen was baptized in the LDS Church, she was not particularly religious. However all who knew Colleen have said she exhibited her faith more than many who regularly attended church by how she lived her life - with integrity, honesty, warmth and compassion. Colleen believed that you couldn't go too far wrong if you lived by the "Golden Rule."

Colleen is survived by her husband, Rex, of Logan, UT; her daughter, Janna (Joe) Hawkins, of Petersboro, UT; her son, Todd, of San Mateo, CA; her sister, Shawna (David) Boudrero, of Hyde Park, UT; her brother, Dr. Jim (Jeanne) Kirby, of Hayden, ID. She is also survived by her nieces and nephews who adored her, just as she adored them. Family gatherings just won't be the same without her mischievous sense of fun.

The family will hold a celebration of her life memorial service for family and friends at a future date. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to a charity of your choice in her memory. Colleen would have liked that.

Letter to the Editor

Regarding "rumors on the street": about 40 years ago a rancher collogue gave me a piece of good advice. "When you want to know the truth, you go to the horse's mouth, not the other end."

Lynn Giles
