DILLON BOYS ESCAPE HAMILTON

The game lead kept changing before Dillon escaped with the before leaving Hamilton 55-53 Saturday on the road.

Troy Andersen had a game high 20 points and Nate Simkins wasn't far behind with 17 points to push his team to the victory.

The Beavers led by two at the end of the first quarter and then Hamilton came back and tied the game going into the lockers at half time. The Beavers were behind with a minute left and with seconds left pulled out the win.

DILLON GIRLS HOLD OFF HAMILTON

The game between the Beaver girls and Hamilton had a couple intentional fouls on Hamilton that gave a few extra free points to Dillon from the charity stripe. The Dillon girls had a big second quarter and had 18 free throw points to bring that final score to 47-35 at home Saturday.

Brynley Fitzgerald led the Dillon girls with 15, Rachael Nye had 12 points and Bailey Beriochoa put 10 on the boards. Other points for Dillon came from Alex Rouse with 5, Kathleen Tatarka 4 and Kaitlyn Anderson with 1.

Scott, Smalls lead Bulldogs to comeback win over No. 12 Saints in double overtime

The University of Montana Western men's basketball rallied from a double-digit deficit in the last four minutes to knock off No. 12 Carroll College - 90-88 - in double overtime in a Frontier Conference battle inside Straugh Gymnasium on Thursday night.

The Bulldogs took an early 6-5 lead just three minutes into the game before a 3-pointer from Match Burnham gave Carroll a lead they would hold until the Bulldogs final possession of regulation.

Carroll stretched their lead to as many as 17 points in the first half. Montana Western was able to cut into the lead as they finished the half on a 16-6 run heading into intermission with the score in favor of Carroll, 37-30.

The second half started with a Saints 13-5 run that put them up 50-35 just over five minutes into the frame. Trailing by 15 points on their home floor in a pivotal conference matchup, the Bulldogs started to chip away at the Carroll lead.

The charge was led by the duo of junior Shyke Smalls and freshman Troy Scott. Over the final 14:16 of regulation, Smalls and Scott combined to score 32 points, grab four rebounds and dish out two assists.

With some free basketball, the fans were not disappointed as the teams traded blows, none able to knock the other out. After a back-and-forth battle, the Bulldogs were able to have the final possession and Smalls shot at the buzzer fell short and the teams headed into double overtime tied at 83.

Montana Western struck first on a Dexter Williams, Jr. lay-up to take a two point advantage after the possession in the second overtime. Oliver Carr answered with a trip to the free throw line where he converted on 1 of 2 attempts, cutting their deficit to one point.

Smalls connected on a long-range bomb to put the Bulldogs up 88-84 with 3:09 on the clock. The Fighting Saints did not give up as they battled back with the help of missed free throws and turnovers from the Bulldogs that saw them tie the game at 88-all with just 33 seconds remaining.

A Connor Woodill three-point attempt with four seconds remaining was off the mark, but Carroll was unable to secure the rebound and lost the ball out-of-bounds with .8 seconds to go.

Williams, Jr. was fouled by Burnham on a lob attempt that sent him to the charity stripe with a chance to win the game.

Williams, Jr., who had missed his previous four free throw attempts, calmly stepped to the line and knocked down both shots to seal the victory and hand Carroll their first conference loss of the season.

In a game that had four players rack up more than 40 minutes of playing time - two from each team - with Carroll's Taylor (44) and Lorel Johnson (40) and Western's Williams, Jr. (48) and Smalls (41), there were seven players who reached double figures in the scoring column.

Montana Western's comeback effort saw three players have double-digit scoring outings led by Smalls who tallied a game-high 29 points – 23 came in the second half. It was the third time this season that Smalls has scored 20-plus points in the second half of a game.

Scott, a redshirt freshman from Dillon, scored a career-high 21 points on 7 of 11 shooting, including two made 3-pointers. Scott scored 14 in the second half to help propel his team to a much-needed victory, he also dished out a game-high six assists and grabbed five rebounds.

Just missing out on a double-double was Williams, Jr. who finished with 16 points and a game-high nine rebounds and two steals. He ended the game with a 6 for 12 effort from the free throw line. None of his free throw makes were bigger than the game-winners with less than one second remaining.

by Tim Kimmel
