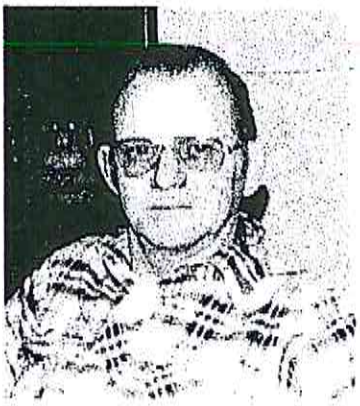
Arnold Allen Epperson,82



On January 31, 2016, Arnold Allen Epperson,82, passed away in his sleep and is no longer in pain.

He was born August 10, 1933 in Glasgow, Missouri to Isabel and Gordon Epperson. He is the youngest of five siblings: Lindy, Chere, Patsy, and Katherine. He was raised on the Missouri River.

He joined the Navy at 17 years of age. He served his country for 20 years in the Korean and Vietnam Wars earning various medals. He retired from the Navy to Butte, Montana and went to work for Montana Power for 24 years as a machinist foreman. He then retired to Dillon, Montana for the next 25 years as he loved this community. In Dillon, he had a side mechanic business that he loved until he became sick. Al was a 32nd degree Mason, belonging to Butte Lodge 22 and was proud to be a Shriner and a Potentate's Aid. The NRA has lost Montana's longest reining member of 65 years. He loved to hunt and fish and have a cold beer with his friends.

Al married Katherine Applegate on July 2, 1980 and they were married 35 ½ years at his passing.

He is survived by his wife, Katherine Epperson, his daughter Debbie Lee Epperson, two sons, Jess Allen Applegate (Julie) and Gregory Dion Applegate, 11 grandchildren (Misti, Christi, Madison, Ashley, Cody, Briar, Bonner, Sophia, Kassidy, Hailey, and Eli), a brother in law, Kenneth Wheeler (Patricia), and sister in law Darlene Smith (Dennis).

He was preceded in death by his parents, Isabel and Gordon, and brother Lindy.

There will be a small memorial on Saturday, February 6, 2016 at Brundage Funeral Home at 11:00 am with a reception to follow at Grace Bible Church on Laknar Lane. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation in Arnold's behalf to the Shriner's Hospitals, The Masonic Lodge, or a charity of your choice. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Medical Marijuana

By: MJ

Hearings are currently being held by the council for a six (6) month freeze on any new dispensing or growing marijuana businesses in Dillon. The moratorium is to allow the city fathers (council) to do more research into the cause and effects of a marijuana business. Question: Would this be a plus for the existing business?

I do not have any information on how the council will proceed with the research. Question: Would a questionnaire be a tool that might help them made a well informed decision. The questionnaire would solely be to collect information from local people about medical marijuana businesses in Dillon, where they may or may not be located, what are the benefits to the people and the economy, identify the problems to the people and economy…

As President Wilson said; "A leaders ears must ring with the voice of the people." People are reluctant to speak publicly at meetings however they will fill out questionnaires. There is always two side to everything and city fathers should know both before making decisions.

AMERICAN LEGION POST 20 MEETING

The meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 3rd at the Legion Hall on 437 E. Glendale St. with a social hour 6;15 - 7:00 pm and meeting at 8:00 pm. Chef Ray Giudici will be cooking Chicken and Rice assisted by Dave Walten and Steve Esquibel.

BUSINESS MEETING SCHEDULED FOR DILLON ROTARY WEDNESDAY

The Dillon Rotarians will conduct their business meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 3, 2016. Visitors are welcome. Anyone interested in learning more about Rotary should come at noon to be a guest for lunch. No. 3 Lewis-Clark State snaps No. 25 Bulldogs home win streak

Before the 3rd ranked LC-State Warriors came to town for a Frontier Conference clash, the University of Montana Western men's basketball team had won 15 consecutive regular season home conference games. By the time the Warriors left the gym, they had snapped that streak and came away with a 92-79 victory.

Despite a career day from NAIA All-American Dexter Williams, Jr. – who finished the night with 31 points, seven rebounds, five assists and shot 10-17 from the field and 9-12 from the charity stripe – the Bulldogs were unable to overcome 12 turnovers and a slow start.

LC-State jumped out to a 16-3 lead just 6:32 into the game and never looked back as they led from wire-to-wire and stretched their lead to as many as 22 points midway through the second half.

Montana Western cut the lead to five points with 4:04 to play in the first half and looked like they had dug themselves out of a huge hole and then the No. 3 Warriors responded to end the half on a 10-5 run and took a 47-37 lead into intermission.

Even though the 'Dawgs shot a decent clip from the field, 44 percent (29-66) and 35 percent (9-26) from three, they could not string together multiple defensive stops.

Every time it appeared that Montana Western would get themselves back in the game, the Warriors would come up with a three-point play, whether it was a long-range bomb or an old fashioned and-one. For the game they knocked down 13 triples and finished 17-25 from the charity stripe.

The Bulldogs were 12-17 from the line with Shyke Smalls (3-4) and Williams, Jr. taking all but one attempt in the game.

Quinn Smith and Smalls joined Williams, Jr. in double-figures with 12 and 11 points respectively. Smith also grabbed seven rebounds and blocked one shot.

Freshman Troy Scott dished out five assists and grabbed seven rebounds to go with three points.

The Warriors were paced by five players to reach double-digits in the scoring column, led by Cammie Lewis (17) and followed by Doug McDaniel (16), Montana native Nick Emerson (12), Rich Tesmer and Isaiah Omamogho (11).

Eight different Warriors made three-pointers, led Lewis and Omamogho with three apiece.

Leading scorer and rebounder Jacob Wiley was limited to just six points tonight, but came down with a team tying high seven rebounds.

McDaniel also grabbed seven rebounds to go with his 16 points off the bench.

In a battle of two top-25 ranked NAIA teams, there were 39 fouls called, with three fouling out.

The loss drops Montana Western to 14-9 overall and 7-4 in the Frontier and into sole possession of third place in the standings.

With a win, LC-State improves to 20-2 and 8-2 as they sit half a game back of the Frontier Conference top spot currently held by Carroll College at 9-2 in conference.

The 'Dawgs will return to action next Saturday, Feb. 6 at 7:30 p.m. in Billings, Mont. as they take on Rocky Mountain College.

Bulldog rally falls just short against No. 13 Warriors

The University of Western women's basketball team was unable to complete a furious rally in the final minutes of their game against the No. 13 Lewis-Clark State College Warriors as they fell just short, 76-69.

Trailing by 14 points – 70-56 – with just 4:30 remaining in the game, the Bulldogs (12-11, 2-9 Frontier) mounted a comeback as they tried to knock-off the Frontier Conference's top team. The valiant effort was led by a barrage of three-pointers, two from senior McCall Hasquet who finished with 11 points on the night.

A 13-2 run was capped off by a Britt Cooper long-range bomb that cut the Warriors (18-3, 9-1) lead to just 72-69 with 13 seconds remaining, before Caelyn Orlandi finished off the game with four consecutive free-throws as she finished with a game-high 16 points.

Orlandi, who leads the conference in assists, finished with a complete statistical performance as she led the Warriors with six assists, seven rebounds and three steals in the game.

After keeping the 13th ranked Warriors within striking distance after the first two quarters, trailing 41-37, the game got away from them in the third quarter as they were outscored 21-12 in the period and faced a 13 point deficit, they couldn't fully recover from, heading into the final period.

Molly Klinker just missed out on a double-double for the second straight game as she brought down a game-high 10 rebounds, but was limited to just eight points before fouling out.

The offense was led by junior point guard Aniese Palmore who scored 14 points and dished out a team-high six assists in 35 minutes of action.

Britt Cooper came off the bench to join Palmore with 14 points, she also grabbed six rebounds and finished with five assists in the game as she shot an efficient 5 of 6 from the field.

A poor shooting performance from the field and 15 turnovers played the antithesis to the outstanding rebounding performance and free throw shooting for the Bulldogs.

Montana Western shot just 35 percent (23-66) in the game and 28 percent (7-25) from three-point territory compared to 50 percent (29-57) and 41 percent (7-17) from downtown for LC State.

The Bulldogs held a slight edge on the glass, 40-37, that was aided by 13 offensive rebounds and outshot their opponents from the charity stripe as they finished 16-20 (80 percent) and the Warriors were 11-17 (65 percent).

Brittany Tackett and Hailey Turner joined Orlandi in double-figures as they finished with 13 and 12 respectively. Tackett also grabbed five rebounds.

Junior Megan Risinger also had a solid game for the Warriors as she ended with eight points, five assists and four rebounds.

The Bulldogs will return to action next Saturday, Feb. 6 as they travel to Billings, Mont. to face the Rocky Mountain College Battlin' Bears at 5:30 p.m.
