Iris Hubbard

Iris Hubbard passed away Feb. 5th 2016 at Parkview Acres surrounded by family. Iris was born on April 26th 1926 to James David Stewart and Clara Bernice Flaherty Stewart in St. Louis Missouri. Soon after the family moved to Darby Mt where brothers Robert and William were born.

Iris's mother passed away when she was 6 years old and she and her two brothers went to live with 5 other cousins who were all raised by her grandmother. Iris went to school in the Bitteroot Valley and at the age of 16 married Aage Nygard. They were divorced after 18 years of marriage and Iris and her three children moved to Dillon Mt where she met and married William Franklin Hubbard. He had four daughters and one son. Together they had two daughters giving them a grand total of ten children. They had a very happy life together. She was a devoted mother and wife and spared no effort to take care of her family. Iris loved her yard and flowers spending countless hours there the instant the snow was gone. She also loved to cook and crochet. She and Bill were active in the Elks Club and other community organizations. Both were avid bowlers and spent many years on the city bowling league. She and Bill loved to go camping in the summer taking along with them the family and pets. William passed away in 2006 followed by her daughter Margie in 2007. She is survived by her brother Robert (Bitteroot Bob) Stewart of Dillon Mt. and her children. Lynne (Walt) Zukauckas of Libby Mt., Kathleen (Keith) Blomquist of Rock Springs Wyo., Diana Remillard of Dillon, Mt., Douglas Hubbard of Butte Mt., Ellen (Dave) Cuchine of Butte Mt., Lola (Howey) Matteson of Butte Mt., Joann Julian of Butte Mt., Wilma (Gary) Marchesseau of Dillon Mt., Sheryl Woods of Dillon Mt., and numerous grand children and great grand children.

Graveside services will be held Feb. 12th, 2016 at 11:00 a.m. at the Mountain View Cemetery followed by a casual gathering and light luncheon at the home of Sheryl Woods at 62 Parkwood Drive in Dillon. Donations and memorials may be made to the charity of choice. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Multi-Agency Compliance Check in Great Falls Reveals Eight Non-Compliant Offenders

Third Offender Compliance Check Conducted in Cascade County Since 2013

With the goal of locating offenders who aren't in compliance with Montana's Sexual or Violent Offender Registry, Montana law enforcement agencies conducted intensive compliance checks in Great Falls January 19 - 21. During the operation, a total of 129 sex offender address verifications were conducted; 121 of those offenders were found to be in compliance.

Eight offenders were found to be noncompliant, which means they failed to return their address verification letters. Three of those offenders completed change of address forms and are now compliant; another three offenders had moved out of the area; one was hospitalized and one had recently moved out of a nursing home. Two additional sex offenders were arrested on failure to register warrants or probation violations.

Last month's compliance check also lead to the arrest of five other individuals; three arrests were for probation and parole violations; two were arrested on felony narcotics warrants. During the operation, a small amount of suspected meth was seized as well as several items of drug paraphernalia.

Attorney General Tim Fox said, "This was the third concentrated compliance check of noncompliant sexual or violent offenders in Great Falls and Cascade County since 2013, when offender compliance checks were first initiated in Montana by my office. Thanks to the diligence of our Division of Criminal Investigation team and their strong partnerships with other law enforcement agencies, 98 noncompliant sexual or violent offenders in Cascade County have been brought into compliance since that time, helping keep area families safe and our offender registry up-to-date. "

In the past three years, law enforcement agencies have conducted operations in Billings, Kalispell, and Missoula, as well as in Beaverhead, Glacier, Lake, Pondera, and Roosevelt Counties. More compliance checks are planned across the state in 2016.

This recent compliance check involved personnel from the U.S. Marshal's Service, the Montana Department of Justice's Division of Criminal Investigation, the Montana Department of Corrections, and the Great Falls Police Department. "Collaborative approaches by Montana law enforcement from the local, state, and federal level are efficient and effective in keeping our communities safe," said Bryan Lockerby, Administrator of the Division of Criminal Investigation. "As our latest joint operation demonstrates, these compliance checks often identify other criminal activity that assists local agencies with their enforcement actions."

"Probation and parole officers work hard every day to ensure that offenders comply with the conditions of their release. But with more than 8,500 offenders under supervision in communities throughout Montana, that's a huge task," Department of Corrections Director Mike Batista said. "When cross-agency law enforcement teams combine their resources in a focused operation as we did in Great Falls, we can have a dramatic impact on public safety."

A 2013 multi-agency compliance check conducted in Great Falls resulted in 50 noncompliant sexual or violent offenders being located; a second operation conducted in Cascade County the following year resulted in authorities bringing 40 noncompliant sexual or violent offenders into compliance.

Under Montana law, convicted sexual or violent offenders must register their address of residence with local law enforcement. The information is provided to the Montana Department of Justice and input into the Sexual or Violent Offender Registry (SVOR). Depending on their tier level designation, sex offenders must verify their addresses with law enforcement on a regular basis (by law, violent offenders are not given a tier level). When an offender fails to verify his/her address, he/she falls out of compliance with the registry.

- Tier III (the most dangerous) sex offenders must verify address every 90 days
- Tier II sex offenders must verify address every 180 days
- Tier I and non-designated sex offenders must verify address once per year

Montana's SVOR, which tracks an average of 2,300 sexual offenders and 3,300 violent offenders at any given time, is viewable online at https://app.doj.mt.gov/apps/svow/default.aspx On-line visitors may also register for free email notifications that allow them to be automatically notified whenever a sexual or violent offender moves into a zip code of interest to subscribers.

A: We have completed the iron-man and iron-woman competition for 2015. The competition uses the Presidential Physical fitness test events. Each DMS student completed the five events and points were given to the top five athletes in each competition. At the end of the competition, points were added up and an iron-man and iron-woman were chosen. This year we had quite a few ties amongst the boys. Congratulations to this years' iron men and iron women. For the sixth grade it is: Ainsley Shipman, Noah Huffaker, Connor Vezina and Cord Hahnkamp. 7th graders are Madalen Shipman and Daxon Graham, and winning for the 8th grade are Kylee Pittman, Jacob Ogurek, and Matthew Knight. Great job students, and thank you Mr. Williams for running such a great competition.

We also had some students who made the "ALL TIME TOP THREE BOARD" – In the shuttle run, making the board are Tylia DeJohn with 8.56 seconds, Ainsley Shipman with 8.69 seconds, and Maddy Shipman with 8.73 seconds. Each of these girls are now in first place for their grade. Making the board in situps done in a minute are: Maddy Shipman with 65, and Kylee Pittman with 71. The team finished in 5th place over all.

In girls' basketball, the Whiteout against Butte Central was a success. Thanks to all the students who dressed in white and cheered on the A teams. The 7th grade team won by 4 points in double over time, and the 8A team narrowly lost. Great job girls. Also, student council raised $170 for Mrs. O'Neil during their half time pop a shot. Kids paid a dollar for the opportunity to make a three point shot and win a pop. Thanks to everyone who participated.

Today, Tuesday, February 9th, and Thursday, February 11th, all four teams host Butte East. 7th grade will play in the DMS gyms, while 8th grade will play in the new gym. Games will be at 4:30 and 5:30.

Saturday, February 13th, the A teams will finish off the season with the Montana City Tournament. The bus will leave at nine am. The games will begin at 9:00 am, with the 8th graders playing at Montana City, and the 7th graders playing at East Valley Middle School.

Parent teacher conferences are coming up February 22nd and 23rd. We'll keep you posted with more information.
