2016 University of Montana Western Pink Zone Features a Variety of Fun Events

The University of Montana Western (UMW) women's basketball team joined the "Pink Zone" initiative for the 2008-09 season. The initial year's fundraising efforts raised $700 in donations.

The "Pink Zone", formerly known as "Think Pink", was started in 2007 by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) as an initiative to raise breast cancer awareness in campus communities and beyond.

Since its inception, Pink Zone fundraising events have raised $31,830.61 in Beaverhead County. Those monies are donated to the Southwest Montana Mammography Program (SMM) at Barrett Hospital in Dillon, Mont.

Special Pink Zone t-shirts were sold throughout Dillon. The 2016 t-shirt featured a design by McCall Hasquet, a member of the Montana Western women's basketball team.

Montana Western Pink Zone activities conclude this weekend with several fun-raising events and the special Pink Zone basketball game. Beaverhead County High School's Pink Zone games and activities are Feb. 19 and 20.

The Bulldogs are hosting the University of Great Falls on Saturday, Feb. 13 in the official Pink Zone game. There will be a variety of activities during the game.

On Friday, Feb. 12 and Saturday, Feb. 13 the Brewery in Dillon will donate one dollar for each pint sold. Dennis Schurg, Edward Jones; Pioneer Federal, UMW Chancellor Beth Weatherby and Steve Kramer, and Trent Cottom of Edward Jones will also make contributions for each pint sold.

Sparky's Garage in Dillon will donate two dollars for each entrée sold on Friday and Saturday, On Thursday, Feb. 11, NV Salon is donating to the Pink Zone one dollar per haircut and three dollars for each chemical treatment. On Saturday, Feb. 13, the Lion's Den is donating one dollar for each pizza and or pint sold.

Taylor Realty is donating one dollar for each free throw made during both the men and women's game. Beaverhead Home and Ranch is donating one dollar for each 3-point basket made during both the men and women's game.

You are invited to come and support the Pink Zone where all monies raised stays in Beaverhead County!

Silas and Abe...

By Chuck Dishno

Today is Abe Lincoln's 127th birthday. Abe was the 16th President of the United States and one of the greatest if not the greatest. He was also a Republican!

The reason I am writing this is because of my earliest recounting of him. My Grandfather, Silas Dishno used to visit my Dad, Mom and me in Bly, Oregon at least once a year. He had been a cattle rancher in the Big Hole Valley near Jackson, Montana but had sold his ranch to Fred Hirschy about 1910 and moved into Dillon with his wife, Melinda. When Melinda died in 1934 Silas started visiting his three children around the country.

My first recollection of him was when I was about 6 years old in 1940. I was too young to really understand but loved to hear him tell of his experiences in life. Silas was 82 at the time and had many stories under his belt. He would sit back, light up a Roi Tan cigar and keep us all enthralled. He was a great story teller and I attribute some of my story telling ability to this great man.

Silas was a Republican and in 1940 would say he could never understand why they elected a darn Democrat. He said Roosevelt was too hard on the poor working cattle ranchers.

Silas was born in 1858 and proud of the fact that he was 3 years old when Abe Lincoln was elected. James Buchannan was in office when Silas was born. Think of it, Silas was born when the 15th President was in office and died 103 years later when John Kennedy took office. That means he saw 20 Presidents in office, something of a record I would say.

My fantastic Grandfather, Silas was a lifelong Republican and I know he would be devastated to see how much our country has deteriorated over these past few years.

Silas died in January, 1961 at 103 and is buried here in Dillon in the Dishno family plot along with his wife, Melinda and parents, Charles and Rosella. My Mother, Lura, is buried there too and Roz and I will join them in a few years.

Our beloved country is in sad straits and we need to pull ourselves up by our boot straps and get us going again not by more taxes and increasing the national debt but by love of what this great country was founded on, good old fashioned hard work and love of God.

Abraham Lincoln said it best in the last line of the Gettysburg Address; "This nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom -- and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Democrats and Republicans, we need that new birth right now. Let's all get together, put aside our petty differences and make it happen. We can do it!

May God Bless America, Honest Abe and my Grandfather, Silas.

Dillon Fiddle Contest

The Dillon Junior Fiddlers are putting final touches on their plans for the 33rd annual Dillon Fiddle Contest on Valentine's Day weekend, February 13th and 14th at the Old Depot Theater. The judges for the contest this year are Dillon Junior Fiddler alumni, Owen James, and James Schlender. Schlender took his first lessons from James who was one of the founding members of the group. James enjoys competing in Texas and meeting with area fiddlers to jam. Schlender has distinguished himself with numerous state and national titles. Jim Magee, contest chair, said he is, "excited to bring these two alumni back to the Dillon Contest as judges."

This year the Dillon Junior Fiddlers are again pairing with two area businesses, Los Koritas and the Elks Lodge, to offer events that will round out the weekend of excellent fiddle music. The weekend kicks off Friday evening , February 12th, with a jam session at Los Koritas between 6 and 8 pm.

On Saturday morning, registration begins at 8:00 am followed by the first round of the Pee Wee Division, the youngest age group, at 9:00 am. The Junior Juniors, who range in age from 8 to 12 years old will play next. Other divisions in the contest are the Juniors with contestants from 13 through 18 and the General and Championship categories. There is also a jackpot harmony competition. The contest will go on all day except for a lunch break and will commence again on Sunday at 9 am.

Saturday night, the Elks Lodge will host a Valentine's Day Dinner beginning with a social hour at 5:00 pm, followed by dinner at 6:00. Main course menu choices will be Steak or Chicken Marsala. A portion of the proceeds will go to the fiddlers. For dinner reservations, call 683-5552. Local fiddlers and out-of-area contestants will present a variety show at 7:30 on the Elks Lodge stage. Tickets will be available at the door for just the variety show. A silent auction will provide another opportunity to support the Dillon Junior Fiddler Program.

$10 tickets for the Dillon Fiddle contest may be purchased from any Dillon Junior Fiddler, The Bookstore, Sweetwater Coffee, the Beaverhead County Museum and Beacon Business Center. Tickets at the door are $12. Those having tickets will be eligible for the door prize drawings. You do not need to be present to win. Children under 12 can come to the contest free and teenage tickets are $5. For questions about the contest or the weekend, please call Jeannie at 660-2304.

Attorney General Fox Urges U.S. Senate to Pass the "Help Americans Never Get Unwanted Phone Calls" Act

Fox calls on Senate Committee to pass bill repealing amendment allowing debt-collection robocalls

Attorney General Tim Fox is urging the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation to pass the "Help Americans Never Get Unwanted Phone calls Act of 2015" or "HANGUP" Act. In a letter, Fox, along with 24 other state Attorneys General, called on the committee to pass the Act, which repeals a recent amendment to the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) to allow debt-collection robocalls to consumers' cell phones. The letter is available here: https://dojmt.gov/wp-content/uploads/HANGUP-Act.pdf.

Prior to the amendment, the TCPA prohibited all robocalls to cell phones. As amended, the TCPA now permits citizens to receive unwanted and previously illegal robocalls to their cell phones if the calls are made pursuant to the collection of debt owed to or guaranteed by the United States, such as federal student loans. Fox said by passing the HANGUP Act, the federal government has the opportunity to stop the barrage of debt-collection robocalls that can be frustrating and even harassing to citizens who pay for calls to their cell phones.

"Our Office of Consumer Protection ranks robocalls consistently at the top of the list of complaints it receives," Attorney General Fox said. "Montana consumers, as well as those across the country, are tired of robocalls. Our nation's laws should not encourage these types of unwanted calls, particularly debt-collection robocalls."

On June 18, 2015, the FCC formally adopted a rule change which states that federal law does not prohibit telecommunication service providers from offering, upon a customer's request, services intended to block unwanted calls. This clarification moved enforcement efforts forward and armed consumers with ways to prevent unwanted calls. The recent amendment, however, is a step back in the fight against robocalls, Fox said. Since 2010, his Office of Consumer Protection has logged 154 complaints about unwanted robocalls.

Fox reminds Montanans to contact the Montana Department of Justice's Office of Consumer Protection for any consumer-related concerns:

REGION 3 CITIZENS' ADVISORY COMMITTEE TO MEET THURSDAY FEB. 18

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks' Region 3 Citizens' Advisory Committee will meet in Bozeman on Thursday, Feb. 18 at the FWP Regional Office (1400 S. 19th Ave.) from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

The CAC meets quarterly to provide input and guidance on the many natural resource and management issues addressed by FWP in southwest Montana. All meetings are open to the public.

On this meeting's agenda are several updates from the Wildlife Division including a discussion about elk shoulder seasons and the Governor's decision on bison roaming outside the west side of Yellowstone National Park. This precedes other departmental updates, and a follow up report from the CAC's Hunt Right Committee. Wrapping up the meeting will be a planning session for the CAC to determine how the group will move forward in 2016 in terms of preferred future topics and meeting logistics.

For more information about the Region 3 Citizens' Advisory Committee, visit the FWP Web site at http://fwp.mt.gov/regions/r3/cac/.

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks ensures its meetings are fully accessible to persons with disabilities. To request special accommodations relative to a disability for this meeting, contact Andrea Jones at 406-994-6931.
