CHAMPIONS CROWNED IN ELKS "HOOP SHOOT" STATE COMPETITION

Three boys and three girls, ages 8-13, were crowned Montana State Champions at the State Contest of the Elks "Hoop Shoot"® free throw contest, which occurred at Sleeping Giant Middle School in Livingston, MT on Saturday, February 6, 2016.

• Kyler Englellant 8-9 Boys from Dillon #1554 Dillon, MT 1st 21 (1st round of 10 shots - he made 9 & 2nd round of 15 shots - he put in 12)

First, second and third place trophies were awarded to each boy and girl in three categories: ages 8-9, 10-11 and 12-13. The contestants who participated at the Montana State Contest were crowned District Champions from the five districts in Montana.

The State Finalists journey began in the fall of 2015 where Montana Elks Lodges hosted a Lodge Contest. By winning their Lodge Contest, they advanced to their District Contests where they earned the title District Champion, allowing them to travel to Livingston, MT to compete at the State Contest.

The six state champions will represent Montana in the Regional Semi-Finals in Rapid City, SD on Saturday March 12, 2016. They will compete against the State Champions from North Dakota and South Dakota. The Regional Champions will advance to the National Finals in Chicago, IL, April 12, 2016. The names of the national winners are engraved on plaques at the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, MA.

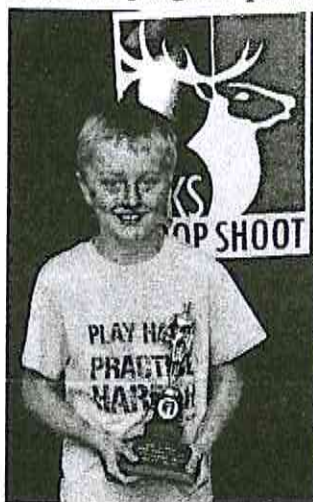

• Montana has sent 39 boys and 39 girls to the National Finals since the inception of the Elks "Hoop Shoot"® Program.

Montana has had 19 contestants who have placed first, second or third at the National Finals.

This program is totally sponsored by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the U.S.A. It is endorsed by hundreds of school systems around the country. The Elks fund the program primarily through its National Foundation and the support of the local lodges and state associations. Travel and lodging expenses for the contestants and their parents are paid by the Elks.

The Elks "Hoop Shoot"®, began as a local program by Corvallis Oregon Elks in 1946, is in its 44th year of national competition. Over three million boys and girls are expected to participate this year. In the past four years, Montana has crowned two national champions.

Ruby Valley Hospital Receives $500,000 Gift Toward New Medical Facility

$500,000 gift shows importance of community-wide access to healthcare
SHERIDAN, MT – After a 10-year planning process, the campaign for the new Ruby Valley Hospital and Medical Center in Sheridan just notched another success.

On Friday, the Ruby Valley Hospital Foundation announced it received a gift of $500,000 toward the campaign for the new Ruby Valley Hospital and Medical Center.

Jim Kennedy, a part-time Ruby Valley resident, made the contribution to the campaign through his foundation. Kennedy, who owns the Trailsend Ranch in the Ruby Valley, is the chairman of Cox Enterprises, a communications, media and automotive services company based in Atlanta, Ga. Drawn to the Ruby Valley's natural beauty and the warmth of the community, Kennedy and his family spend considerable time at their Ruby Valley ranch.

"We are thrilled with Mr. Kennedy's generous gift and what it means for healthcare in the Ruby Valley," said Les Gilman, chairman of the foundation's board of directors. "This gift really reflects his commitment to this community and the importance of the hospital campaign."

The campaign for the new Ruby Valley Hospital and Medical Center is a $2.5 million community-driven initiative to build a new medical facility with added clinic and emergency medical space, x-ray and diagnostic equipment, and major improvements in efficiency, privacy, and comfort. Construction will begin this summer on land already owned by the foundation, near the current Ruby Valley Hospital in Sheridan.

With Kennedy's gift, the largest single gift to date to the hospital campaign, the campaign has raised $2.3 million toward the goal. It will take the community as a whole to secure the remaining funds.

"This effort is about caring for our community," said John Semingson, chief executive officer of the Ruby Valley Hospital. "Mr. Kennedy's gift shows just how committed our community is to caring for one another."

Kennedy and his family are no strangers to supporting the communities they've called home. He is a noted philanthropist who supports conservation projects in addition to health and wellness initiatives, including efforts that help advance patient centered care models and cancer research. He was diagnosed and treated for prostate cancer in 2014 and became a vocal supporter for health awareness and early detection. Kennedy's financial support also helped build Barrett Hospital in Dillon, Montana. In addition to his Montana healthcare support, Kennedy helped create a Health and Wellness Center in connection with Tallahatchie Co. Hospital in Charleston, Mississippi. He is also a leading supporter of Emory University Medicine's new patient-centered care models, which are creating more streamlined and reliable care for patients and families. In 2003, Kennedy and his wife, Sarah, were named Philanthropists of the Year by the Greater Atlanta Chapter of the Association for Fundraising Professionals. Kennedy also serves on numerous non-profit boards.

In recognition of Kennedy's contribution, the physical therapy department in the new medical facility will be named in his honor.

"Access to healthcare is a critical need for everyone," said Gilman. "Mr. Kennedy's gift underscores the importance of preserving high-quality healthcare for the Ruby Valley for everyone who is lucky enough to spend time here."
