The IRS will not ever contact people by email asking for personal info; it is a phishing scam

Consumers Warned of New Surge in IRS E-mail Schemes during 2016 Tax Season; Tax Industry Also Targeted

WASHINGTON - The Internal Revenue Service renewed a consumer alert for e-mail schemes after seeing an approximate 400 percent surge in phishing and malware incidents so far this tax season.

The emails are designed to trick taxpayers into thinking these are official communications from the IRS or others in the tax industry, including tax software companies. The phishing schemes can ask taxpayers about a wide range of topics. E-mails can seek information related to refunds, filing status, confirming personal information, ordering transcripts and verifying PIN information.

Variations of these scams can be seen via text messages, and the communications are being reported in every section of the country.

"This dramatic jump in these scams comes at the busiest time of tax season," said IRS Commissioner John Koskinen. "Watch out for fraudsters slipping these official-looking emails into inboxes, trying to confuse people at the very time they work on their taxes. We urge people not to click on these emails."

This tax season the IRS has observed fraudsters more frequently asking for personal tax information, which could be used to help file false tax returns.

When people click on these email links, they are taken to sites designed to imitate an official-looking website, such as IRS.gov. The sites ask for Social Security numbers and other personal information. The sites also may carry malware, which can infect people's computers and allow criminals to access your files or track your keystrokes to gain information.

As the email scams increase, the IRS is working on this issue through the Security Summit initiative with state revenue departments and the tax industry.

As part of the effort to protect taxpayers, the IRS has teamed up with state revenue departments and the tax industry to make sure taxpayers understand the dangers to their personal and financial data as part of the "Taxes. Security. Together" campaign.

If a taxpayer receives an unsolicited email that appears to be from either the IRS e-services portal or an organization closely linked to the IRS, report it by sending it to phishing@irs.gov. Learn more by going to the Report Phishing and Online Scams page.

It is important to keep in mind the IRS generally does not initiate contact with taxpayers by email to request personal or financial information. This includes any type of electronic communication, such as text messages and social media channels. The IRS has information online that can help protect taxpayers from email scams

Permitted Parking Update:

By: MJ

"Any man who thinks he can be happy and prosperous by letting the Government take care of him; better take a closer look at the American Indian." Henry Ford

It has been reported by museum personnel that the museum leases from the railroad, the area where the "museum parking only" signs are. NOTE: I have learned that the museum does not rent the land where they have special permit parking signs. The city rents that area from the railroad for $50.00 a year. The city also rents the park area located at the end of depot building for $50.00 a year. Question: Did the city give them permission to post those signs? If not why then does the museum have the right to post signs, taking away parking spaces from people who want to patronize local businesses in the area? Question: Is it time the signs go away?

"When you want to help people you tell them the truth. When you want to help yourself, you tell them what they want to hear."

The Dorito Effect by Mark Schatzker slated for discussion at Dillon Public Library

On Tuesday, March 8 at 7:00 pm, the Dillon Public Library Nonfiction reading group will meet to discuss The Dorito Effect by Mark Schatzker. GoodReads.com says of the book: Since the late 1940s, we have been slowly leeching flavor out of the food we grow. Those perfectly round, red tomatoes that grace our supermarket aisles today are mostly water, and the big breasted chickens on our dinner plates grow three times faster than they used to, leaving them dry and tasteless. Simultaneously, we have taken great leaps forward in technology, allowing us to produce in the lab the very flavors that are being lost on the farm. Thanks to this largely invisible epidemic, seemingly healthy food is becoming more like junk food: highly craveable but nutritionally empty. We have unknowingly interfered with an ancient chemical language—flavor—that evolved to guide our nutrition, not destroy it. With in-depth historical and scientific research, The Dorito Effect casts the food crisis in a fascinating new light, weaving an enthralling tale of how we got to this point and where we are headed. We've been telling ourselves that our addiction to flavor is the problem, but it is actually the solution. We are on the cusp of a new revolution in agriculture that will allow us to eat healthier and live longer by enjoying flavor the way nature intended.

A local physician will be on hand to join in our discussion and lend a medical perspective to the many issue raised in The Dorito Effect.

Copies of the book are available for checkout at the Library. The reading group is informal and open to all. You don't have to commit to reading every book and coming every time. If you haven't read the book or finished reading it, you are still welcome to attend and sit in on the discussion.

Pass your Stash!!!!

The No ! Ladies Quilt Shop is going to hold another Pass your Stash fabric sale this year!! Last years was a huge success. What is Pass your Stash??? Well it is a fund raiser for the Beaverhead County Animal Shelter. We are asking for fabric donations that you might have at home. Fabric that is just sitting in the corner not being used or that you might not want. We also are accepting crafting and sewing supplies (yarn, thread, batting, buttons, etc.) Please only stuff that you would be willing to spend money on or think that someone else would want to spend money on. We will collect donations at the quilt shop and then will hold the fabric sale on April 23, Saturday. All proceeds will go to the Beaverhead County Animal Shelter. If you have any questions at all just call the quilt store. 406-683-5884.

Annual Spaghetti Dinner

Beaverhead Animal Shelter will hold its Annual Spaghetti Dinner on Saturday, April 30, at the Elk's Lodge in downtown Dillon. We are changing the format a bit this year. We will begin with a LIVE auction from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM, then the Spaghetti Supper will be served beginning at 5:00 PM, and the SILENT auction will be open from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM.

Since this is a family event, we hope this format will work better for the younger children. We are already starting to gather items for both auctions. If you have an item to donate, please call the Shelter at 406-683-8119.
