Gregg Hilton

Gregg Hilton a long time resident of Dillon passed away on February 12, 2016 in Bozeman, MT at the age of 91. He was a former owner and managing partner of the Flying N Ranch and later worked as a realtor for ranching properties in the Dillon area. His home was the mushroom shaped house on the top of the hill overlooking the college.

Gregg was born on Sept 4, 1924 and grew up in St. Louis, Oklahoma which was an oil boom town south of Oklahoma City. His family owned the Hilton and Sons general store which was the landmark building in the town for many years. Following graduation at St. Louis High School he enrolled at Oklahoma University. With the start of the war, he volunteered for the Army Air Corp where he was assigned for training to the new B-29 crews and became a 1st lieutenant and navigator. After the war he completed his education at OU and earned a BS in General Engineering.

He met Peggy Littlejohn at OU and they were married soon after graduating and moved to Odessa, Texas where he worked in the oil business. After a short while he moved his family which now included a son Grant to a ranch on Cherry Creek near Colorado Springs, Colorado where they had a daughter Valerie. He loved the ranch life, however, his in-laws who were partners wanted to return to Oklahoma and they had to sell. Gregg worked in the trucking business in Sidney, Nebraska and later Fort Worth, Texas before returning to Odessa, Texas to again work in the oil business. Ranching was his real call and he teamed up with his brother in law George Littlejohn and bought a small ranch in eastern Oklahoma where they raised the two kids through most of high school.

The lure of the west inspired them to move to western Colorado where they bought a larger ranch in 1969. He operated the Rimrock-Yampa ranch between Craig and Meeker for 5 years before moving to Montana and running the Flying N ranch north of Dillon. He loved the ranch and farm and operated the ranch for many years. After selling the ranch he worked in the ranching real estate business, finally retiring around age 80.

During his time in Dillon, Peggy passed away and he later married Helen Christianson. With Helen, they had a great life and travelled extensively. Gregg was an active member of Grace United Methodist Church, a member of the Elks and former president of the Dillon Kiwanis club. In Kiwanis he was helped establish the Kiwanis Park with which he was very proud. He also liked to play golf and won the Dillon Sr.

Open twice. In addition to golf he was an excellent bridge player and always had a cribbage board handy to play with any of the kids or grandkids. Helen passed in 2012 and although he lived by himself he was far from alone with all of the many friends in Dillon. In 2014, he moved to an independent living facility in Bozeman which made life easier and made him closer to his son's family.

He is survived by his son Grant and wife Fern, his daughter Valerie, his step children, Eric and wife Pam, Kyle and wife Sandra, Lee and wife Holly and Amy and husband Jorge as well as 14 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

A celebration of life will be held in Dillon on March 12 with details to be announced.

Big second half propels
No. 11 Warriors past Bulldogs

After a tight first two quarters of action, the No. 11 Lewis-Clark State Warriors expanded a 35-30 halftime lead into a 71-50 victory over the University of Montana Western women's basketball team.

A back-and-forth first quarter ended with the LC State (22-4 overall, 13-2 Frontier) holding a 23-21 advantage and unfortunately for the visiting Bulldogs (13-14, 3-12), they were only able to muster 29 points for the remainder of the game.

After a high-scoring affair in the first period, the two teams clamped down on defense in a quarter that finished 12-9 in favor of the Warriors as they took a 35-30 lead into intermission.

Montana Western was able to keep things close throughout a majority of the third quarter until LC State stretched a 41-38 advantage into a 51-41 lead at the end of the quarter and never looked back.

The home squad took a double-digit lead and closed the door on any hopes of a fourth quarter comeback as they stretched their lead to 18 points after an 11-3 run to start the period and continued to grow the margin to as many as 24 points with less than one minute remaining in the game.

The Lady Bulldogs struggled to make shots of any kind after a solid first quarter as they were outshot from the field, the three-point line and the charity stripe as they finished 36 percent (18-50), 22 percent (4-18) and 55 percent (10-18) respectively compared to 42 percent (25-59), 54 percent (13-24) and 61 percent (8-13) for the Warriors.

Despite the poor shooting performance, Western tied the battle of the boards as each team brought down 35 rebounds in the game. They also forced the Warriors into 16 turnovers, their highest number in the last 12 games.

Unfortunately the Bulldogs committed 21 turnovers to just five assists.

Offensively Montana Western was paced by a duo of players to reach double-figures as Aniese Palmore and Sierra Higheagle finished with 17 points and 16 points respectively.

Higheagle and Kaye Bignell (9 points) both brought down a team-high five rebounds as Bignell also came away with four steals and one block.

LC State was led by four players to score in double-digits - Brooke Litalien (17), Brittany Tackett (13), Natabnee Spencer (11) and Hannah Byerly (10) - as Megan Risinger and Caelyn Orlandi chipped in with 8 points and 7 points.

Montana Western will return to action on Saturday at 5:30 p.m. as they will play Montana Tech in Butte, Mont. The Bulldogs have defeated Tech in their two previous meetings this season.

Smalls, Woodill lead Bulldogs to big upset over No. 3 Lewis-Clark State

For the first time since the 2009-10 season, a span that stretched seven games, the University of Montana Western men's basketball team won a game in Lewiston, Idaho. After No. 3 Lewis-Clark State College snapped the Bulldogs 15 game home conference winning streak just three weeks ago, Western returned the favor, winning 72-64 to snap the Warriors 17 game home winning streak.

With the win, (RV) Montana Western moved to 17-10 overall and 10-5 in the Frontier Conference and now sits just 1.5 games back of second place Carroll College.

The game started quickly for the 'Dawgs who jumped out to an 8-0 lead and then built a 12-3 advantage just seven minutes into the game before the Warriors responded with an 8-2 run to cut the deficit to 14-11 at the 10 minute mark of the first half.

Two turnovers and a 2-9 shooting slump to end the half let LC-State back into the game.

After only making three 3-pointers in the first half, Montana Western lived by it in the second half as they knocked down eight in the period, including their first five made field goals of the second half.

Despite the strong outside shooting effort, LC-State took their first lead of the game at the 18:05 mark and eventually stretched it to a nine point advantage, 53-44 with 11:12 to play in the game.

Montana Western's bench took over from this point as Ryan Sullivan made a long-range bomb to start things off. The deep rotation for the Bulldogs scored the next 13 points and cut the Warriors' lead to just two points with 7:19 remaining.

A lockdown on the defensive side of the floor & some big baskets from junior guard Shyke Smalls allowed the Bulldogs to close the game out.

Trailing 61-58 with less than five minutes to play in the game, Montana Western closed the game out on a 14-3 run that was sparked by eight points from Smalls, including an old-fashioned three-point play with 1:40 to go that put the icing on the cake.

A 3 out of 4 performance from the charity stripe and a solid rebounding effort sealed the game for the Bulldogs.

Smalls paved the way for Montana Western as he finished with a game-high 18 points and brought down five rebounds.

Senior forward Connor Woodill picked up the extra offensive load with 16 points, including four 3-pointers, as leading scorer Dexter Williams, Jr. was limited to just six points.

Despite being held to less than 10 points for just the fourth time this season, Williams, Jr. made his presence felt in a different way as he brought down a game-high 12 rebounds and finished with two assists, one block and one steal.

The Bulldog bench sparked the team to a big victory as it combined for 24 points, including four 3-pointers, and was led by freshman Kooper Kidgell (7) and senior Ryan McCarty (8).

Demitrius Balark was limited to just four points on the night, but finished with six assists, three rebounds and a monster two-handed slam dunk.

Big man Quinn Smith battled with All-American and University of Montana transfer Jacob Wiley all night as he finished with four points, five rebounds, three big blocks and two steals.

For the first time this season LC-State was held to under 40 percent (23-62) from the floor and the new-look Bulldogs zone defense forced the home team into 14 turnovers while limiting themselves to just nine.

The 45 percent (25-56) shooting clip and 11 made 3-pointers (11-24, 46 percent) was the recipe for success from Montana Western in the upset victory. It was just the fifth time this season the Bulldogs have made double-digit 3-pointers and the first time in the last eight games.

The win keeps Montana Western's NAIA National Tournament hopes alive and they will return to action on Saturday in Butte to take on Frontier Conference rival Montana Tech at 7:30 p.m.

Gravelly Allotment Management Plan Revision

The Madison Ranger District of the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest (BDNF) is beginning the planning process for updating allotment management plans (AMP) on four domestic livestock grazing allotments. The project area, includes Eureka Basin, Pole Creek, Robb Creek and Southwest Corner allotments in the southern Gravelly Mountains southwest of Ennis, MT.

The Forest Service is seeking feedback for the preparation of an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) which will provide valuable input in the development of actions to help move this project towards meeting the purpose and need of the analysis.

Specific information about this project and detailed maps can also be found on the BDNF web site at the following address: <http://www.fs.usda.gov/project/?project=48643>

If you are interested in this proposal, share your comments, concerns, or ideas no later than March 7. Written comments can be sent to Dale Olson, District Ranger, Madison Ranger District, 5 Forest Service Road, Ennis, MT 59729, fax at 406-682-4233, or comments-northern-beaverhead-deerlodge@fs.fed.us and type the Project Name: South Gravelly AMP Update in the subject line.
