1945. While in the army, he served as a prisoner of war camp guard. He was honorably discharged in November of 1946. He had many tales of a cross country railroad trip to transport the prisoners from Billings, Montana to New York City.

In April of 1951, Leonard went to work for Vigilante Electric as a meter reader. He worked there for 38 years; working his way up to line foreman before retiring on December 31, 1989. During his time at Vigilante, many changes and advancements were made in rural electrification. Leonard had many fond memories of meals served in ranch cook homes and not so fond memories of long, cold, snowy nights.

Leonard loved the outdoors; whether it was hunting, fishing, hiking or camping. A long time tradition starting in Leonard's childhood and continuing today is an extended Waldemar family July 4th camping trip to Reservoir Lake. He spent his retirement years helping with his grandchildren and following any activity they were involved with. He could also be seen driving around town checking on his family and was the first to lend a helping hand whenever needed.

Leonard is survived by his wife, Mary Jo, of 64 years. Together they had three children: Eddie (Lori), Brenda Borjas (David), Jerry Rehse (Dennis), four grandchildren: Erik Waldemar, Harley Borjas (Kimberly), Rudy Rehse (Carl Sevalstad) and Susanne Rehse (Nick Valach), and two great grand children on the way, all of Dillon. Leonard is also survived by sisters Fay McCracken of Florence, MT, June Kamps (Monty) of Hamilton, MT and sister-in-law Nancy Conley (Hank) of Hamilton, MT. Also surviving are many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Services are scheduled for 1:00 pm Friday, March 4 at Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon followed by a reception at The Lion's Den. Guest book is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

No. 21 Saints take down No. 22 Bulldogs in Frontier Conference clash

With the No. 2 seed for the Frontier Conference tournament and a first-round bye up for grabs, the No. 21 Carroll College Fighting Saints (19-8 overall, 12-5) defeated the No. 22 Montana Western Bulldogs (18-11, 11-6) 82-80 to hand the Bulldogs their second home conference loss this season.

In a game that no team led by more than eight points – Carroll held an eight point advantage with 5:46 remaining and Western's largest lead was six multiple times in the first half – it lived up to the finishes from the first two meetings this season. Carroll won the first meeting on a Zach Taylor buzzer-beating three-pointer and Western won the second matchup in double overtime.

The Bulldogs led early until the Saints tied the game at 28-all with 7:14 to play in the first half and never looked back as they never trailed the rest of the game.

Despite Dexter Williams, Jr.'s big first half – 11 points, five rebounds and three assists – Carroll took a 42-38 lead into intermission.

After the break, the back-and-forth game continued as the Saints were unable to pull away and Western could never get over the hump and take a lead.

Trailing 74-67 with 3:24 remaining in the game, the stingy 'Dawgs gave one big push to try and complete a comeback. Over the final few minutes, Montana Western finished on a 13-8 run, sparked by two 3-pointers and a Quinn Smith dunk, but it was too little too late.

Carroll was able to hold on for the lead, although it appeared to be déjà vu for the visitors who led by as many as 17 last time they were Dillon, but behind the strong play of Zach Taylor they were able to hold the Bulldogs off.

Taylor finished with a double-double as he scored 18 points, grabbed a game-high 10 rebounds and had six assists.

He was joined in double-figures by Match Burnham who had 18, as Lorel Johnson and Ryan Imhoff scored 14 each.

Johnson also dished out six assists.

Williams, Jr. added to his big first half by finishing with a game-high 22 points and team highs in rebounds (9), assists (4) and steals (4). He needs just nine more points to reach 1,000 career points in his two seasons at Western.

Four other Bulldogs scored in double-figures – Demetrius Balark (18), Connor Woodill (14), Shyke Smalls (11) and Quinn Smith (10).
Senior forward Connor Woodill chipped in with four rebounds, three steals and two assists in a complete game for the Missoula Hellgate product.
Smith also grabbed six rebounds and blocked a game-high four blocks and Balark added four assists.
Montana Western has clinched the No. 3 seed for the Frontier Conference tournament, but will return to action on Friday night as they host Rocky Mountain College for senior night. They will recognize six seniors, tip-off is set for 7:30 p.m.

No. 20 Carroll hands Montana Western fifth straight loss

The 20th-ranked Carroll College Fighting Saints women's basketball team was able to right the ship after dropping their last three games and four of the last five with a 62-63 win over the Montana Western Bulldogs.
A slow-start to the first quarter and facing a 15-8 hole, the Bulldogs (13-16 overall, 3-14 Frontier) rallied to outscore Carroll (20-7, 10-7) 15-12 in the second period and cut the halftime deficit to just four points, 27-23.
Holding a four-point lead, the Saints forced the Bulldogs into three third quarter turnovers and knocked down all 10 free throw attempts and outscored Montana Western 21-14 in the quarter to stretch their lead to a 48-37 advantage heading into the final frame.
A late-push cut into what was once a 13-point deficit into just six with 2:09 remaining in the game. Aniese Palmore knocked down a long three-point attempt to make it a five point game with 36 seconds to go, the closest the Bulldogs were since the midway point of the third quarter.
It was too little too late for the Lady 'Dawgs who again struggled to find the bottom of the basket as they shot just 17 for 59 from the field (29%). Carroll finished 20 for 50 from the floor (40 %) and were 17 out of 25 from the charity stripe.
Palmore led the way offensively with 12 points on 3-5 shooting, including 2-2 from behind the arc and finished 4-4 from the free-throw line.
Britt Cooper and Sierra Higheagle each scored 10 points to join Paltmore in double-digits, Kaye Bignell chipped in with nine points and McCall Hasquet finished with six.

Cooper just missed out on a double-double as she had a team-high nine rebounds, she also blocked two shots and had one steal.

Higheagle added six rebounds and three steals in 36 minutes of action.

Carroll was led by a trio of players to reach double-digits in the scoring column – Baylee Watson (12), Cassidy Hashley (12) and Katie Estey (10).

Watson also finished with a team-high nine rebounds and two blocked shots.

Hashley chipped in with seven rebounds for the Saints who held a 45 to 34 advantage on the glass for the game.

Montana Western will return to action on Feb. 26 for senior night against Rocky Mountain College at 5:30 p.m., where the Bulldogs will recognize two seniors – Sierra Higheagle and McCall Hasquet.

We "Wood" Like to Thank You

Thank you to all who helped make the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper a success. Thanks to those who contributed food and supplies, and helped set, cook, serve, and clean up. Thanks to everyone who came, ate, and contributed. We could not have done it without you. A good time was had by all!

Thank to many generous people, $1,285 was contributed at this event to help support the Wood Bank, a local charity that supplies firewood for heating and cooking to our neighbors in need.

Sincerely,

*Saint James Episcopal Church
