Barrett Hospital & HealthCare Joins Innovative Health and Wellness Program

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is pleased to announce its participation in the National Rural Accountable Care Consortium – a program designed to help rural Medicare patients live long, healthy lives.

As part of the new program, Barrett Hospital & HealthCare has hired and is training a Care Coordinator to work closely with patients – helping seniors stay healthy, get great care when needed and avoid costly and wasteful repetitive tests. Barrett Hospital & HealthCare will also have access to important information which will help community physicians evaluate the services of distant specialists, hospitals and other healthcare providers to make the best recommendations for patients.

Ken Westman, CEO states, "When our patients want support, they can come to us for advice and assistance. We will help them find the right healthcare providers, coordinate their care and help them get the best results. Our mission is to serve the community's healthcare needs, and this program will help us do that better than ever." Initially, Barrett Hospital & HealthCare will introduce these new programs for Medicare patients, but hopes to expand to other types of insurance as well.

"Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is doing its part, but the community can play an even larger role in promoting health," Westman added. "As a community, we need to take responsibility for our health and for each other, and encourage each other to stop smoking, eat healthful foods and get regular exercise. We need to work together for a better future for our friends and neighbors. For example, if you are a Medicare patient, we urge you to get your free Annual Wellness Visit to prevent disease and maintain your health."

Forest Service Looking for Volunteer Camp Hosts

"The services the camp hosts provide are invaluable to our visitors and us."

Volunteer camp hosts help Forest visitors by providing information, cleaning amenities, and completing light maintenance. All supplies and equipment needed for the cleaning and maintenance are provided hookups. Hosts are needed Memorial Day through Labor Day.

Letter to the Editor

Is the political election system of the U.S. the laughing stock of the world? It sure is the laughing stock for millions of Americans. Why does it take so long to decide who we, the public want to be our next presidential nominee?

Every day, every hour, every minute we are bombarded with, "I'm the chosen one to be your next leader." They all promise you the moon. Just what we need a new moon, which is always dark on the other side.

Sometimes you wonder is "Freddy Krueger" disguised as the next nominee! They tear each other apart like destroying a jig saw puzzle with the wrong pieces. They tell us they are conservative but spend millions of dollars on ads to convince us they are frugal. They tell us everything is wrong with the United States but if we vote for him/her everything will be fixed. They all seem to have some kind of fairy dust to sprinkle to make everything just the way they want.

While they keep whining so they can win, most of us have made up our minds months ago before the onslaught of the gibberish that contaminated the air.

Why don't we just have a lottery? Everyone 18 years or older, a citizen of the U.S. can have their name in the hopper. On election day the first name drawn will be president the second name will be vice-president. This will save a lot of wasted money, wasted time and wasted words that were a waste before they were even spoken.

Oh, for the good old days that never happened. Oh, for the good old day that will stop in November. But we know the day after the election the same process will start again and never end.

There has to be a better way! The whole process, maybe it should be the "hole" process is like playing a video game gone wild and you lost even before the game started.

COLT SALE PREVIEW

University of Montana Western natural horsemanship students will preview horses they have trained for sale on March 19, 2016.

The colt sale preview begins at 1 p.m. in the La Cense Arena in Dillon, Mont.

At the preview students will demonstrate their horse's ability and answer any questions people may have.

"These students have worked very hard since October to give these horses the best start possible and make them safe and reliable mounts," equine instructor Eric Hoffmann said.

Montana Western has won the all-around award for having the highest quality group of trained horses four out of the past five years since the competition began. Last year Montana Western had the highest selling gelding which was bought for $12,500 by a National Finals Rodeo Champion team roper.

The horses have been exposed to many things to prepare them for sale including extensive roping, cattle handling and riding outdoors in order to create well-rounded horses.

The horses will later be sold at the Top of the West Horse Sale and Competition April 8-9, 2016 at the Copper Springs Ranch in Bozeman. The competition consists of an obstacle course and flat arena work against Montana State University and their group of riders and horses.

All of the horses for sale were donated by local ranchers and top breeders including Chad and Verna Holland, Koy and Denise Holland, Harrington and Hirschy Ranches, Cal and Brooke Erb, Weaver Quarter Horses, Longhorn Quarter Horse Company, R Lazy 6 Quarter horses and Powderhorn Ranch.

The colt sale preview is free and open to the public.

For More information on the event contact Eric Hoffmann at 406-925-1499 or by email at eric.hoffmann@umwestern.edu.

Argonauts upset No. 23 Bulldogs in Frontier Conference quarterfinals

The 3rd-seeded and 23rd-ranked Montana Western Bulldogs opened the Frontier Conference tournament with the University of Great Falls Argonauts inside Straugh Gymnasium. The Argonauts emerged with a big 67-64 upset-win to knock Montana Western out of the tournament.

The Bulldogs (19-12 overall, 12-7 Frontier) jumped out to an 8-1 lead in the first 1:30 of the game behind two Shyke Smalls 3-pointers and a Dexter Williams, Jr. layup – the basket put him over 1,000 points for his two-year career at Montana Western – the lead grew to as many as nine points in the first half.

Following a Quinn Smith basket in the paint to put Montana Western up 27-19 with 6:02 to play in the first half, Great Falls (13-15, 6-13) would go on a 10-1 run to go up 29-28 for their first lead of the game.

After the break, Western would increase their lead to 38-32 with 18:33 remaining in the game, again the feisty Argos responded. This time it was a 14-3 run that spanned less than four minutes and was sparked by a perfect 5-5 mark from the floor, including two 3-pointers and a 2-2 effort from the charity stripe, to take a 46-41 advantage.

The final tie game with the teams deadlocked at 64 with 27 seconds on the clock when Williams Jr. went coast-to-coast, drew a foul, and finished at the rim. With the basket counting, Williams, Jr. went to the line with a chance to take a lead, his free throw attempt came up short and Great Falls gained possession on a lane violation.

A timeout from the Argos ensued as they drew up a play for a chance to win the game, instead John Makkar drove to the hole and was fouled by Smalls. Makkar, who is shooting 51 percent from the line this season, calmly knocked down both attempts with 6.8 seconds to go, taking a 66-64 lead.

The inbound went to Connor Woodill who was fouled by Malik Barnes with 3.4 seconds and sent him to the charity stripe shooting a double-bonus. The first free throw was off the mark and the second attempt was missed intentionally and rebounded by Sigman Farmer III.

Farmer III split his free throw attempts to go up three with 1.6 seconds until the final buzzer, a half-court attempts from Smalls was off the mark and sealed the road upset for the Argos.

The Bulldogs were led by a game-high 18 points from Smalls, who finished 7-13 from the floor including 3-6 from behind the arc. He swiped a game-high four steals in 38 minutes of action.

With a loss, Montana Western will have to wait until the conclusion of the conference tournaments across the NAIA and the final NAIA Coaches' poll before the NAIA National Championship Selection Show on March 9th at 6 p.m. CT.
