Eagle Scout Award

On February 28, 2016 Dylan Johnson and Bradley Rakich received the highest rank in Boy Scouting, the Eagle Scout Award. The Scouts are members of Troop 1665 sponsored by BPOE 1554 in Dillon and the sons of Nathan and Robin Johnson and Scott and Lisa Rakich. A Court of Honor was held at the Elks Club with Representative Jeff Wellborn presenting the Eagle Charge challenging the youth to continue to live the Scout Law emphasizing duty to God and Country. Nationwide less than 2 percent of Scouts earn the Eagle Rank which entitles the recipients to an automatic rank advancement if they choose to serve in any branch of the military. Congratulations Dylan and Bradley!

KYLER ENGELLANT CROWNED ELKS "HOOP SHOOT" REGIONAL CHAMPION

Having already tasted glory in local, district and state competitions, Kyler Engellant captured another first-place finish on Saturday, Mar. 12, 2016, at the Elks "Hoop Shoot" Northwest Central Regional Championship. At the age of nine years old, Kyler demonstrated accuracy from the free throw line and brought honors to his hometown of Dillon, Mont.

Representing the Dillon Elks Lodge #1554, Engellant beat the state champions from North Dakota and South Dakota by making 23 out of 25 free throws and 5 out of 5 in the overtime in the boys ages 8-9 division.

In addition to being Regional Champion, Engellant also won the Cam Cronk Best of the Best trophy for being the overall best male free throw shooter. Cam Cronk is the past National Director of the Elks "Hoop Shoot" Contest from Billings, Mont. (served as National Director from 1996 - 2012). This award is presented to both the best overall male and female "Hoop Shooter," regardless of age, in this Regional Contest.

Engellant will travel with his parents, courtesy of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, to Chicago, IL, to be among the twelve Regional Champions vying for the chance to claim the boys ages 8-9 national title awarded at the Elks "Hoop Shoot" National Free Throw Contest, April 14 - 17, 2016. A national title will not only earn Engellant a place in Elks "Hoop Shoot" history, but also land his name on a plaque in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Now in its 44rd year, the Elks "Hoop Shoot" Free Throw Contest has seen more than 128 million participants since its inception, making it the largest coeducational youth sports program in the nation. Funded entirely by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, the Elks "Hoop Shoot" Contest has served as a testing ground for sports legend, Olympic medalists and numerous professional athletes.

Montana Western men preparing for return trip to Kansas City

For the second straight year and the sixth time in seven seasons, Steve Keller and his Montana Western Bulldogs are returning to the Buffalo Funds-NAIA National Championship Tournament in Kansas City.

After finishing with a 19-12 regular season record and a third place finish in the Frontier Conference, the 23rd-ranked Bulldogs were upset in the first round of the Frontier Conference playoffs by the University of Great Falls, leaving their post-season hopes in the hands of the NAIA national raters with a 19-13 overall mark.

After being knocked out of the playoffs on Tuesday March 1, the 'Dawgs had to wait more than a week to find out their fate, with the NAIA Selection Show being held on Wednesday March 9.

Hoping to be included in the 32 team field of competitors with another chance to make noise against the top teams in the country, the Bulldogs moved up to No. 22 in the final coaches poll and drew a No. 6 seed in the Naismith Bracket. (Complete Bracket)

Montana Western has won a tournament game in all but one of their recent appearances – a heartbreaking 77-76 loss to the No. 1 overall seed Robert Morris (Ill.) in 2010-11 – they have reached the Sweet 16 three times (2009-10, 2011-12, 2014-15) and the Elite 8 once (2012-13) since the 2009-10 campaign.

Their first-round opponent at this year's tournament is 9th-ranked and 3rd-seeded William Penn (Iowa), who won the Heart of America Athletic Conference Tournament as the No. 3 seed. Their run through the tournament included wins over then-No. 16 Peru State and then-No. 11 MidAmerica Nazarene, the regular season conference champion.

The Statesmen are coached by John Henry in his 15th season (306-184 overall) and have reached the NAIA National Tournament four times in the last five seasons as an NAIA Division II school, 2015-16 is their first season in NAIA Division I.

They will be led by Heart Newcomer of the Year and First-Team all-conference selection Steven Roundtree who is averaging 16.5 points and 9.2 rebounds, fellow First-Teamer Brady Buford who has averaged 15.8 points and 7.4 rebounds per game. Two other Statesmen received all-conference honors – Jarvis Haywood (15.1 points) and Jesse Pernell (12 points) – as honorable mention selections.

Third-leading scorer Dondre Alexander (15.8 points) and top 3-point shooter (84 makes) has not played the last three games for William Penn.

The Bulldogs will counter with three of their own all-conference performers; including 2014-15 Second-Team All-American and two-time First-Team Frontier Conference selection, senior forward Dexter Williams Jr., who has averaged 15.7 points, 7.6 rebounds and 1.8 steals per game this season.

Teaming up to form a dynamic backcourt are a pair of Frontier Conference Second-Team selections – junior Shyke Smalls (14.7 points, 3.5 rebounds and 1.9 steals) and senior Demetrius Balark (11.7 points, 3.8 rebounds and 3.9 assists).

Rounding out the starting lineup are seniors Connor Woodill and Quinn Smith. Woodill who is making his third appearance at the National Tournament has averaged 8.7 points per game and knocked down 41 3-pointers this season – including 16 over the past five games.

Smith, a 6-10 center, scores 7.2 points per game, brings down 4.7 rebounds and blocks 1.3 shots per game while shooting 59 percent from the floor.

Keller in his ninth season (179-108) will be looking for his 180th career victory at Montana Western, a Montana High School Coaches Association Hall of Famer Keller compiled a 610-180 record as a high school basketball coach, including six state championships.

Returning to Kansas City for the fourth time is second year assistant coach J.C. Isakson – Isakson made the trip two times as a player for Steve Keller including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2011-12. His first season on the bench led to another Sweet 16 appearance a season ago.

"We were able to overcome a lot of adversity this season," stated Isakson, "making it back to the National Tournament is a great reward for our guys. All the pressure is off now and our best basketball is ahead of us."

The 2014-15 Frontier Conference Newcomer of the Year and Player of the Year Dexter Williams, Jr. said, "Returning to the National Tournament is truly a blessing. I am grateful for the opportunity and thankful for the ability to play with my outstanding teammates," Williams Jr. continued, "Teamwork makes the dream work," and this is truly a dream come true for me."

Coach Keller is excited his team was able to adjust and receive a bid to go back to the National Tournament, and he is taking six players who have played in the NAIA's biggest stage.

"I think having national tournament experience helps, but the bottom line is we must play harder, play smarter, and play together better than anyone we play," stated Keller.

"We must also rebound, that has been a problem area in the past," Keller said looking back on his team's season, "I think our defensive philosophy changed. We are getting more stops and stopped fouling as much."

Another plus for Keller's Bulldogs is that they've been able to get to the rim and get fouled in the act. Montana Western made 531 free throw attempts while their opponents shot just 518.

"This is the first team I coached that made more free throws than our opponents shot," finished Keller.

Tip-off for the first round matchup is set for 7:00 p.m. CT on Wednesday, March 16 in the Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Mo. The winner will face the victor from the Columbia (Mo.) and LSU-Shreveport matchup at 2:15 pm CT on Friday, March 18.

You can watch the games live on Montana Western's Stretch Internet Portal at <http://portal.stretchinternet.com/montanawestern/> or listen live on KDBM/KBEV 98.3 FM or 1490 AM.

Water Sewer Committee - March 8th

By: MJ

Demolition Square water tank building: The city would like to find someone to take square water tank building down. There would be some old wood that may be repurposed. If you are interested talk to mayor or Director of Operations. Was "tabled."

Johnson Property: The committee has decided to recommend to council that the building be sold. There is an adjacent piece of property that is in the process of being annexed into the city to allow the sale to proceed.

Water Billing System: The new billing system was reported by office staff member, to be moving forward in a positive way. People are using the on-line banking that is provided and appreciate the ongoing information (monthly comparable) the new billing system provides. If you have not received your bill by the time you want to pay it call city hall @ 683-4245 and they will give you the amount owed.

WWTP Waste By-Products: The bid was given to Rowe Construction and they have started hauling the waste out.

Sealed Vault Facility @ Ray Lynch Park: Commission voted in favor: Representatives of the Dillon Cub baseball organization asked the city for permission to put a sealed vault underground for the grey water from the concession stand. They were not asking for money, only permission. If you drive out to the park you will see all the improvements the club has make. It is my understanding that these improvements have been made by the devoted members at their own expense and hard work. Water Sewer Fees: There was considerable discussion on fees involving lowering late fee charges, interest relating to bank accounts, reconnection fees, deposits for residential and rentals, making use payments fair and equitable across the board for all...

Sewer Back up: Mr. Richter spoke of the sewer back up that caused extensive damage to their residence on California Street. The city blew out the sewer system and due to a root wad in the pipe it caused back-ups in several homes. Richter's home received the most damage with inches of raw sewage deposited into their basement. Damage from cleanup will be around 40± to 54± thousand dollars, not including the cost of any personal items. Mayor Klakken told Mr. Richter he would call the cities insurance adjuster.

Beaverhead River Water Mainline Crossing: Bids are due in by March 14th. The bids will be reviewed by water sewer committee narrowing the choices down to 2-4. The committee will then start an interview process. If you are interested watch for an announcement of a water sewer committee meeting to be held around March 21st Check with city on date and time of meeting.

State health officials offer safety tips when handling live poultry

Raising backyard poultry has become increasingly popular in Montana and many feed stores across the state offer chicks for sale.

State health officials say that raising chicks can be a rewarding and fun experience, but they are reminding Montanans to keep safe handling practices in mind when handling live poultry in order to limit disease risk.

"Even healthy animals can carry organisms that make people sick," said Department of Public Health and Human Services (DPHHS) epidemiologist Dana Fejes. In 2015, 10 percent of Montanans who became ill with Salmonella had contact to live poultry. Young children and persons with weakened immune systems are at greatest risk for infection.

For that reason, DPHHS and the Department of Livestock (DOL) are sending educational materials to feed stores so Montanans can learn how to care for live poultry safely. "Look for trivia questions on soap bars at your local store," Fejes said.

DOL Assistant State Veterinarian Dr. Tahnee Szymanski said: "Next time you care for your backyard flock, please remember the following simple prevention measures to keep your families healthy and enjoy the benefits of raising animals."

- Wash your hands after handling animals,
- Avoid touching your mouth after animal contact,
- Don't eat or drink around animals,
- Don't bring poultry into the house, and
- Supervise small children around animals.

"Together we can prevent illnesses and keep our children and communities healthy," Fejes stressed. Please visit www.dphhs.mt.gov for guidance and more information.

IN THE BUSINESS OF SAVING LIVES

The Beaverhead County Search and Rescue asks for your continued support of our organization and this resolution NO. 2016-04. It is becoming very difficult to stay abreast of training opportunities and new technologies due to rising cost. Please support us in our professional calling to assist all the people in need within the boundaries of Beaverhead County.

WHEREAS, the volunteer members of Beaverhead Search & Rescue have a duty and commitment to provide search and rescue services to the people in and of said Beaverhead County; and

WHEREAS, the Beaverhead Search & Rescue provides services and the cost of providing said services, upkeep of equipment and operating expenses, currently funded by donations, fundraising efforts and funds allocated from the Beaverhead County Sheriff's budget; and

WHEREAS, it has become apparent to the Beaverhead County Commission that the current funds raised through these sources, are not sufficient to provide said protection in an efficient and proper manner; and

WHEREAS, the cost of operations and maintenance of Beaverhead Search and Rescue facilities, repairing, maintaining, and replacing equipment, providing proper training and support for the volunteer members continues to increase; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, the Beaverhead County Commission hereby places the following measure on the ballot of the primary election on June 7, 2016.

Shall the Beaverhead County Commission be authorized to levy two (2) mills, being approximately $40, 400 for the improvement, operation and maintenance of said Beaverhead Search and Rescue? This mill levy shall be perpetual. The fiscal impact on a home having a market value of $100,000 is estimated to be $2.70 each year and $5.40 on a home having a market value of $200,000.
