MONTANA WESTERN SENIOR PUBLISHED

University of Montana Western student Lauren Bryan's horse-themed devotional book was recently published as part of her senior thesis.

Bryan wrote, "Mounting Up: A Horse Themed Christian Devotional for Youth" because she saw horses as a good way to translate the themes of faith to youth. She starting forming the idea for the book her sophomore year and designed it to be interactive for the reader.

"My thesis advisor gave me a lot of encouragement and continually challenged me to keep the material understandable and accessible for young people," Bryan said.

Bryan submitted her thesis to Tate Publishing whose mission is to discover and market unknown authors. After she signed with the company they started a rigorous editing process before publishing.

Bryan grew up in Montana, where animals and literature were consistent parts of her family and a way for her to connect with her spirituality and creative side. Through her book Bryan was able to combine her three passions, animals, literature and spirituality, and share it with readers.

"I was a very imaginative child and was always reading and telling stories to my sister," Bryan said. "I wanted to make a meaningful impact with my writing the same way that classic literature taught and inspired me to live with honorable character and integrity."

Bryan chose to come to Montana Western because of its unique Experience One program, the affordable cost and caring community.

"By taking one class at a time I was able to dig into the material. I liked the intense focus for eighteen days because I could bounce ideas back and forth, create quality work and then move on," Bryan said. "Otherwise I would have to take a broad variety of subjects all at once and inevitably become overwhelmed."

Bryan will graduate this spring with a Bachelor of Arts in English and plans to begin work on her second book soon.

Beaverhead Watershed Committee Meeting

Come join the Beaverhead Watershed Committee for their regular meeting at 6:00pm on Tuesday, March 29 at the Dillon Search & Rescue Building. Tim Grove of the Bureau of Reclamation will be our guest and he will be giving a presentation on Reclamation's AgriMet network. The Dillon AgriMet station is located 10 miles northeast of Dillon on the East Bench and collects real time temperature, precipitation, solar radiation, humidity, dew point, and wind data. The Dillon AgriMet webpage has tools that allow producers to calculate crop water use and evapotranspiration. Mr. Grove will be giving a tutorial on how irrigators can access and interpret this data to strategically manage the timing and amount of irrigation. The meeting is open to the public. Hope to see you there!

New Firewood Permits Available April 1

New Forest Service firewood permits are now available for purchase. The annual permit allows firewood cutting April 1, 2016 through March 31, 2017.

The cost of a firewood permit from the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest is $20 for a minimum purchase of four cords. Additional cords may be purchased for $5 per cord up to a total of 12 cords per individual per year.

A cord is the amount of tightly piled wood in a stack four feet high by four feet wide by eight feet long. The permit allows woodcutters to remove downed timber or to cut down standing dead trees under most conditions in the national forests and grasslands in Montana, northern Idaho, and parts of North and South Dakota, and on lands administered by the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) in Montana and northern Idaho. If you plan to gather firewood from other National Forests or lands administered by the BLM, contact that forest or BLM office for their firewood gathering guidelines.

Woodcutters are reminded to be safe while cutting and gathering wood; keep vehicles on designated roads and trails; be sure your chosen location for cutting wood is not within the designated right of way of any major road or interstate; and please don't drive off designated roads.

For more information, check the firewood permit and the Forest Service's firewood handout available from agency offices and at www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf. Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF offices are located in Wisdom, Philipsburg, Butte, Dillon, Ennis, Sheridan, and Wise River. Permits may also be purchased from Bureau of Land Management offices in Butte and Dillon. Forest Service and BLM offices are open weekdays, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The following businesses also have permits available to sell: Anaconda: Hardware Hank; Boulder: Hardware Hank; Ennis: True Value Hardware; Sheridan: McLeod Mercantile; Butte: Bob Ward and Butte Ace Hardware; Harrison: Wheat and Thistle General Store; Lima: Ralph's Exxon; Deer Lodge: I-90 Auto Truck Plaza; Drummond: Fic's Conoco; and Whitehall: Ace Hardware.
