Everett "Jake" Jacobsen

Everett "Jake" Jacobsen, 90, passed away peacefully at his home on March 24, 2016, after a lengthy illness.

Jake was born to Albert
Jacobsen and Mabel Johnson
Jacobsen on the family farm west of Homestead, MT on August 22, 1925.

After graduating high school in Medicine Lake, MT, he went to work for the Milwaukee Railroad in Great Falls, MT and then in 1947 for Great Northern Railroad. From October 1950 through May 1952, he served in the United States Army at Fort Riley, Kansas. After the service, he returned to work for Great Northern Railroad at Malta, MT and retired in June of 1985.

On November 1, 1952, he married the love of his life, Marjorie Koubek, in Malta, MT. While in Malta, they were blessed with three beautiful daughters, Debbie, Judy, and Dara. In 1957, they moved to Shelby where their fourth lovely daughter, Colette, was added to the family. They made their life in Shelby, Montana until making the move to Dillon in June 2006.

Jake was an avid stunt kite flyer, he loved model railroading, motorcycles, and there wasn't anything he couldn't fix or build. Above all, he enjoyed many winters roaming the beaches in Hawaii and took great joy in sharing his love with his daughters, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Albert and Mabel; two infant brothers, Marlin and Lyle Jacobsen; sister, Lorraine Waller; brother, Roy Jacobsen; and great grandson, Trae McGinley.

Jake is survived by his wife of 63 years, Marjorie;
daughters, Debbie (Steve) Scott, Judy (Richard) Martin, Dara
(Jim) Cherney, and Colette (Mike) McGinley; grandchildren, Andrea (Derek) Doles, Dakon (Jenny) Scott, Jessica McGinley, Robbie (Lisl) Scott, Rachael (Luke) Bracke, Jenny Kober, David (Kaylan) McGinley, Tom Martin, and Jake McGinley; great grandchildren, Cordell and Carson McGinley, Olivia and Ben Bracke, Silas and Zander Scott, and Harris McGinley.

A visitation will be held Monday, March 28, 2016 from 5-8 pm. at Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon, Mt.

Memorial services are planned for Tuesday, March 29, 2016 at 11 am at Brundage Funeral Home followed by a reception at Our Savior's Lutheran Church.

In lieu of flowers, Jake's family requests any donations be made to Home Health Hospice in Dillon or a charity of your choice.

Condolences may be left online at BrundageFuneralHome.com.

City Hall Committee 3.24.16
 By: MJ

Cleaning Contract: Chairman Straugh stated that he did not think the cleaning contract they had was following the advice of the City Attorney. On Jan. 28, 2016 a lengthy discussion was held by this committee and the owner/operator of cleaning service. The service was ask to provide proof of "independent contractor's license, insurance." The committee was questioning the status of SBRACK's current workman's comp insurance policy.

Respectfully the proof of insurance and license was given to the committee at that Jan 28th meeting by representative of SBRACK cleaning service. SBRACK will get an updated letter that proves the status of workman's comp insurance.

Work Provided by SBRACK: When you go into city hall you will notice that the janitorial service takes pride in their work by providing clean windows, floors, counters, restrooms that shine and much more. The committee was provided by a representative of SBRACK with letter outlining in detail the actual cleaning services being done. It appears this service continues to go above and beyond what the city requires in there contract. Example: Discovering leaking radiator and taking extra time to clean up mess, sanding and refinishing floor in restroom used by public that may or may not be visiting with City Attorney...)

NOTE: The city is paying approximately 5± dollars less per hour then other janitorial services in town including home cleaning services. Anyone who has done this job knows it is time consuming and labor intensive.

The committee tabled the issue until Mr. Dolan, city attorney provides them with a contract that Dolan feels protects the city from possible law suits.

Montana Solicitor General to Argue before U.S. Supreme Court

Montana Solicitor General Dale Schowengerdt will argue before the United States Supreme Court today Monday, March 28. Schowengerdt, who serves on the staff of Attorney General Tim Fox, will be arguing on behalf of the State of Montana in the case Betterman v. Montana.

A summary and background of Betterman v. Montana are available online: <http://www.scotusblog.com/2016/03/argument-preview-a-clean-constitutional-question-does-the-speedy-trial-right-apply-to-sentencing/>. The central issue in the case is whether the Sixth Amendment's Speedy Trial Clause applies to the sentencing phase of a criminal prosecution.

"It's a great honor to argue before the nation's highest court, and even more so to be there on behalf of the state of Montana," Schowengerdt said.

"I'm proud of Dale and I know he has invested a tremendous amount of effort in preparing for his argument on an important constitutional question," Attorney General Fox said. "This is the kind of situation for which it is difficult to over-prepare, given that you have eight justices who can bring a broad range of questions based on their unique backgrounds and experiences. An attorney presenting an oral argument must know the case inside and out, but must also anticipate and respond appropriately to tough questions."

Montana Assistant Attorneys General Mark Fowler, Jonathan Krauss, and Tammy Hinderman have also devoted a considerable amount of time to the Betterman case and to preparations for Monday's oral arguments.

Three Bulldog hoopers named NAIA All-Americans

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) announced the 2015-16 Division I Men's and Women's Basketball All-America Teams on Thursday. Players were selected by the NAIA Basketball Coaches Association All-America Committee. Each team – first, second and third – consists of 10 individuals, honorable mention recipients are based on a number of votes received.

On the lists from the University of Montana Western are Dexter Williams, Jr. (2nd team), Shyke Smalls (Honorable Mention) and Aniese Palmore (Honorable Mention).

On the men's side, senior Dexter Williams, Jr. repeated as a Second Team All-American selection – he received the same honor in 2014-15. He was named to the Frontier Conference First-Team for the second straight season as well.

A 6-4 forward from Jacksonville, Fla., Williams Jr. averaged a team-high 15.74 points per game, led the Frontier Conference with 7.65 rebounds per game, 2.1 assists and third in the Frontier with 1.84 steals per game. He also finished the regular season with a conference-leading nine double-doubles, while shooting 52.2 percent from the field this season.

For his career, Williams, Jr. has averages of 15.8 points, 7.2 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 1.8 steals per game. He finished his two-year career at Montana Western with 1,018 points, 470 rebounds, 148 assists, 113 steals and shot a remarkable 52.9 percent from the floor. He had a career-high 33 points his junior season against Rocky and brought down a career-high 16 rebounds against MSU-Northern this season.

Head Coach Steve Keller said, "Dexter has made an amazing impact on our program the last two years. He is our hardest worked and leads by example on and off the floor. We signed Dexter very late and we were very lucky he chose Western, he will be hard to replace."

Shyke Smalls earned his first All-American selection after a breakout junior season, being named to the honorable mention team and a 2nd team Frontier Conference performer. Smalls, a 6-0 junior guard from Great Falls, finished as the Bulldogs second-leading scorer at 14.7 points per game, while leading the team with 50 made 3-pointers. Smalls also averaged 3.6 rebounds and 2 assists per game and ranked No. 10 in the NAIA with 60 steals and No. 13 with 1.94 steals per game – which ranked second in the Frontier Conference.

Two times this season Smalls scored 29 points to tie his career-high; against Carroll College and Corban College. He connected on a career-high six 3-pointers in a win over Dickinson State and finished with a high of seven assists against the University of Lethbridge.

925-1003

"Shyke had a breakout season and has showed steady improvement every year," stated Keller, "he really improved his jump shooting and has developed into our best 3-point shooter, I am excited for the step he can take going into his senior season."

The Bulldogs have had nine All-Americans since the 2009-10 season; JaRon Brown ('09-'10), Brandon Brown ('10-'11 & '11-'12), Kyle Erickson ('11-'12), Jake Owsley ('12-'13), Stephen McCall ('14-'15), Dexter Williams, Jr. ('14-'15 & '15-'16) and Shyke Smalls ('15-'16).

For the women, the 2015-16 Frontier Conference Newcomer of the Year and second team all-conference performer, junior point guard Aniese Palmore was named an honorable mention NAIA All-American.

Palmore who is a native of Santa Monica, CA and a transfer from Santa Monica College averaged 12.1 points per game and scored a team-high 364 points this season. She also finished with 135 assists, an average of 4.5 per game, which ranked third in the Frontier Conference and No. 12 in the NAIA. Palmore finished ranking No. 8 in the NAIA for assist to turnover ratio (2.1) which was good for third in the Frontier.

Despite standing just 5-5, Palmore recorded four rebounds per game from her point guard position, she was a pest defensively as she came away with one steal per game.

Palmore had a season-best 22 points against Rocky Mountain College, she finished with nine assists against College of Idaho and twice brought down nine rebounds – against College of Idaho and University of Lethbridge.

"Aniese was a player we signed hoping she would be able to come in and make an impact and she delivered in full," stated Head Coach Lindsay Woolley, "she seemed to play better as the year went on and was our most consistent performer throughout league play."

Palmore is the first All-American from Montana Western since Sammi Bignell earned honorable mention accolades during the 2012-13 season.
