Fight Childhood Hunger Week: The Mission

Written by Tessa Sawyer

Applying for the Governor and First Lady's Youth Leadership Council was a spontaneous choice. I had no previous knowledge of the council's function. A prestigious name caught my eye and I filled out the application. I did not realize how much this council would change my views of the world and that it would provide me with a cause to champion.

The council's function is to create student leaders in communities around Montana and to combat hunger in these communities. I am one of twenty students chosen. Our task is to create a project focused on fighting hunger in our communities. I planned a week of events for BCHS, including dress up days, an assembly and a food drive. Community members can donate in the BCHS office. All monetary and food donations will be given to the Food Pantry and the Backpack Program.

Fight Childhood Hunger Week (April 11th-April 15th) is a time for our nation to focus on helping the hungry and looking for solutions to an ever growing problem. This week, I encourage you to make a donation, whether it's of your time, money or a food donation. Hunger in our community is a problem that won't go away on its own. Join me in the fight to end hunger in our community!

week of April 11-15, 2016

The lunch menu for the week is as follows: On Monday, we will enjoy soft shell chicken tacos with trimmings. On Tuesday, chili salad will be served with trimmings, and on Wednesday, we will have a local beef hamburger on a school made whole wheat bun with trimmings. Thursday, we will have a sub sandwich with trimmings and chips, and on Friday, we will enjoy vegetable soup with bread, peanut butter, honey, applesauce and fresh veggies.

Mr. Williams held his annual march madness bracket for both the staff and students. John Kirkley won with the most correct team selections. Jade Morast won the acclaim for the least correct choices. For the staff, Mr. Valach was the winner. Great job, and thanks to all who participated.

Last week, Danielle Wineman, our current Miss Montana, came and spoke to our students at an assembly. Her platform this year is anti-bullying and character development. Her program was well received by the students as she emphasized to them that they are each "the star of their own story," and therefore, can determine what they think about themselves. She went on further to say that we all play characters in other peoples' lives. We can be the cool supporting sidekick character or the villain. Every time we use our words, we make decisions as to if we will use them for the forces of good or the forces of evil, and that by stopping the negative comments, we help others keep their own confidence and character. Miss Wineman has made 175 presentations at 147 schools and has spoken to almost 30,000 Montana students. Thank you, Miss Montana, for coming to DMS.

Mrs. Waldorf's 8th grade pull-out class will have their annual mystery theater this month. This year, the students chose Disney characters as their theme. So, come find out which of the well-known characters is actually a traitor. Is it Lars Murdoch Kalsta, who will be appearing as Scar from "The Lion King," or Hunter Bockting, who is portraying Olaf from "Frozen"? Perhaps it's Lucy Wright, who will scare us as Cruella deVile from "101 Dalmatians" or maybe Tess Davis as Mary Poppins. The Mad Hatter, from "Alice in Wonderland" portrayed by Esmae Weaver, is a likely suspect, but maybe that lovable character, Tigger, from "Winnie the Pooh", and played by Brandon Elmer will surprise us by being the villain. Certainly it couldn't be Toby Simonson, portraying Russell from the movie "UP", or could it be? But maybe it's Cole Johnston, as the genie from "Aladdin" or Erik Westman, playing Buzz Lightyear from "Toy Story" who are possibly involved in this tyranny.

So, come to the DMS mystery theater to find out "Who Done it", and to learn the "dirty laundry" on each of the characters. Stay tuned for the date and time, so you don't miss out on a fun and entertaining evening.

This week, students will be continuing smarter balance testing in language. Please make sure your children are well rested. Please try to schedule appointments around the testing schedule as the testing window is very small.

Next Monday, April 18th, the track team will be traveling to Anaconda for the Anaconda Invite. The bus will leave promptly at 11:00 am. Parents, your child should be bringing a note home with any vital information.

Walk a Mile in Her Shoes Event

Presented by the University of Montana Western & Women's Resource/ Community Support Center

The Walk a Mile in Her Shoes Event is an international movement of men literally placing themselves in women's shoes to stand against sexual violence. This event will take place on the University of Montana Western campus in front of the Roe House on Tuesday, April 12, 2016 at 3:30 pm.

This event will include guest speakers Callie Kanthack, Rape Prevention Education Task Force, Samantha Yates, Miss Montana Contestant, and Jessica Lahr, Montana Coalition Against Domestic Violence. These speakers will be discussing sexual assault and the impact that it has.

According to the Montana Department of Justice, there were 347 rapes reported in 2009, with over half (188) of the victims being between the ages of 3 and 17 years old. According to the U.S. Department of Justice, one in every four girls is sexually assaulted by the age of 18 and one in every six boys is sexually assaulted by the age of 18.

Sexual assault is a serious matter that effects everyone.

One in five women will be sexually assaulted during their time in college. This event is part of Sexual Assault Awareness month, and is used to reach members of the campus, as well as the community.
