Lorene Elizabeth Burtts, 77

Lorene Elizabeth Burtts, 77 of Dillon, Montana went to be with the Lord On April 8, 2016. She was born on March 4, 1939 in St. Cloud, Minnesota to Sigurd and Abby Oslin. Lorene was born with a disability and was confined to a wheelchair but those that knew and loved her never saw her disability or the wheelchair.

She spent her early years at the Crippled Children's School in Jamestown, ND where she met Anne Carlson who was the superintendant of the school who was a mentor as well as an inspiration and who later became a very close friend. Lorene met Jerry in the fall of the 56-57 school year. When she came through the door of the school she was a bit disheveled from the trip but it was love at first sight for Jerry. He looked at her and said, "That is the girl I'm going to marry some day". He never saw her disability she was the most beautiful girl that he had ever met. Lorene on the other hand had a bit of a difficult childhood she never learned what love was all about and was a bit more guarded with her emotions, not wanting to show them she said to Jerry "In a pigs eye I'll marry you". God came into Lorene's life at a very early age that, was one of the many things that she and Jerry had in common, along with their love for Jesus they also had a love for the arts and music. In addition they shared the fact that they were both youngest members of the family. After they left school Lorene and Jerry lost track of each other for a while. Lorene lived in a nursing home for a while and then she was blessed to move into an apartment for people with disabilities in St. Cloud, MN. Jerry and Lorene were brought together through a mutual friend because Jerry called in a song request on the radio. They were married in 1983 and celebrated their 33rd anniversary this February.

Lorene is survived by her husband, Jerry and her sister-in-law Beverly Oslin.

She is preceded in death by her brothers, Ivan and Willard (Ann) Oslin, sisters, Jolette (Leonard) Bergeron and Adelia (Neil) Anderson and her parents.

There is a visitation scheduled for Thursday, April 14th from 6 – 8 PM at Brundage Funeral Home and Funeral Services are scheduled for 2 PM on Friday, April 15th at the funeral home.

Burial will be at Mountain View Cemetery and there will be a pot luck reception following the committal service at the 4-H building where Lorene and Jerry attended Beaverhead River Cowboy Church. There is a guestbook available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Majors Duties

By: MJ

What does a Mayor do? Mayor Klakkan exercises control and supervision of all departments and boards to the degree authorized by ordinance. The mayor oversees 26± city employees that in turn manage the parks, waste water facility, administrational, street crews, cemetery…The Mayor is elected for a four (4) year term of office.

Other Duties of Mayor: Enforce laws, Charter, Ordinances and Resolutions. 1) Perform duties required by law, charter, ordinance or resolution, 2) Recommend measures to the Council. 3) Carry out policies established by the Council. 4) Report to Council on the affairs and financial condition of the city government. 5) Report to Council as Council requires. 6) Execute bonds, notes, contracts, and written obligations of the Council. 7) Prepare Council agenda & preside over Council meetings. 8) Prepare the budget in consultation with the Council and department heads. 9) Execute the budget and appoint board members with council consent.

Mayors Vote: Mayor decides all tie votes of the Council, but has no other vote. Mayor may veto ordinances and resolutions, subject to override by the affirmative vote of (6) six Council members.

Attending many of the committee meetings, gathering information and reporting to the Council is no small matter. The committees are the groups that gather information supporting their decisions that are presented to the council for the final decision. Often the mayor is requested to gather the information they are seeking. The City Treasurer, City Attorney, Director of Operations and other employees of city are also involved in presenting to the committees and council with information. The council has the final making decision powers.

Combatting Hunger in the United States

Written by Tessa Sawyer

There are many organizations in America that are undertaking the hefty task of ending hunger. These dedicated groups of people understand that hunger is one of the biggest issues our country faces. Feeding America uses a network of food banks throughout the nation to fight hunger. Their members are active in communities in every state. This organization was founded in 1979 and now consists of 200 food banks scattered across the country.

Fact about Feeding America:

- In 2012, Feeding America was named the fourth largest charity in the U.S. by Forbes. It invests 97 percent of all donations into programs and services for people in need.

Share Our Strength's "No Kid Hungry" campaign is dedicated to stopping hunger among children. Through this program, kids are connected to nutritious food in their communities. No Kid Hungry also educates families on cooking using healthy, affordable ingredients. They are bringing childhood hunger to the nation's attention.

Fact about Share Our Strength:

- Last year, more than 750 nutrition educators helped low-income families learn skills like reading food labels in the store.

In our own community, organizations like the Food Pantry and Backpack Program work tirelessly to help fight hunger.

Events are planned this week at BCHS, including dress up days, an assembly and a food drive. Community members can bring donations of food items or money to the BCHS office.

Community Youth Initiative (CYI) Cleanup

The Community Youth Initiative board is helping with Earth Day Clean Up Saturday, April 16 from 9 am - 12 noon. Anyone interested in helping please bring gloves and come to the Depot Park at 9 am.

MONTANA WESTERN JUNIOR RECOGNIZED FOR SOCIAL CHANGE EFFORTS

University of Montana Western junior Delaney Hansen was recently recognized as a Newman Civic Fellows Award honoree by Campus Compact.

The Newman Civic Fellows Award honors undergraduate and graduate students who have taken action in pursuit of long-term social change and who engage and inspire others in their communities. Students are nominated by their institution's president or chancellor.

"Delaney is passionate as an educator, volunteers as an elementary level academic coach and works with local students as a mentor through the education club," Chancellor Beth Weatherby said. "I was pleased to nominate an effective, thoughtful leader and dedicated student who is committed to making the lives of those around her better."

In Hansen's capacity as president of the Associated Students of the University of Montana Western, she has made a significant impact on advancing the campus community by enhancing the recycling program, increasing student involvement and making positive change in the structure of student government.

"I believe that we were all put on earth to fulfill a specific purpose; for me, this purpose is to guide the future leaders of this country to success, to inspire students, and to help each student find a love for learning," Hansen said. "I aim to play an integral role in the success of the world's future, which is why I have chosen to be involved in various aspects of my campus and community in Dillon, Montana."

Hansen is pursuing an elementary education degree with a minor in special education. She is planning to do her student teaching assignment in a third-world country and would like to teach abroad full-time after graduating.

Hansen is among 218 honorees around the country representing Campus Compact member institutions from 36 states, Washington D.C and Mexico.

Campus Compact is a Boston-based non-profit organization working to advance the public purposes of higher education.

Campus Compact 2016 Newman Civic Fellows will represent their institution in a national group of student leaders. These students will receive an award certificate and an invitation to join the Newman Civic Fellows online network. They will also be featured prominently on the Campus Compact national website and, in many cases, invited to participate in state-specific activities.
