Gaines Richard McCracken

April 12, 1930 to April 10, 2016

Gaines Richard McCracken (Dick), 85 passed away in his home in Polaris, Montana on April 10, 2016 of cancer.

Dick was born April 12, 1930 in Dillon to T. Lee and Phyllis McCracken.

Dick's entire life has been identified with skiing, starting when he was just four. Many consider Dick as one of the founding fathers of skiing and ski hills in the area. His family acquired Elkhorn Hot Springs in 1942 to allow his family close access to skiing and this began a lifelong joy for for hiking, skiing, swimming and the Grasshopper Valley. He attended Dillon schools through high school, continuing to college at the University of Montana. He was a success at multiple ski team events and competitions, with ski jumping being his favorite. When he returned to Dillon after college, he became a ski team coach and mentor culminating in national awards. He was also a key part of the McCracken Brothers clothing stores in Dillon and Bozeman.

Dick made several civic contributions to the community, including starting the J.C. Little Skiers Program and Vice President of the National US Ski Association. In 1972 he married Marcia Stish, his true love and companion. He traded in the city life for one in the Elkhorn area. They had two children, Megan and Ryan, and were owners of Rainy Mountain (now Maverick Mountain). Dick received the Montana Small Business Association businessman of the year award for his work developing the skill hill. After the ski hill, Dick moved on to other ventures, including logging, land reclamation and a family saw mill.

His parents and a brother Joseph W McCracken preceded him in death.

Dick is survived by his wife, Marcia and their two children, Megan (Burke) Nelson grandchildren Danika and Mckall and Ryan (Jenny) McCracken grandchildren Liam and Colin. He is also survived by two daughters of a previous marriage Vicki

Hunger is a Game Changer
 Written by Tessa Sawyer

The problem of hunger in our state and nation is very real and frightening beyond belief. Should a child have to worry about where they will get their next meal? Or whether they will eat at all? Hunger impacts children on many levels; some effects are harder to notice. Kids that struggle with hunger miss more school, score lower on tests, are sick more often and slower to recover, they do not learn as fast as their peers, and they have higher levels of behavioral and emotional problems.

The solution seems simple, right? If there are hungry children, we feed them, but accomplishing this goal will take the investment of thousands of dedicated and caring individuals. Together we can ensure that no child goes hungry. Together we can make a difference.

Events are planned this week at BCHS, including dress up days, an assembly and a food drive. Community members can bring donations of food items or money to the BCHS office.

EMC Signs

By: MJ

The zoning committee is now working on a process to identify character areas that will identify what type of Electronic Message Centers, (EMC) would benefit Dillon. Digital billboards have become the new way to catch the eye of passing motorists. Concerns are that this type of signage may distract and heighten safety risks for drivers. The typical electronic displays, change messages approx. every 6 to 8 seconds. Issues that will be addressed when it comes to electronic signs in an area are: brightness, how often it changes messages, times it would have to be dimmed, areas they will be allowed in, traffic...

Electronic signs are useful to business as they do attract the attention of potential customers. The zoning board will weigh the value of EMC signs to businesses with safety issues to hopefully come up with a solution that works for the majority and is agreeable with the community.

If you have ideas on electric signage contact city hall. The committee is going to put regulations in place and they need to hear from the business owners as well as the citizens. Make these signs work for you by having your voice heard.
