DILLON JAYCEES ANNOUNCE Distinguished Service Award Winner

This year's Distinguished Service Award Winner was born in Miles City, Montana on August 12, 1955. He and his family moved to Dillon when he was in the 5th grade and he graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1974. He excelled as a football player and a wrestler in high school and continued that trend as he attend Montana Tech. In 1982 he met his wife and they were married in Bozeman, Montana. They have three children and 2 grandchildren and one community member stated that "this is his greatest legacy, as you will find no more upstanding children than his".

Following college, he returned and formed RBJ Construction with partners Walt Roschinger and his mother Joyce. He established, owned, and operated KB Construction until 2015, at which time he sold the business and semi-retired.

He has been dedicated to the Dillon Jaycees and the betterment of the Dillon community for decades. He was instrumental in most of the projects that required major construction, and also provided tools and labor, as this was his trade. He lead the charge in building the current Jaycees building, the main concessions and cowboy concessions stands, and many other improvements to the Beaverhead County Fairgrounds. Among other projects, he installed the concrete at the Ibeyville Park, was involved in the Demolition Derby, the Little Skiers Program, junior high wrestling, and the Father's Day gathering at the Grasshopper Campground for many years. Bill Knox stated that "those of us who are proud to count him as a friend know that he has spent countless hours, usually with his devoted wife by his side, working on those projects off the clock, making sure the job was done right and on budget".

In addition, this individual laid the foundation for creating Montana's Biggest Weekend. In 1986 he suggested offering a concert as part of Labor Day weekend. Even though the idea was shot down many times he felt strongly that it would be a worthwhile addition. He finally brought Bob Romeo to a meeting, and over a bit of Budweiser the project became a reality with George Strait as the first headliner. He helped set up, tear down, and grow the concert into what it is today. Furthermore, he brought the idea of the Wild Horse Race and was the first to start the Calcutta. That first year he went from bar to bar handing out flyers to potential buyers to make the event a success. He was the go-to guy and he became a mentor for a new generation of Jaycees, as he lead by example.

During his post Jaycee years, this individual's contributions may not have made the newspaper, but his commitment to our community remained and is still strong. So many of Dillon's young men and women have gone on to be good members of their families and communities as they were fortunate enough to have worked and learned from him. At UMW, whenever there is a problem with the facilities the answer is "Call Baker". He generously paid his construction crew out-of-pocket for work they did completing Jaycees projects. He has given jobs opportunities to people in trouble, giving them a second chance to improve their lives. He has an outstanding work ethic, and operated KB Construction despite

The JC Creed starts, "We believe that faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life, ..." and ends with, "and service to humanity is the BEST WORK OF LIFE!" This individual is the embodiment of the JC Creed, a man whose service and devotion to this community should be recognized. A man who has done so much and never asked for anything in return other than you pay it forward. This years Distinguished Service Award recipient is Kim Baker.

DILLON JAYCEES ANNOUNCE Outstanding Young Man

This year's Outstanding Young Man has had a charitable spirit, a positive attitude, and a kind heart. He is the type of guy that shows up to work 15 minutes early every day and upholds that attitude even when he is off the clock. He is generous, attentive, driven, and committed. He has married these traits to become an incredibly active humanitarian.

He joined the Jaycees in July of 2007, shortly after moving to town. It was there he found his perfect fit in their creed which states, "That service to humanity is the best work of life!" Within the Jaycees, he has been elected President, Vice President, Firetruck Chair, Concession Chair, and has also maintained the position of director for six years. These roles translate into a lot of work and responsibility, but when his term in these offices ended, he never used it as an excuse to reduce his role within the Jaycees. He continued to help those who held these positions even though the title no longer belonged to him. His wife stated "I specifically think of all of the long hours he committed to the concessions during Labor Day weekend. I actually thought that he was the chair for about four years, when in reality, he was just helping out at the same level he did when it was his sole responsibility." He attends just about every meeting and volunteers for the group every chance he gets. He has assisted with the management of Rodeo finances, the Little Shooters Program, the annual Easter Egg Hunt, the Dillon wrestling tournament, putting up flags for holidays, the Little Skiers program, Punt, Pass, & Kick, as well the Demo Derby to name a few. He has even coordinated involving the Dillon Jaycee's Firetruck in the Ennis Fourth of July Parade to project the support of our community to theirs.

Additionally, this year's Outstanding Young Man is going on six years as being a member of the Grasshopper Valley Volunteer Fire Department. He offers not only his time, efforts, and own personal safety to this group, but he has also worked to raise money for them by helping with their Fourth of July Pancake Breakfast. He has also earned his Wildland Firefighter certificate so that he can help whenever there is a need.

Every summer, he has enjoyed being part of the Dillon Softball League. He enjoys getting people involved and as a captain for the past two years, he has fostered good sportsmanship and comradery within the league. In 2015, the league was threatened with being shut down. This individual hated to see a favorite community past time dissolve so he brought together a small group of people to revitalize the league and prevent its termination. One of his teammates stated not that long ago how grateful he was that this individual had worked to keep the league going because he knew only a rare few would step up to make that happen.

Beyond this, he ventures into other areas of the community. He and his wife are host parent to not just one, but two, girls on the college volleyball team every year. On his own, without any help of his wife, he coordinates home cooked meals for their volleyball, 'daughters'. Just recently, one of their graduated 'daughters' stated how invested this individual was in his 'job' as a host parent. She said it really meant a lot to her that he was really involved, came to both home and away games, knew what classes they were taking, and asked how they were doing in their personal lives. She also said that she knew if there was anything she needed, he would be there to help.

He has also taken on the role of an un-official host parent and mentor to several football players as well. Through this, he has helped make an impact on the lives of the college students passing through Dillon over the past four years.

In 2014, he volunteered himself to be a chaperone for the NRECA Youth Tour to Washington D.C. Many people would find dealing with a group of 29 high school students morning, noon, and night for seven days nothing short of a headache, but our Outstanding Young Man did not hesitate to volunteer. He found importance in being a mentor for local kids and encouraging them to expand their horizons, meet their Representatives and Senators, learn about our political system, and tap into the history of our country.

Just this past year, one of his friends had some new-found fame from the TV show the Bachelorette. He took the initiative and channeled his friend's celebrity status to raise money for a local girl who needed help paying her medical bills from a terrible car accident. The Win-a-Date with Josh Albers raffle was a hit and raised over $1,500.

Another time, he helped organize getting a guitar signed by the Labor Day performing act so it could be auctioned off for the New Hope Pregnancy Support Center. The guitar alone raised $750 for the group.

This year's Outstanding Young Man's mind is always thinking, "What can I do to help the community?" These examples are just a peek into the types of things he is always involved in, the level of effort he puts forth, and also exemplifies how he thinks outside of the box to help local groups and people. People remember him, become his friend, love his spirit and commitment, and absolutely adore his ability to integrate fun with work.

Outstanding Young Man - Ben Miller

He does not talk poorly about any other human being. He always looks for the good in people and this encourages everyone around him to be better.

While writing his letter of nomination, his wife, took a poll and asked this individuals' coworkers, fellow volunteers, family, and friends to describe him with a few words. What she heard over and over again was that he was loyal, dedicated, dependable, passionate, hospitable, humble, driven, kind, hardworking, and of course, the life of the party. He's been described as not just everybody's friend, but an incredible friend—the kind that wouldn't hesitate if you called him at 2:00 am for help. He is also a dedicated family man that would bend over backwards for any of his loved ones in a heartbeat. A past Jaycee President, Rodeo Chair, and local professor at the college identified that, "he stood out for his willingness to step up to make any type of project a success. He made it a priority to work on tasks that didn't get noticed." She described him as a guy that, "always served with a positive attitude and a sense of humor...A man with a commitment to serving...who was a great example of why the Jaycees are able to make things work year after year." Another Jaycee that has worked with him for many years identified that he was, "instrumental in reaching out to the community and getting new members to join." He also said that he "has made volunteering a fun and enjoyable experience for everyone around him."

Dillon, Montana is a welcoming, hardworking, dependable, and community oriented town. These words also describe this individual and emphasize his dedication to this place he calls home. He truly embodies what the Outstanding Young Man award represents and it is for this reason that this year's recipient is Ben Miller.
