My Pelican Flew the Coop

Three years ago we did some landscaping in our yard. We hauled in rock and dirt and made a cute yard display. It featured a wooden dock and sitting bench facing a ditch of water that runs past our house. It included a sandy beach and a real canoe. The finishing touch came with a life size, three foot resin pelican that stood at the end of the dock. We became affectionately know as the Pelican House.

Last week some pranksters, I presume, stole the pelican, much to the disappointment of many. Hard to say what they did with it but if anyone happens to see a lifelike pelican laying around, please give me a call. Whoever took it, we would sure like it back, no questions asked. And if not, may the fleas of a thousand camels infest your underwear drawer.

What is the Purpose of Government Anyway?

This is the fundamental question that we as citizens need to ask and know the answer to. If we don't know the answer to the question, "What is the purpose of government?" then we will believe anything that is spoon fed to us. What is the old saying? "If you don't stand for anything, you will fall for everything." When it comes to our governmental process it is critical to have a clear understanding of its purpose so that we can make accurate judgments as to how well the government is doing.

So, what is the purpose of government anyway?
 The Declaration of Independence, one of our country's founding documents, lays out the purpose pretty clearly for us in the second paragraph: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

Government first of all is us- we the people- and we give the government certain power over us to help all of us live in a workable society. The main purpose of government is to understand that all of us are given unalienable rights; these are rights given to us by God and not by any governmental power. Once the government understands that everyone possesses these rights, it is the purpose of the government to create a workable system that gives these rights to everyone without the rights of one person invading on the rights of another. The easy answer to this question can be summed up with the slogan the Law Enforcement world has used for a long time - To Protect and Serve.

I believe that many of our political struggles today come from the government over reaching its main purpose and trying to micromanage every detail of our everyday lives. That has to change if we want to remain a strong nation, a strong state, and a strong local community. I want to make the change happen and that is why I stand as a Republican Candidate for the Montana Senate District #36. The Montana Republican Party Platform states that we believe the government should limit its scope of activity to avoid infringing upon the lawful activities of free citizens. I will stand to limit the over reach of the government as laid out in the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Montana and in keeping with True Republican and True Conservative principles.

Dale Stewart
 Candidate for MT Senate District #36

Celebrate National Poetry Month at Dillon Public Library

Come play with words! The Dillon Public Library is sponsoring an evening of poetry writing in honor of National Poetry Month. Bring the whole family and your friends to Dillon Public Library on Friday evening, April 22nd, beginning at 7:00. We will all be writing "spine poetry," which is a poem composed exclusively of the titles of books. You will be given time to browse the shelves and copy titles of books to use in your poem. After the browsing period, there will be a composing period with brain fuel provided in the form of finger food and cold drinks. There will be age categories for poems written by individuals, and there are two group categories for those that want to join forces to compose a poetry masterpiece with others. Prizes will be awarded in each category, and a Grand Prize poem will be selected by public choice. When was the last time you played with words? Please join us for this evening of creative fun.

UMW FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES LEGACY PLAZA GROUNDBREAKING

The Legacy Plaza groundbreaking ceremony is scheduled Thursday, May 5, 2016 at 2 p.m., Montana Western Foundation Director Roxanne Engellant said today.

The ceremony will take place in the parking lot area behind Main Hall, between Main Hall and the Short Building on the University of Montana Western campus, Engellant said.

The event will include remarks by campus officials and refreshments.

"Legacy Plaza will be an extraordinary place where campus and community can come together," Engellant said. "We're excited to break ground and begin work on what will be a beautiful addition to our campus."

Legacy Plaza is part of the overall Legacy Campaign which included the the renovation and restoration of Main Hall. The university is currently creating a model classroom using the latest in technology and instructional practices. The classroom will restore and occupy the former library in Main Hall.

A Legacy Plaza brick campaign was created to allow students, alumni and community members to purchase inscribed paving bricks to include names and messages that will be laid throughout the plaza area.

Bricks can be purchased through the Montana Western Foundation office by calling 406-683-7305 or emailing Roxanne Engellant at roxanne.engellant@umwestern.edu.

National Organization Brings Communities Together to Help People In Need Coming To Dillon, MT

Every day millions of people in need across our country cry out for help. Those pleas can come from unemployed single parents, children, and lonely senior adults to name a few. Many of those people in need live in our own communities including Dillon and the surrounding areas. Love INC, a national nonprofit organization which unites local churches to transform lives and communities, is developing a local affiliate in the Dillon area. By creating a talent bank of the gifts and skills of church members from across Christian denominations and coordinating with social service agencies and outreach ministries, Dillon Area Love INC will be poised to provide for the needs of all neighbors in the community who lack resources. On Friday, April 15th, the Board of Directors for the Dillon Area affiliate held their Community Kickoff event introducing over sixty attendees to the Love INC movement and unique model. The following day a training event was held for the Board, as well as interested community members, to learn more about how Dillon Area Love INC will fulfill its mission operationally in an effort to serve with organized compassion.

"The Board of Directors of Dillon Area Love INC is energetically anticipating our next steps of hiring an Executive Director and moving forward to opening day when volunteers will be in a greater position to put their hearts and hands into action for the betterment of others" stated Laura Malesich, Chairman of Board of Directors for Dillon Area Love INC.

Founded in 1977, Love In the Name of Christ (Love INC) brings churches together across denominational lines to help those with immediate needs such as food and clothing, to longer-term responses such as transitional housing programs, health care, and life skills training. Love INC meets more than one million needs each year through more than 155 affiliates in 30 states, representing a network of more than 9,000 churches, 7,000 community-based organizations, and 300,000 volunteers working to serve their neighbors in need. For more information about Dillon Area Love INC please contact us at DillonLoveINC@Gmail.com or visit LoveINC.org.
