Engellant said. "Mike's commitment to Montana Western and the Dillon community is remarkable. His passion for libraries, literature and learning is apparent in all that he contributes."

Schulz grew up in Sheridan, Mont., where he graduated from high school in a class of 16 students. When he attended Western Montana College, (now Montana Western) from 1975 to 1979 Schulz had a work study job in the library for three years. That is when his love of English and literature developed into a passion for library sciences.

"Montana Western is my academic home and is a special transformative place," Schulz said. "I have been blessed to have my dream job as the Montana Western library director for almost 27 years."

Schulz received his Bachelor of Science degree at Montana Western in secondary education for English and social sciences minoring in library science. In 1984 he returned to earn his master's in education with an emphasis in counseling. He later went to California State University where he received a master's in library science.

"It was an exciting and wonderful place to work," Schulz said. "I first decided to come to Montana Western because of its rich history in producing quality educators and because of the small class setting allowing me to develop personal relationships with my professors."

Throughout his career Schulz has worked for all types of libraries including school, public, academic, special and even ship libraries in both Montana and California. For the past 37 years Schulz says he has watched libraries improve and evolve with the technological age making information more accessible and revolutionizing search and retrieval methods for students.

As a longtime member of the Dillon community Schulz has been on the board of the Chamber of Commerce, United Way of Beaverhead County and acts as the western representative to the Montana Small School Alliance. He also serves on the Dillon School Enrichment Program Committee.

"The Dillon community welcomes students and is filled with kind and supportive people," Schulz said. "I see it as my pleasure and responsibility to give back to the community which has done so much for me."

Building in Dillon

By: MJ

In order to understand the rules and regulations when and if you want to build or add onto your home if it is located on a 25 X 115 SF lot, go on line to the Dillon web side and read the zoning document that you must comply with. A suggestion might be to go talk to the City Director of Operations, Mr. Todd Hazelbaker and mayor and let them verbally explain the requirements to you.

Build your Dream Home on a 25 X 115 Lot: Your dream home might not be possible or fit on your lot as per the zoning document.

Remodel older home: If you are planning on adding a room onto an older home you purchased that is located on a 25 X 115 lot, again go visit with city officials. If you're existing home does not meet the setback requirements and the room you add on continues on the site line then you probably will not be able to add onto your home.

Question: Is this a TAKINGS? Some people say it is. NOTE: the original understanding of the Takings Clause was, that the federal government had to compensate the property owner when it physically took property. The text does not require compensation when regulations diminish the value of property. Question: Why are people going outside of city limits to build yet continue to use the infrastructure located in Dillon? City loses tax dollars and infrastructure costs fall on the backs of a few people. Good thing? You decide.

Wheelchair Ramp: If someone in your family has been confined to or needs the help of a wheel chair requiring a ramp you also need to visit with city officials. If you cannot meet the setbacks you may or may not be allowed to build the ramp.

The diary entries are written by his grandmother Renz. These were recently discovered in the family's archives and have been compiled by his daughter, Ruth Little.

It is a delightful book filled with memories and thoughts from that period of time in Jay's life.

RED HAT SOCIETY

The Red Hat Belles met at Papa T's on Thursday, April 21st. The meeting was co-hosted by Margie Nelson and Glenda Olsen.

Alyce Wassail again took up a collection for the Dillon Backpack Program. She also showed us the new name badges she has been working on. Very cute and eventually each member will have one.

Door prizes of the two potted plants that were the decoration on the tables were won by Bonnie Baker and Sydney Tiedgen. Congratulations to Bonnie and Sydney.

Our next meeting will be held at the Bicentennial Apts. In May co-hosted by Darlene Rose and Lydia Towery. Alyce Wassail and Barb Schrader volunteered to co-host in June. Thank you Darlene, Lydia, Alyce and Barb!

As usual we were not disappointed at Papa T's. The food and service was great. Thank you so much! Last but not least, a special thank you to Margie and Glenda for organizing the activity. We realize that we didn't give you much time to prepare but you did a great job!
