mining too. A little ornery and not afraid to fight. There wasn't a single thing he wouldn't do to help someone. His heart lie with horses, cattle and kids. Although he had none of his own, he shined the most women when there were kids around. He always had stock in candy, popsicles and any other kind of treats. He loved to push them in the swings, stroll them around the block and if they were old enough take them fishing or to a rodeo or two.

Bob is preceded in death by his father Orbin Olson, brother Orlean and sister, Delores.

He is survived by mother, Gladys Nybert, and sister, Gloria Keller, brother, Gary Olson and several nieces and nephews.

He will be greatly missed by his little sidekicks, David, Blazer, Brazen, Tyr, Talon, Emera and Salem, Klaus (Woody), and Christopher and all kids on the block.

There will be a gathering for family and friends at 532 Barnett St. on Tuesday April 26th at 2 PM when Bob arrives home on horseback. There is a guestbook available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Public Questions: Members of public asked if the committee members had an idea how many businesses were in town. Reply was NO. Question: Should the promotion of the city fall on the shoulders of the local government or should it be the responsibility of the community organizations?

Many hands make light work. The community of Dillon has at this time, a fractured system when it comes to committees/organizations working together for a long term common goal. Appears like everyone wants to be the person that gets the glory and not the unrecognized person that does the grunt work. In reality there should be no glory awards and self-images need to be lost. In all long term plans it can take many organizations working together to have positive results in the end, thus giving everyone a platform to stand on. To achieve a long term plan there must be a written plan so everyone is working toward the same end – there must be facts and figures known about the community to draft a plan that promotes the area. Example: identify where the outside dollars are coming from, how many new dollars are coming into town, what type of people are bringing those dollars in, who is the largest employer, what is the average wage, what impact does the college have on success of town and most of all what does Dillon have to offer that can be built on? There are many ideas out there so let's listen to everyone and capitalize on a couple ideas and work toward making things happen.

Committee member Straugh stated he was honor bound to suggest things to help community and that having a registry with information showing type of business, owner of business and contact information would help the city, police, fire departments and promote community. Mayor Klakken concurred that it could help with safety concerns.

Mom & Pop businesses: Many businesses in the fledgling stage are started with the owners being the only employees and later turn out to be a supporting business for the community. Do they really need another expense? Take a good look around the town noticing how busy the majority of existing business are.

Special Events Ordinance: Approved for recommendation to the council for endorsement.

TRAIL COALITION ON THE MOVE

The Beaverhead Trail Coalition will host "Pint Night" at Beaverhead Brewing Company from 5-8 pm on April 29th.

Designed as a fund raiser to help gain and maintain trails and other programs in and around Dillon, the gathering hosts an evening of music by Bill Dwyer and Dave Walker, a silent auction and fun and fellowship with others who love outdoor activity.

The Beaverhead Trails Coalition was established in 2008 with the mission of promoting the creation and use of walking, biking and hiking trails in and around Dillon. The coalition helps fund the Walking School Bus, improve sidewalks and crosswalks, provide a bike recycling program and establish new trails in the local area.

The coalition's most ambitious project involves establishing the Dillon Town Overlook Trail system above the "W" in the foothills west of town. The group purchased 475 acres to protect public access in 2015 and hopes to purchase additional land to expand trails toward the "B" in the near future.

New look Bulldog Defense shines in Black and Red Spring Game

Taking the field for the final time this spring, the new-look Bulldog defense shined as they won the annual Black and Red Scrimmage by a score of 52-49 in an adjusted scoring system where all touchdowns were worth six points, first downs worth one point, field

Having to replace four all-conference selections from last season's stalwart defense, the young Bulldogs proved worthy as redshirt linebacker and Dillon native Jason Ferris led the way with 10 total tackles, including two for loss and one sack.

Newly-named team captain Riley Martello from Bozeman, finished with nine tackles and one tackle for loss, he was last season's Special Teams Player of the Year. Before the scrimmage, the team captains for the 2016 campaign were recognized. Four young men were voted by their teammates and they are; Dakota Pineda, Matt Lickfold, Tyrell Penner and Martello.

Another newcomer joining in one the defensive effort was defensive end Dustin Pickens, who came away with seven tackles, one sack, one tackle for loss and a 35-yard fumble returned for a defensive touchdown.

For one first team all-conference selection, it was another day at the office, senior linebacker TJ Benson corralled 10 tackles to join Jason Ferris in double-digits.

The defense held the Bulldog offense to just 90 rushing yards on 66 attempts, included in that total was eight sacks that tallied nearly 70 yards. The leading rusher on the day was Sam Rutherford who finished with 43 yards on 16 attempts, he was followed by Hunter Thomsen who ended the day with 27 yards and the lone rushing touchdown of the scrimmage.

The passing game showed some signs of improvement, as J.D. Ferris and Bennett Gibson took all of the reps with the first and second teams. Ferris was 20-28 for 178 yards and a touchdown strike to Rutherford and Gibson finished 12-22 for 121 yards and a touchdown to Joe Caicedo.

Nourse continued, "the offensive line kept grinding and pushing, I'm most proud of that. Guys like tackle Kylan Putman and running back Sam Rutherford have played a lot of football here and take a lot of pride in their performance, and their effort and leadership have been highlights of the spring."

Both quarterbacks led drives deep into their offensive red zone, only to come away with no points due to great defensive plays. Ferris was intercepted in the end zone by freshman defensive back Zach Janis and Gibson was picked off by redshirt Dalton Palmer in the end zone a few drives later.

On the day, the defense came away with five turnovers and continued to show its bend-but-don't-break style of play. In the 140-play scrimmage the defense limited the offense to 481 yards, just 3.4 yards per play.

In all, 17 players recorded receptions from four quarterbacks that included redshirts Kade Paffhausen and Casey Klaboe, who operated with the third team offense. Paffhausen completed 12 of 17 attempts for 88 yards as Klaboe was 3-6 for eight yards and was sacked four times.

The receiving corps was led in receptions by George Sherwood and Kris Cleveland who hauled in six passes a piece as Justin Sullivan and Joe Caicedo led the way with 51 and 59 yards respectively.

The Red and Black Scrimmage marked the end of the 2016 spring season and is the full-group activity until they return in August for the 2016 season.

The Bulldogs will open the season on August 27 in Miles City as they will take on Dickinson State University at a neutral site.

OFFICIALS IDENTIFY GRIZZLY KILLED IN NOVEMBER INCIDENT

(Bozeman, Mont.)—Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks has confirmed that the male grizzly bear shot in late November 2015 was the bear known to researchers as No. 211. No. 211 was killed in the Little Trail Creek drainage north of Gardiner, Montana on the Gallatin National Forest, an event under investigation by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

No. 211 was recognizable because of distinctive scars on the right side of his face likely the result of typical fights with other male grizzlies for females during mating season or to claim deer and elk carcasses. No. 211 was known to many photographers and wildlife watchers. For this reason, his life was often documented in the media.

In his prime, No. 211 weighed approximately 600 pounds. At his last capture in 2015, he had lost nearly half of his body weight, weighing in at only 338 pounds. His body condition was probably linked to his advanced age of 25 years. Less than 5 percent of male bears born in the Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem survive to 25 years.

The grizzly bear is protected by both the federal government and the State of Montana as a threatened species. The Service routinely investigates incidents affecting threatened and endangered species and is conducting an investigation with the assistance of Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks.
