Partner wins men's all-around, Lady Bulldogs win Miles rodeo

After a rough second rodeo at Montana State two weeks ago, both the men's and women's teams bounced back with outstanding performances at the Miles Community College rodeo this past weekend, despite record-breaking rain fall in Miles City.

The men, who dropped into third place for the first time this season after the second rodeo in Bozeman, finished in second place at Miles with 495 points behind Montana State (615) and ahead of Northwest College (400) to regain second place in the Big Sky Region.

The effort was led by a strong team performance, paced by Ruger Piva who won the bull riding event for the second straight topped out with 180 points, Piva won with a ride that scored 71. Also scoring team points was Phil Shileds (135) by winning saddle bronc with a combined score of 111, Holden Garrison (100) winning steer wrestling, Tristan Hansen (75) with a fourth place finish in the bareback event and Tyler Friend (5) with a ninth place finish in saddle bronc.

Even though he did not score points for the team, freshman Jake Partner won the all-around cowboy with 290 points in Miles. Partner finished second in tie down roping and second in the first round with a time of 12.2 seconds. He also was second in team roping as a header with his partner and sister Jessica Partner. The duo scored 145 individual points for their efforts.

Other notable performers were; Dakota Munns who was second in saddle bronc, Jeret Angell eighth place in saddle bronc, Cyris Robertson with a first place finish in tie down roping and Jacob Worthen came away with first place in steer wrestling.

On the women's side, they continued their strong season, winning the rodeo with 225 points and cutting into Montana State's lead in the Big Sky region.

Callie Wollenburg led the charge by scoring 150 team points and earning herself a buckle by winning the barrel racing event with a combined time of 35.64 seconds. Also scoring points in barrels was Connlee Gray, who finished in eighth place. Gray and Wollenburg are sitting sixth and seventh place respectively in the region.

After winning the all-around cowgirl award at the first rodeo in Bozeman, Tess Turk scored 60 points in goat tying to finish in sixth place. Teammate Lorrie Ann Smith came in second place in goats with a combined time of 21.5 seconds.

Charley Yeager finished with 70 individual points by coming in fourth place in the breakaway.

As mentioned before, Jessica Partner teamed up with her brother in team roping to finish in second place, she scored 145 individual points in the rodeo. (Rodeo Results)

In all, it was a successful weekend with a lot of hardware making the trip from Miles City to Dillon. The Bulldogs brought home a women's team trophy and six buckles; Jake Worthen in steer wrestling, Cyris Robertson in calf roping, Callen Wollenburg in barrels, Jake Partner in the all-around, Phil Shields in saddle bronc and Ruger Piva in bulls. Shields and Piva also clinched the year end championship in their respective events.

The 'Dawgs will return to action next weekend when they travel North to the University of Montana and will try to close the gap even more on Montana State University who leads the season standings in the Big Sky Region.

LWCF Priority Recreation Access funding used to acquire public access to the Sapphire Mountains

Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest Supervisor Melany Glossa announced the recent acquisition of 800 acres which secures public access to national forest lands and the Sapphire Mountains. Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation (RMEF) was instrumental in working with the Burnett family to obtain an old homestead - Zekes Meadows - and a neighboring section of land in the Rock Creek headwaters.

Funding from the Land and Water Conservation Fund (LWCF) provided more than a million dollars to acquire the land and was leveraged with a grant from the Montana Fish and Wildlife Conservation Trust and a donation from RMEF. The final transaction used the first of the Forest Service's 2016 LWCF-Priority Recreation Access appropriations.

In Montana, LWCF has funded purchase of critical private inholdings within the national forests created from the homestead era. Access to the national forests often crosses these homesteaded inholdings, such as Zekes Meadows. "The landowners were willing to sell the entire property in order for the Forest Service to be able to extend public access across the land," said Pintler District Ranger Charlene Bucha. "This access connects to an extensive system of trails within the Sapphire Wilderness Study Area and secures backcountry recreation for horseback riding, hiking, fishing, camping, and hunting."

Hunting is an important source of revenue to local businesses and outfitters/guides. LWCF has supported 64,000 Montana jobs annually through tourism and public land management. The national forests provide opportunities for public recreation. Additionally, LWCF funds are used to protect and improve wildlife, fish, and plant habitat. The Zekes Meadows purchase includes nearly a mile of native bull trout habitat, Westslope cutthroat trout fishery, and delivers cool water into Rock Creek.

In 2015, Congress extended the Land and Water Conservation Fund (LWCF) authorization for an additional three years. LWCF was established in 1965 to invest in the nation's land, water and wildlife heritage. For 50 years, the fund has helped support parks, historic sites; conserved forests, rivers, lakes and wildlife habitat; and provided access to recreation, hunting and fishing for current and future generations. The fund's primary source of income is from royalties paid by oil and gas companies drilling offshore in waters owned by the American people.

LEWIS-CLARK STATE COLLEGE WINS 2015-16 BANDY AWARD

Lewis-Clark State College (LCSC) is the winner of the 2015 - 2016 Bandy Memorial All-Sports trophy according to Frontier Conference Commissioner Kent Paulson.

For the 2015-16 season, LCSC finished with 107 points followed by last season's Bandy winner Carroll College with 90.5 points. Rocky Mountain College finished third with 79.5 points. The University of Great Falls was fourth with 58 points, then Montana State-Northern with 57, Montana Tech with 56, Montana Western with 49, Southern Oregon with 12, Eastern Oregon with 7.5 and College of Idaho with 7.5 points.

It is Lewis-Clark State's fourth Bandy Award. Carroll College has claimed 11 Bandy Awards, followed by Rocky Mountain and Montana Western with six each. Montana Tech has four and MSU-Northern has two. Lewis-Clark claimed regular season conference titles in men's cross country, men and women's basketball, and men and women's golf. Carroll College captured the regular season women's cross country title and were co-champions with Rocky Mountain in volleyball. Montana Tech were regular season champions in football.

The Bandy Award is presented each year to the conference school that has accumulated the most points based on its league finish in football, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, soccer, women's volleyball, and men's and women's golf.

The conference champion receives 17 points and the points decrease for each place after first with 12 points for second, 10 points for third, nine points for fourth, eight points for fifth, seven points for sixth, six points for seventh and three points for eighth. If there is a tie in the regular season standings, the points for the place finishing are added together and divided by the number of teams that tied. An example would be if two teams tied for first they would each receive 14.5 points (17 + 12 divided by 2 = 14.5) while the next place finisher would be awarded the third place points.

The conference features five members in all sports: Carroll College, Montana State-Northern, Montana Tech, Montana Western and Rocky Mountain. Two schools in all sports except football: Lewis-Clark State and the University of Great Falls. College of Idaho, Eastern Oregon University and Southern Oregon University are conference members in football only.

The Bandy Award was first presented after the 1982-83 season with Western Montana College (now Montana Western) winning the award. The all-sports trophy is named in honor of the first commissioner of the Frontier Conference, George Bandy, his wife Cheryl Ann and their 8-year-old son Michael, whom they had adopted two weeks earlier. The family died tragically in a boating accident in the summer of 1982 when their 14-foot sailboat overturned in high winds on Canyon Ferry Reservoir near Helena, Mont.

Attorney General Fox Urges Montanans to Dispose of Unused Prescription Drugs

April 30 National Take-Back Day

Attorney General Tim Fox invites all Montanans to dispose of their unused, unwanted and expired prescription drugs during National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day on Saturday, April 30. Local law enforcement agencies, community advocacy groups, the Montana Department of Justice and the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) will give Montanans the 11th opportunity in six years to rid their homes of potentially dangerous unused prescription drugs on Saturday, April 30 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

"National statistics show 53 percent of prescription painkiller abusers get their drugs from a friend or family member for free," said Attorney General Tim Fox. "We need to resolve to never share our prescription drugs with others. One easy way to do that is to properly dispose of your prescription medication as soon as you are done taking it so it's not available to anyone else. National Take-Back Day is a great opportunity for Montanans to safely, responsibly, and conveniently get rid of any prescription drugs that may be overstaying their welcome in the medicine cabinet."

The National Take-Back Day events offer free, anonymous, no-questions-asked prescription pill and patch disposal at any of the more than 20 participating sites across the state. However, the following items cannot be accepted: illegal drugs, chemotherapy drugs, needles, sharps, oxygen containers, pressurized canisters, and radioactive substances.

Cities hosting take-back events include: Anaconda, Big Timber, Bozeman, Browning, Butte, Conrad, Crow Agency, Cut Bank, Dillon, Eureka, Gardiner, Glendive, Great Falls, Harlowton, Helena, Libby, Lincoln, Miles City, Missoula, Roundup, Stevensville, Superior, Thompson Falls, Troy, White Sulphur Springs, and Whitefish. To find the most up-to-date list of host cities, and the locations in each one, visit www.ResolveMontana.org.

"I want to commend and thank all the law enforcement agencies, community drug abuse prevention groups, and volunteers who donate their time, energy and resources to making these take-back events happen," said Attorney General Fox. "Their efforts make it easier for people to properly dispose of their unused prescription drugs, and that makes our state safer for everyone."

Montanans who cannot make it to a Take-Back event on April 30 can dispose of their unwanted medications by visiting one of the more than 45 permanent drug drop box locations throughout the state, a list of which is available online at www.ResolveMontana.org.

In the ten previous National Take-Back Day events, over 5.5 million pounds of prescription medications has been collected and destroyed.

For more resources and information about prescription drug abuse in Montana, visit www.ResolveMontana.org.

Jay Nelson Book Signing

Jay Nelson will be signing his newest book, Love and a Prayer, on Thursday April 28 at the Beaverhead County Museum from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. The book is a collection of letters and diary entries from Jay to and from his family that were written during World War II. The diary entries are written by his grandmother Renz. These were recently discovered in the family's archives and have been compiled by his daughter, Ruth Little.

It is a delightful book filled with memories and thoughts from that period of time in Jay's life.

The price is $20.00.

Attention Auction Enthusiast

The Beaverhead Search and Rescue's Annual Auction will be Sunday, May 1st at the BVHD S&R Building, Hwy 41 N. Viewing of Auction items will be 8:00 am. They will have breakfast for sale. The Auction begins at 10:00 am and lunch is available all day.

Val Prophet is the auctioneer.

Dillon Lions Club Vision Screening

The Dillon Lions Club provides vision screening for the students in every school in Beaverhead County, including each class of Youth Challenge Cadets. Based on financial need, students are offered funding to help cover the cost of the exam and eye glasses if they are needed.

We sell live Maine lobsters as a fundraiser to support our vision program. Order forms are available at Vigilante Electric Cooperative and The China Garden as well as several other businesses – look for the pink order forms. All of the funds raised stay in Beaverhead County.

The Dillon Lions Club also raises funds by serving food at one of the "Dinner in the Park" organized by the SWMT Arts Council each summer.

Our club has a section of highway south of Dillon where you might see us doing our spring and fall roadside cleanup. We also provide a scholarship for a high school senior that excels in academics and service to the community.

Dillon Lions meet in the room across the hall from the county treasurer's office. We meet at 7PM on the first Tuesday of the month. Everyone is invited to attend our meetings. We do not hold meetings during June, July or August.

Spaghetti Dinner

The annual Spaghetti Dinner Fund raiser for the Beaverhead Animal Shelter in Dillon will be this coming Saturday April 30 at the Elk's in downtown Dillon.

Dinner will be served from 5:00 to 8:00 pm. There will be a 50/50 Draw. The Silent Auction will be between 5:00 pm and 6:30 pm. The Live Auction will begin at 7:00 pm.

Dillon Jaycee Pitch, Hit and Run

The Dillon Jaycees present Pitch, Hit and Run Thursday April 28th at 5:30 at the Beaverhead Little League Field. Boys and Girls ages 7-14 come showcase your pitching, hitting and running abilities in baseball and softball. Contact Jason Schumacher 406-660-1781 or Brock Myllymaki 406-660-2165 with any questions.
