BOOK TO TAKE HOME

The books were collected at the last school dance, which raised money for the school library. Middle schoolers could donate a children's book to receive an entry discount at the door.

Friday, the student council gathered in the library to share with the Kindergarten class their enthusiasm for the importance of reading in their everyday lives by giving each student their own labeled book and reading a children's story in a cozy corner. The littles were enthralled by the mad reading skills of the older kids, but the student council seemed to be delighted with the rewards of the experience.

SEARCHING FOR INFORMATION ABOUT TEN MILE STAGE STOP (OR WAY STATION)

My father, Jay Nelson of Jackson, and I are trying to find information on the Ten Mile Stage Stop (or Way Station) located on state lands along the highway from Dillon to Jackson on Ermont Road- just before the Bon Accord turn off. We would like stories or photos that you may have or can remember about it. I have a photo given to me by my grandmother, Jessie Renz, that has a 1900 date on it. Today there is only one old log building and the well casing across from it- where the horses were kept at night.

Anyone who can help please send your info to : Jay Nelson- Box 847- Jackson, MT 59736.
