Zoning Committee May 3, 2016

By MJ.

Meeting was cancelled for lack of a quorum. The next meeting will be held May 17th, 2016. There were (2) compliance certificates that would deal with construction, to be presented however they were put on hold until the next meeting. The Director of Operations representative takes all certificates dealing with construction to the committee for approval.

On the agenda was line items; Grandfathering, EMC signs, Un-zoned areas, Lot size, Alley access… You may be interested in attending the next zoning meeting if any of the listed items interest you.

I have attended many meetings where people are disheartened when they are being told they can't build a room onto their home, can't build garage, can't sub-divide property, can't put up signs and more. It is refreshing to see that maybe the committee is going to take a serious look at the zoning document. Question: Is this document a good fit for Dillon? It appears with all the certificate denials by the committee there are problems.

The city provides many conveniences yet folks are building beautiful homes out of town. Does the zoning committee know the facts on why people are building out of town? Remember: People in those sub-divisions come to town and use the infrastructure paid for by the citizens living within the city limits. They too help create pot holes in the streets.

If there is a problems let's fix it. Remember*: 1 tree starts a forest, 1 vote changes nations, 1 smile starts a friendship, 1 star guides a ship at sea, 1 step starts a journey… As a taxpayer get involved and take a step that will help start a journey of moving Dillon forward.*

Update - Barrett duplexes

By: MJ

The city issued a stop order on the original construction because it did not meet the current zoning requirements or fire code.

The insurance company took procession of the construction site. They sold it to a local contractor. Ken Grose is now in the process of completing the project. It has been downsized to (2) two apartments in each unit. By means of the downsizing the building meets all the zoning requirements and fire code.

The families of the late Dick McCracken wish to express their deep appreciation to those who have offered such kindness, support and messages of sympathy and comfort.

We especially wish to thank Marie Holt and Barrett Home Health for the special care. We also send our thanks and appreciation to Kirk and staff at Orthopedic Rehab. It is hard to put into words the recognition we would like to give Dr. Judith Wilson for the medical and personal dedication, devotion, and persistence to deliver the best total care anyone could ever expect or be fortunate enough to receive. We also express our gratitude to Dr. Hunt for his help, thoughtfulness & visits of support and friendship. Special thanks as well to Elkhorn Hot Springs, our favorite place, for the memorial gathering and those who spent the time to come share your wonderful memories with his friends and family.

Nonfiction Reading Group

The Dillon Public Library's Nonfiction Reading Group will meet on Tuesday, June 7, 2016 at 7:00 p.m. in the Library's basement programming room to discuss Timothy Egan's book The Immortal Irishman: The Irish Revolutionary Who Became an American Hero. The reading group is open to the public, and copies of the book are available for checkout at the Library in both hard copy and electronic format. Copies are also available for sale at The Bookstore, 26 North Idaho Street.

Timothy Egan, bestselling author and winner of the National Book Award, has written an epic story of one of the most fascinating and colorful Irishman in nineteenth-century America. The Irish-American story is told through the improbable life of one man. A dashing young orator during the Great Famine of the 1840s, in which a million of his Irish countrymen died, Thomas Francis Meagher led a failed uprising against British rule, for which he was banished to a Tasmanian prison colony. He escaped and six months later was heralded in the streets of New York — the revolutionary hero, back from the dead, at the dawn of the great Irish immigration to America. Meagher's rebirth in America included his leading the newly formed Irish Brigade from New York in many of the fiercest battles of the Civil War. Twice shot from his horse while leading charges, left for dead in the Virginia mud, Meagher's dream was that Irish-American troops, seasoned by war, would return to Ireland and liberate their homeland from British rule. The hero's last chapter, as territorial governor of Montana, was a romantic quest for a true home in the far frontier. His death has long been a mystery to which Egan brings haunting, colorful new evidence. (goodreads.com)

There are two additional titles lined up for monthly discussions (July and August) and copies of those items are available for checkout. Stop by the Library to find out more about the group and the titles scheduled for discussion. We invite everyone to consider joining this book discussion group. It is free and open to the public. See you @ the Library!

BCHS TENNIS

MAYFAIR INVITATIONAL

The Mayfair tennis invitational May 6 and 7 in Billings introduced a new format for the boys and girls event. Only three sites were used for the two day competition, which hosted 8 schools. Requiring shortened matches where all sets began at 2-2-scoring and a 10 point tie breaker if a 3rd set was needed. Also the roster carried only #1 and #2 singles players (rather than #1-4) and four sets of doubles rather than the usual three.

The Dillon girls defeated all six schools (Billings Central, Lewistown, Hardin, Glendive, Miles City and Cody, WY)
