Councilman Quits

By; MJ

Resignation: Mr. Seamus Manley submitted a letter of resignation from his position as a councilman that represented Ward 4. The letter is available to the public if you are interested.

Who was he: Seamus came to meetings prepared for what was on the agenda to be discussed or voted on. He brought to the council a breath of fresh air through the eyes of a young man. He was always cordial and cognizant of the fact that he was a councilman representing the people and not himself.

Time meetings held: Many of the committee meetings are held at 4:00 in the afternoon. Mr. Manley is a young man that is supporting a family via a day job. Meetings held at four (4) are difficult for members of committees and also the public to attend. One of the councilman felt Mr. Manus should be at meetings even if they were held during working hours. Maybe the solution to the problem would have been for the meetings to be held after 5:00 p.m. thus making it possible for members and public to attend.

Advantages & Rewards: An advantage to holding meetings during working hours may or may not be, that there will be few if any public members attending. This would make for short meetings and your own way to succeed. Yes, it can be a thankless job to sit on committees and hold public positions. It can also be very rewarding to support your community.

NOTE: Anyone who has ever sat on committees knows that when you have done your homework and come prepared, you will probably upset others on the committee who might not be as prepared. Humans have a rotten habit of blaming someone else instead of looking at themselves for the origin of problems and finding the solution.

Dillon Public Library – Teddy Bears' Picnic

Calling all Teddies! On Thursday morning, May 26th, Dillon Public Library is sponsoring a Teddy Bears' Picnic. This picnic marks the end of the Library's regular Thursday morning Books and Babies sessions. We close out the year for the little ones (preschool age, 36 months and under) with a picnic for them and their teddy bears. Have your child bring their favorite bear (or stuffed toy) and join us for an hour of fun! We will picnic in the Jaycee Park, leaving from the Library at 10:00 am. In case of inclement weather, the picnic will be held in the library's basement programming room.

A picnic lunch will be served. This event is free and open to all, but you must RSVP by Wednesday, May 25th at 5:00 pm, so that we can plan to have enough food for everyone. Please call the Library to let us know you're coming: 683-4544

Books and Babies early literacy sessions will resume in the fall. Meanwhile, see you @ the Library!

MONTANA WESTERN FOUNDATION SELECTS FIRST RECIPIENT FOR HISTORY SCHOLARSHIP

University of Montana Western junior Cody Ottman was recently selected as the first recipient of the James P. Kovatch and the Sons and Daughters of Montana Pioneers Scholarship.

The scholarship benefits Montana Western history education students.

"The Kovatch scholarship is a generous gift toward the academic pursuits of our history education students," Foundation Director Roxanne Engellant said. "This scholarship will ensure that students like Cody have access to high quality educational experiences." Kovatch approached Montana Western about creating a scholarship after watching a television ad for Experience One (X1). He was intrigued by Montana Western's unique approach to learning in which students take a single class at a time for 18 days before moving on to the next.

Kovatch's longtime friend and Montana Western alumnus Jeanette Larson helped direct him to the UMW Foundation to inquire about setting up a scholarship. Larson graduated from then Western Montana College with a degree in elementary education in 1966 and is a Sons and Daughters of Montana Pioneers (SDMP) member along with Kovatch. She also serves as the SDMP's historian.

The SDMP is an exclusive organization featuring members who can verify their ancestors settled in what was then Montana Territory prior to Dec. 31, 1868. As a lifelong history buff, Kovatch was particularly interested in creating a scholarship for history students. His own Montana ancestors can be traced back to 1864.

"It's important to involve young people in perpetuating Montana's history," Kovatch said. "I'm pleased to donate toward the education of tomorrow's historians and those who will preserve the stories of our rich history."

Ottman, a 2013 graduate of Helena High School, is studying history at Montana Western and plans to become a high school history teacher and coach.

Ottman has been on the dean's list since he came to Montana Western in 2013. He participates in extracurricular activities including intramural basketball, Catholic Campus Ministry and he is a member of the Montana Officials Association, which allows him to officiate high school football games.

"I look forward to student teaching in Spring 2017 and then graduating with a degree in history," Ottman said. "The generous scholarship started by Mr. Kovatch will help make my goal of becoming a Montana high school history teacher possible and for that I am grateful."

Free Lunches for Children 0-18

Your Dillon Schools will again be providing an exciting opportunity for children this summer. We will be distributing FREE lunches and breakfasts to all children, 18 and under. These "pre-made meals" will be distributed at the YMCA on Swenson Drive from 11:30-12:30 every day, Monday through Friday beginning Monday, June 6th at no cost to any child, age 18 and under, who shows up to receive one. Children may choose to sit on the grass at the Y and eat or they can take their lunch with them and go home, it's up to them.

Again, there is NO COST for this program. All anyone has to do to get a meal is show up. That being said, we need your help. If you plan to send your child(ren) for meals each day, please notify the school as soon as possible of your intent so that we have an accurate count. We want to be sure that every child that needs a meal, gets one.

Please call me at 406-683-4311 if you have any questions and thank you for your help in our making sure that NO child goes hungry this summer.

Vote for Brooke Erb

Brooke Erb is seeking the Republican nomination for HD72. I enthusiastically endorse her and ask for your vote! Over the past few years I have come to know Brooke as a strong conservative and as someone who cares deeply about the people of Montana and the people of her district. Following the 2015 legislative session, Brooke was selected to be one of the four public members of the Montana Environmental Quality Council (EQC). Brooke's appointment to the EQC demonstrates a level of confidence in her abilities to serve the citizens of Montana.

Among other responsibilities, the EQC develops and recommends state policies to the governor and the legislature and analyzes legislative proposals. The experience Brooke has gained on the EQC has given her an inside view of the legislative process, ensuring she will be ready to hit the ground running when the legislative session begins in 2017. I wholeheartedly echo the confidence the state of Montana has shown by its appointment of Brooke Erb to the prestigious EQC and encourage a vote for Brooke Erb for HD72.

Nancy Ballance,
Representative HD87, Hamilton

Letter to the Editor

It's no secret that I'm a huge Bernie Sanders supporter. I love the guy and think he's the only presidential candidate who's interested in addressing the serious problems our country, and our world, face.

But a few days ago, as a sort of thought experiment, I made a list of things that Bernie did NOT do, but which, IF HE HAD done them, would cause me not to support him. At first it was a long list, but I've narrowed it down here to five items.

1. Bernie didn't vote to authorize war with Iraq in 2002. In fact, he specifically warned Americans, in making his no vote, about the destabilizing after-effects of this war, which so far has cost more than $2 trillion dollars, more than 4,500 American lives and many more life-altering injuries, and nearly a million Iraqi lives. The war shows no signs of ending soon.
2. Bernie didn't praise the 2009 military coup in Honduras as being "a victory for democracy," despite its being strongly objected to by the United Nations and the Organization of American States. This coup overthrew the democratically elected government of Manuel Zelaya and replaced it with a regime connected with organized crime and in the pockets of international corporations, including one that is suspected of murdering environmental activist Berta Caceres. Violent crime and corruption are now so prevalent in Honduras that whole families, in fear of their lives, have sought refuge in America. Bernie didn't then say that these men, women, and children escaping Honduras should be turned away at the border and sent back.

3. Bernie didn't take $21 million in "speaking fees" from the likes of Goldman Sachs , Citigroup, and Deutsche Bank between 2013-2015. During the same period, his spouse (Jane) didn't take another $5.9 million in speaking fees from these same big banks. And he didn't then refuse to release the transcripts of what he said to the bankers in these lucrative speeches -- because he didn't make any. Remember, these are the same investment bankers whose wildly irresponsible, borderline illegal behavior led to the economic crash of 2008.

4. Bernie's not well liked by the rich and powerful, so he didn't have Hollywood millionaire George Clooney host a fundraiser for him in March at which couples paid $353,400 to sit at the head table with Clooney and himself. He didn't rake in, between February and March, $75 million dollars from forty-eight high-ticket fundraisers in nineteen states. For example, on May 11 and May 12, he didn't attend three $100,000- per-head fundraisers, one of them hosted by Lynn Forester de Rothschild. That's right, Rothschild. His campaign money has come from small donations made by ordinary people.

5. An environmentalist who helped his home state ban fracking in 2014, Bernie didn't, in 2012, bring the full weight of the State Department to pressure Bulgaria, Romania, and other countries to accept five-year fracking contracts with Chevron Oil. Because he's not friendly with the big oil and gas companies, Bernie's superpac didn't accept $6.9 million dollars from lobbyists, bundlers, and large donors connected to the fossil fuel industry. Oh wait, he doesn't even have a superpac!

Fortunately, since Bernie didn't do any of the things I've listed here, I can still support him. Honestly, it's amazing to me that any presidential candidate calling himself a Democrat could have done any of them.

Early Morning Seminary Graduating Seniors

Just Before Sunrise and School: 71 LDS High School Students in Southwest Montana attend Early Morning Seminary Program. Dillon Seniors, Allison Anderson and Kelton Lochridge Among 10 Graduating Seniors

Beaverhead County High School senior, Kelton Lochridge, joined 10 Southwest Montana Latter-day Saint Youth in graduating from the LDS Early Morning Seminary Program, Sunday, May 22nd in Butte.

At 5:45 a.m. while many young women and men are still asleep, 71 high school students from 9th-12th grade in eight communities around the Butte area are waking up in preparation for Early Morning Seminary. Youth meet at different church meetinghouses for 50 minutes each weekday during the school year to study scriptures. This year students studied the Old Testament. Classes are taught by a volunteer teacher from the local church congregation. These volunteer teachers give approximately 20 hours of service each week to teach these students (averaging one hour of class time and three hours of preparation time for each class, held five days a week).

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints first held seminary classes in 1912 at Granite High School in Salt Lake City. Since then the program has grown to a total enrollment this year of 407,971 students in 133 countries throughout the world and in every state in the United States. In Southwest Montana these classes are held in Butte, Dillon, Anaconda, Deer Lodge, Phillipsburg, Drummond, Whitehall, Sheridan and Lima. The purpose of the seminary program is to help youth understand and rely on the teachings and Atonement of Jesus Christ, and to apply these teachings into their daily lives.

Senior seminary student Emma Spears of Deer Lodge was asked how seminary helped her at school. She gave the following response: "Aside from the spiritual aspect, we are able to get our day started early so that we are already wide awake and ready to learn by the time first period comes around." Emma continued, "Our teachers are two of the sweetest, most selfless, most dedicated and most kind hearted people I have ever met. They spend hours preparing each day to teach us and sacrifice their early mornings to wake up and come teach us every single day. Seminary is a wonderful, and inspired program."

Seminary students are encouraged to study scriptural text on their own and memorize 100 scriptural passages referred to as "scripture mastery." In order to graduate from Seminary, students must complete 4 years of Seminary, have at least a 75 percent attendance record, have read the scriptural text for the year, and passed an assessment test for each year. This year there will be eight high school seniors who graduated from the Seminary program in Southwest Montana.

2016 Early Morning Seminary Graduates in Southwest Montana
(Butte Montana Stake of the LDS Church):

Madyson Beagley, Twin Bridges
Garrett Briggs, Whitehall
Joshua Cox, Butte
Kyle Komm, Butte
Riley LeDoux, Butte
Kelton Lochridge, Dillon
Allison Anderson, Dillon
Shianne Ninefeldt, Butte
Bailey Oxnam, Anaconda
Emma Spears, Deer Lodge

The LDS Early Morning Seminary Program is open to all high-school aged youth who seek to learn more about Jesus Christ and have in-depth scriptural study in a classroom setting. Visit with an LDS friend or neighbor for more information on attending Seminary.
