Grandfather Policy ????????

By: MJ

According to zoning commission members stated at the May 21, 2015 zoning committee meeting it was the committee's intent to have the existing structures in the community have Grandfather Rights

It seems at the last May zoning meeting the committee ok'ed the building of a structure even though it does not comply with the zoning document. The reason given was that the foundation for the structure had been poured before the zoning document was adopted so therefore it was grandfathered. Question: What happens when the owner goes to put in the sidewalks that are required? Will they be grandfathered in also? Question: Would it be advisable for the committee to make some corrections to the existing document defining what grandfathering means.

When we start a selection process we run into a preference process. Human instinct. This document seems to have many problems. EXAMPLE: What about the folks that wanted to build a room onto their home that was built years ago and complied with regulations at the time it was built. They were denied because of setback requirements.

Instead of going full steam ahead to enforce a document that may or may not be defensible should the committee back up, take some time, and fix the document making it fit the existing community? Work with what the community needs now and have long term plans to change to fit future growth. Don't count your chicks before they hatch. Work on a document that supports the economy of community.

Grandfather policy: is a provision in which an old rule continues to apply to some existing situations, established structures while a new rule will apply to all future changes. Grandfather rights or acquired rights can be defined in many ways. Question: Of Grandfather Rights are not defined in the document then do the property owners have them?

Intent: the thing that you plan to do or achieve: an aim or purpose. Example: intent on finishing her sculpture in time for the group show. Question: If the word "intent" it is not clearly defined in the document then is it enforceable?

30th through June 3rd, 2016.

There was no school yesterday in observance of Memorial Day.
School will resume today, May 31st. Also, our last day of school for the year is this Friday, June 3rd. We will have an early out, with students being dismissed at noon.

The lunch menu for the week is as follows: Tuesday, we will have BBQ beef sandwiches and cabbage salad, and on Wednesday we will have a chicken patty on a bun with trimmings. Thursday, we will enjoy a hot dog on a bun with pork and beans, and veggie dippers, and Friday only a grab and go breakfast will be available.

Today, Tuesday, May 31st, is 8th grade graduation. Eighth graders have a mandatory meeting at the BW Lodge Gymnasium at 9:00 a.m. They will rehearse for graduation and receive their report cards. Graduation will begin at 7:00 pm at the BW Lodge Gymnasium, however, the class picture will be taken at 6:30 p.m.
sharp. Please arrive by 6:15 pm. The public is welcome to attend!!
Students, please dress appropriately according to our dress code.
Additionally, you may NOT wear jeans or t-shirts. The 8th grade graduation dance will begin after the ceremony at the DMS gym.
Only graduating 8th graders will be allowed to attend.

Congratulations to Peter Gibson for becoming this year's Williams for the great contest. Last week the Garden Club made window boxes to take home. Thanks to Mr. Cooper for facilitating this.

Last Wednesday, Dillon Middle School 8th grade students got grade football players. Many of the students came out to watch and fun was had by all. Madalyn Shipman scored the first touchdown, but in the end, the game was a tie - 14 to 14.

This Thursday, June 2nd, the 6th graders will be going to the Lewis and Clark Caverns. They will be gone from 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Permission slips have gone home with students and must be returned ASAP.

This is the last Dillon Middle School News for the year, but here are some important reminders for this summer...

Please remember the benefit for Kim and Tammy Baker this Saturday, June 4th. It will be at the National Guard Armory at 5:00 pm. Cost for the buffet meal is $10 or $25 per family. There is both a silent and live auction. Please come and support these Dillon friends who have given us so much.
