City dollars distributed how?

By: MJ

We have been seeing the city crews doing work around town on the water system, pot holes, grading alleys... They have a short window of time to get the work done. Within the city you departments: Street and Alley, Parks, Health/Welfare, Water/Sewer, Cemetery...

The money the city receives from taxes, gas tax and other funds is all the money there is to spend within that year. Each year the street and alley, water & sewer department along with all other departments, submit a budget to the mayor. The treasurer, mayor work, office staff and other city personnel with each department to evaluate each budget submitted. Then depending on the money available in the pot the departments are allocated funds that establish their budgets. When you see work being done on, French Drains, Alleys being graded, Intersection Repairs and etc., the expenses for the project is coming out of the budgets that were created at beginning of year.

Alleys: As the budget allows the city is working on fixing alleys. If you have an alley that needs repairs notify Director of Operations or city personnel. Remember that all alleys cannot be done in one year.

Intersections: You may or may not have seen the city digging up intersections. REASON is; to fix them so that they don't take the undercarriage out of your automobile when you pass over them and so the city does not have to spend money year after year doing the same repairs. When the streets were built there was only one (1±) inches of asphalt laid down and should have been at least three (3±) inches of asphalt. The asphalt was put on over only a foot or so of gravel. Under the gravel is 8± inches of clay. The clay layer freezing and thawing is a large part of the street and intersection problems the people deal with year after year. The city crews are removing the clay, replacing with gravel and will lay asphalt down later this year when hot mix plant is operating. The expense of this work has all been figured into the Street & Ally budget that was set at the beginning of the year.

French Drains: The drains have not been cleaned for a long period of time and they are filled with a buildup of hard packed silt. Cleaning requires digging down and removing that silt. When all is did and done it will help the runoff of water in the street to drain off efficiently. I understand the city is cleaning drains on the east side of town at this time.

NOTE: The city has leased an excavator to dig the intersections up. The excavator is operated by a qualified city employee. The city crews have been doing all the work themselves.

4th Of July Trivia Continued: 15 Fun Things To Know About Independence Day

5. Most of the Founding Fathers agreed that July Fourth is the correct day to celebrate America's independence from Great Britain -- except one. Who is it and why?

Adams thought July 2, the day the Second Continental Congress voted in Philadelphia to declare independence from Britain, would be the day patriots celebrated. "The Second Day of July 1776, will be the most memorable Epoch, in the History of America," Adams wrote on July 3. "It ought to be solemnized with Pomp and Parade, with Shews, Games, Sports, Guns, Bells, Bonfires and Illuminations from one End of this Continent to the other from this Time forward forever more."

6. When did the Fourth of July become a legal federal holiday?

1870. Then, in 1938, Congress reaffirmed the holiday to make sure all workers received full pay.

7. Is there something written on the back of the Declaration of Independence?

Yes! It's said the following is written upside down and backwards: "Original Declaration of Independence dated 4th July 1776." It's not known who wrote it, or when. In Revolutionary War years, parchment was rolled up, so this probably served as a message.

8. The Nathan's Fourth of July Hot Dog Contest has become an annual tradition. How did it start?

It's a pretty cute story: Legend has it that four immigrants got into an argument over who was most patriotic. To prove themselves, they ate as many hot dogs as they could handle -- because nothing says America like excess.

9. America isn't the only nation that celebrates the Fourth of July. Which other countries do, and why?

It might sound odd, but if you celebrate the Fourth of July outside the U.S., you still might see fireworks in Denmark, England, Norway, Portugal and Sweden. This is because thousands of people emigrated to the U.S. in the early 1900s. Some European celebrations on the Fourth take place near tourist destinations -- to attract U.S. travelers -- or near American military bases.

10. When were fireworks first used to celebrate July Fourth?

1777. Congress chose fireworks as a way to celebrate the first anniversary. They were ignited over Philadelphia. The celebration also included bonfires and bells.

11. How many people lived in the U.S. when the Declaration was signed?

2.5 million.

12. What baseball player threw a 4-0 no-hitter against the Boston Red Sox on July 4, 1983?

New York Yankees pitcher Dave Righetti. It was the first no-hitter in 27 years.

13. Which newspaper first printed the Declaration of Independence?

The Pennsylvania Evening Post

14. Which president first held a Fourth of July celebration at the White House?

Thomas Jefferson

15. Which country gained independence from the United States on July Fourth?

The Philippines did in 1946.

Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF Offers Abundance of July 4 Recreation Opportunities

As the July 4th holiday approaches, the Forest Service would like to remind those who are planning for the holiday weekend that there are great places throughout the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest to visit. The forest has over 3,200 miles of trails, 76 campgrounds, picnic and recreation areas, as well as being home to the Anaconda Pintler Wilderness and the Lee Metcalf Wilderness.

Among the traditional camping, hiking and fishing activities, visitors are known to also enjoy wildflower viewing, photography, exploring the back country and a multitude of family activities. Additionally, there are 25 rustic cabins available throughout the forest for rent during the summer and fall hunting season. Go to www.recreation.gov to find out more and to reserve a cabin or a campsite.

Before you plan your trip, check for current road, trail and campground conditions by contacting the Forest Service, or go online to www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf, always check to see what the current weather conditions are and go prepared for changing conditions. Visitors are cautioned to stay on the road to avoid getting stuck or starting wildland fires and to pay attention to road closed signs.

Many trails may not be open at higher elevations due to snow, high water or trees that have fallen across trails. Please stay on the trail and do not create new trails to get around hazards. Trail users should expect many trails to be impassable from fallen trees.

Visitors are also asked to be careful when recreating in the forest due to the potential for trees to fall. Here are a couple of handy tips:

- Be aware of your surroundings and avoid dense patches of dead trees.
- Trees can fall without warning; place tents and park vehicles in areas where they will not be hit if a tree falls;
- Stay out of the forest when there are strong winds that could blow down trees, especially in areas where there has been fires or stands of trees that have been killed by bugs.
- If you are already in the forest when winds kick up, head to a clearing out of reach of any potential falling trees.

Bears, both black bears and grizzlies, are out and about. Keep your camp clean and store food out of reach of all animals. The Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF requires all food and other items that might attract bears to be stored where bears can't access them at night and during the daytime when food and attractants are not attended. 'Attended' means that a person is physically present within 100 feet and in direct sight of the food or carcass. While attended, food and attractants do not have to be stored. To find out more about bear safety and links to certified bear resistant products go online to the Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF web page at www.fs.usda.gov/bdnf.

The Forest has a bear-resistant container loaner program to help forest visitors comply with food storage regulations. Forest visitors can check out a variety of bear-resistant containers such as horse panniers, backpacking "bear barrels" and the popular yet cost-prohibitive bear-resistant coolers for their planned outings. There is a limited supply of these containers, so contact your local Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF office for details.

Visitors are cautioned to be extremely careful with fire, fuels such as grass, shrubs and trees are beginning to dry out.

Fireworks are prohibited in National Forests. Fireworks and dry grass and trees are a bad combination. Never leave a campfire unattended. Make sure your campfire is extinguished completely and the coals are cool to the touch before you leave.

Human caused fires are one of the factors fire officials use to determine if fire restrictions are necessary. Currently, there are no fire restrictions in effect in SW Montana. However, weather and fuel conditions can change quickly. To stay up to date with fire restrictions go on-line to <http://firerestrictions.us>.

For more information, call the nearest Forest Service office to the area you wish to visit.

THRIFT STORE MANY NEW ITEMS

AGAIN THIS WEEK: Because of the generosity of the residents of Beaverhead County, the Animal Shelter Thrift Store on Center in downtown Dillon is over-flowing with new and slightly used household items. In order to make room for the items in storage, they are having a buy one/get one sale again this week. Buy one item and get another of equal or lower price for free. The Store will be open Tuesday through Friday from 10-4. Come by this week to get some better than average bargains. All the proceeds from the sale of these items goes to support the Animal Shelter. They are still looking for volunteers to help keep the Store open longer hours. Contact Judy Carlson at 660-0683 if you can help.

"BARRETT HOSPITAL FOUNDATION THANKS PINK ZONE VOLUNTEERS"

Barrett Hospital Foundation wishes to thank all of the volunteers who spent time organizing the Pink Zone Wine Tasting, silent and live auction, and supplemental events in February to benefit the Southwestern Montana Mammography Program. The Mammography Program provides free breast-health services to uninsured and underinsured women in Southwestern Montana. Barrett Hospital Foundation is deeply grateful for the generous support the community of Dillon has given the Program. The Pink Zone events raised $9,000 this year, which will directly benefit women in our community.

For more information about the Southwestern Montana Mammography Program, please call Barrett Hospital Foundation at (406) 683-6737.
