Business Licenses

By: MJ

Judiciary Committee meeting on June 22, 2016 the business license Ordinance and Resolution was discussed. The meeting was held in the evening to allow the public and business owners to attend and help the committee decide if it was practical to create a business license.

There was only one business owner present. It was discussed that the meeting was not advertised in prominent places or on the radio giving the businesses a heads up. The city posts meetings on the bulletin boards outside and inside of city hall, at the library and the meeting agenda in the paper.

Councilman Straugh stated the fees received from the business license can only be used for administrative expenses according to state law and the he was in favor of the business license. He stated that if there was a business licenses then the police and fire department would know what type of business was in a building...

Councilman Nye said he had concerns about a business license. He does not feel people should be charged for licenses by the city and also the chamber.

Councilman Hand did not feel a business license registry list would be of any benefit.

Business Owner: Joan Grogan was the only business owner present. She was concerned why the business fee was needed because the city had the same information via the water statements. She spoke of the economy in Dillon and expressed concern over the suggested fees listed. Being the only business owner present I am not sure how much weight what she had to say carried with the committee.

Public Citizen. Mr. McCray, a public citizen donated his time and created a list of 200± business in town to give the committee and idea of what type and where businesses were located. The committee took the list and thanked Mr. McCray.

Fees: The suggested fee schedule attached to the resolution varied from $20.00 to $100.00.

Questions that should be answered before imposing a fee. 1) Is this taxation without representation? 2) How much money will the license fee bring in? 3) What type of businesses are licensed through the State and Chamber? 4) Where the money will be used? 5) Will the city offer anything to the businesses, like pamphlet defining type of business in area that could be used as promotion mailers by the, in exchange for the license?

Future Meeting: There was no decision made on whether there would or would not be a license. There will be future meeting if you are interested or have concerns. You always have option of contacting your council representative, the mayor or write a letter to the city.

Editors Note: That last meeting I attended on this subject there were 3 business owners at the meeting and a couple citizens. It was stated that the money could only cover the administrative cost - and the employees are now busy - they may have to hire someone to make a list. Once the list is made? The employee does what until there is a business change? Is this to create a position? It is stated that it is to let the police and fire department have a contact in case of an emergency. It would also let the city know what types of businesses are in town. What about all the businesses outside the city limits? Why would they not want those also?

ALERT: FISHING RESTRICTIONS ON UPPER BIG HOLE & LOWER MADISON EFFECTIVE YESTERDAY
 Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is alerting the public to fishing restrictions on the Big Hole and Madison Rivers effective Thursday, June 30 as a result of high water temperatures. Restrictions on other southwest Montana rivers are likely in the near future.
 The restrictions beginning Thursday will close the following rivers to fishing daily from 2 p.m. to midnight until conditions improve:
 • The Big Hole from Saginaw Bridge on Skinner Meadows Road to the Mouth of the North Fork Big Hole River
 • The Madison River from Ennis Dam to the Mouth
 Regional Fisheries Manager Travis Horton says biologists are keeping a close eye on all area rivers as we continue to see above average temperatures and low flows.

"The snowpack melted extremely early this year and river flows around the state are suffering early. This coupled with warm weather has resulted in conditions stressful to fish," says Horton.
 As restrictions are implemented, FWP recommends anglers seek out opportunities for fishing waters less susceptible to fish kills (i.e. high mountain lakes and reservoirs).

ADDITIONAL FISHING RESTRICTIONS ON SW MONTANA RIVERS

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks has announced fishing restrictions on additional sections of the Big Hole River, the lower Ruby, lower Beaverhead, Jefferson, and lower Gallatin Rivers effective Friday, July 1 at 2 p.m. as a result of high water temperatures.

The restrictions beginning Friday will close the following rivers to fishing daily from 2 p.m. to midnight until conditions improve:

- The Big Hole from the the Mouth of the North Fork Big Hole River to Dickie Bridge
- The Big Hole from Notch Bottom Fishing Access Site to the Mouth
- The Beaverhead from Anderson Lane to the Mouth
- The Ruby from Duncan District Road to the Mouth
- The Gallatin from Shed's Bridge Fishing Access Site to the Mouth

Additional restrictions are possible on other stretches of these or other southwest Montana rivers in the coming weeks.

Regional Fisheries Manager Travis Horton says FWP is keeping close track of weather, but the main concern is for the health of the fishery.

"Although a slight cool off occurred on Thursday, the temperatures for the holiday weekend are forecast continued hot and dry. Fish, Wildlife and Parks wants to err on the side of caution for protecting trout populations against additional stress during this period of hot and dry weather," said Horton.

And while FWP is putting restrictions on when people can fish these stretches of rivers, Regional Supervisor Sam Sheppard said, "These rivers are still open for a great fishing experience, anglers just need to adjust their timing so as not to cause the extra stress we're concerned about."

Restrictions remain in place for the following stretches of southwest Montana rivers:

- The Big Hole from Saginaw Bridge on Skinner Meadows Road to the Mouth of the North Fork Big Hole River
- The Madison River from Ennis Dam to the Mouth

How did the Fourth of July become a national holiday?

For the first 15 or 20 years after the Declaration was written, people didn't celebrate it much on any date. It was too new and too much else was happening in the young nation. By the 1790s, a time of bitter partisan conflicts, the Declaration had become controversial. One party, the Democratic-Republicans, admired Jefferson and the Declaration. But the other party, the Federalists, thought the Declaration was too French and too anti-British, which went against their current policies.

By 1817, John Adams complained in a letter that America seemed uninterested in its past. But that would soon change.

After the War of 1812, the Federalist party began to come apart and the new parties of the 1820s and 1830s all considered themselves inheritors of Jefferson and the Democratic-Republicans. Printed copies of the Declaration began to circulate again, all with the date July 4, 1776, listed at the top. The deaths of Thomas Jefferson and John Adams on July 4, 1826, may even have helped to promote the idea of July 4 as an important date to be celebrated.

Celebrations of the Fourth of July became more common as the years went on and in 1870, almost a hundred years after the Declaration was written, Congress first declared July 4 to be a national holiday as part of a bill to officially recognize several holidays, including Christmas. Further legislation about national holidays, including July 4, was passed in 1939 and 1941.

Ruby Range
A geological point found amidst a triangle...

Ruby Range was formed in early Spring 2016 combining the diverse musical talents and interests of Verna Love, Geoff Roach and Janalee Bousman. While Geoff and Verna played together for several years in the local band BlackTail, it took just one session with Jana to discover something adding up to more than the sum of parts.

This trio shares a love for making great music featuring rich vocal harmonies and just enough instrumentation. With roots in rock, soul and gospel, Ruby Range also enjoys bringing its own sound to country, western, jazz, R&B and pop tunes.

Tapping toes and dancing happen when we play. We can bring a tear to eye as well. We love that kind of connection with our audiences. It doesn't get any better than that for us. Thanks and we hope you enjoy listening as much as we do playing.

For booking information please contact Jana Bousman at
