Montana Shrine Game Captains Picked

The West team in Saturday's Montana East-West Shrine Game at Montana Tech will be led by captains Nate Simkins, Luke May, Cole Rosling and Jace Lewis. Be sure to be there for the kickoff of the 70th Montana Shrine Game that will be Saturday at 7 p.m. Nate is a 5-foot-11, 155-pound receiver from Dillon who will continue his football career for his hometown Montana Western Bulldogs.

OFFICERS JUSTIFIED

Beaverhead County Sheriff's Deputy Michael Miles was justified in the shooting of a young Dillon man according to inquest jurors this week. The shooting took place in November of 2015 after a traffic stop. Body camera and dash camera video showed Andrew Blake getting out of his truck, returning to his truck and getting a rifle and refused to put down the rifle after officer Miles asked. Blake had been drinking and his blood alcohol level was three times the legal limit.

Friends of Blakes that saw him that night testified that he was intoxicated and suicidal. The girlfriend of his friend call 911 to report him as a drunk driver after they had tried to calm him down and they had taken his keys at one point that night.

Miles testified that he saw Blake's parked truck and had a terrible feeling after the dispatcher had reported a possible drunk driver who was suicidal. Blake followed officer Miles commands to start with but then returned to his truck for the rifle. He said that Blake began to turn towards him and he thought he was "out of options" and shot.

The cameras sound records Miles begging Blake to drop the weapon, and Blake telling the deputy that it wasn't his fault. Officer Miles holds Blake's hand and tells him to keep breathing. Office Joe Horrocks consoles Miles at the scene and tell him you did what you had to do.

"I will always wish that he was still here. I know if I could have talked to him I could have helped him," Miles said.

Blake died six days later in a Salt Lake hospital.

A four women and five man jury returned the verdict after seeing and hearing the camera and listening to testimony from witnesses in a coroner's inquest Wednesday.

Sport of Aging

By: MJ

One day you open the front door and in walks "AGE." One might say this was not the not the friendliest or most welcomed guest one could have. AGE brings a trunk full of new challenges like; new ways of doing the daily routines, how to accept a hand up, how to accept a new type of skin texture, joints that are trying to solidify... AGE steps in and reminds us our youth is a by-gone.

AGE can be difficult and stressful often making us negative. When we were young we dressed ourselves, went where we wanted to go, and did what we wanted to do... AGE moved in and now you are asked to swallow your pride, accept that helping hand, go where someone wants you to go and the list continues. Accepting the trials that AGE brings by staying positive and constructive will help us to go a long way on our own power.

POSITIVE: AGE teaches us the art of focused listening. Listening and hearing what someone has to say is constructive, positive and encouraging. Often when people are talking they want people to listen and not speak. Could it be because we are such good listeners that the young think we are senile? Frequently negative remarks are made to an older person, indicating they are confused and don't know what they are talking about, should not be driving...

Have you ever been in a position where a person is giving you a detailed list of advice and all you want is to have them listen so that you can be heard? We all have been there and done that. As we age we realize how valuable listening is however those around us often have not learned that lesson.

It's easy to tear someone down but you have to think to build that same person up. The art of listening is the power that builds

Letter to the Editor

I read the article in the July 14 edition of the Dillonite Daily and I loved it! It conveys what most Americans are thinking going into this election. However I think you need to take it one step further and highlight the other choices people have. Candidates such as Gary Johnson, the Libertarian candidate for president. Because of the 2 party dinosaur system we currently have not much media coverage is given to other party candidates. Furthermore because of the unfair structure around the presidential debates, other candidates must secure 15% in the polls in order to be invited to join the debate. Gary Johnson is close but not quite there. I urge you to look into The Johnson/Weld ticket and shed light on an upcoming edition of your paper, to help educate voters in your community of the choices they have, starting at the top. Thank you!

ALERT: ANGLING RESTRICTIONS ON LOWER BIG HOLE LIFTED EFFECTIVE THURSDAY

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is alerting the public that angling restrictions on the Lower Big Hole River are being lifted effective Thursday, July 14 as a result of cooler weather and recent precipitation. Restrictions remain in place on the lower Gallatin, East Gallatin, and Jefferson Rivers for the near future.

The Hoot Owl restrictions being lifted Thursday are limited to the following section of the Big Hole River:

The Big Hole from Notch Bottom Fishing Access Site to the confluence of the Big Hole River with the Jefferson River

Regional Supervisor Sam Sheppard says in spite of recent cooler temperatures and some much-needed precipitation biologists are keeping a close eye on all area rivers as we expect to continue to see above average temperatures and low flows beginning next week.

For up-to-date information on restrictions related to drought, visit <http://fwp.mt.gov/news/restrictions/>.

Cemetery Walk

The Cemetery Walk will be this Friday, July 15. We will meet in the cemetery at 6:00 pm and hear the stories of three different people. We will start at the yellow balloons. There will be refreshments afterwards. If the weather is bad, it will be moved to the Depot Theater.

RIGHT TURN ONLY

The City of Dillon will be placing RIGHT TURN ONLY signs at the intersection of Tendo and Atlantic streets (street located next to the courthouse) on July 15th, 2016. The purpose of the signage is to make entering Atlantic Street safer for the public. If you have any questions please contact Todd Hazelbaker, Director of Operations, at 406 683-4245 or stop and visit his office at 125 North Idaho Street.

8th Annual Beaverhead Ladies Golf Invitational

Beaverhead Ladies Golf Association invites all lady golfers to participate in the 8th Annual Beaverhead Ladies Golf Invitational on July 23, 2016 at Beaverhead Golf Course. Entry forms can be picked up at Beaverhead Golf Course or found on Facebook by visiting the Beaverhead Ladies Golf Association page. This year's theme is VOTE FOR GOLF and we are giving away lots of prizes. For more information, please contact Lyndee Fogel at 925-1718 or Carly Anderson at 925-1207. Registration is due by July 21, 2016.

A NEED FOR MORE VOLUNTEER STAFF

Summer visitors are once again enjoying the Beaverhead County Museum. As the number of guests increases, there is a need for more volunteer staff. Volunteers help with greeting visitors at the front desk, answering the telephone, tracking gift shop inventory and some simple maintenance tasks. This is truly meaningful work besides being interesting, as the museum has visitors from all over the world. This is a great way to become familiar with the history of Beaverhead County, while helping to maintain the museum with its collections of artifacts and archives that document our past.

If this is work that you think you would enjoy, please call 683-5027 and speak with Jeannie or Lynn for more information.

DO YOU KNOW THE TRUTH ABOUT...What churches believe?

We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is a reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false; (4) truth does not come from any religious group, but from the Bible only.

Ads and literature of many churches proclaim belief in the truth as stated in the Bible, yet there is a vast range of belief regarding many subjects among these "Bible believing" churches.

Note the following variations of beliefs among those who all proclaim to believe and preach the truth: men are, by nature, basically good; everyone goes to heaven when they die; you must believe in Jesus Christ in order to go to heaven; you must be baptized in order to go to heaven; you must be a member of ??? church to go to heaven; if you go to hell you will only be there temporarily; there is an alternative to hell from which you can escape through various means; there is no hell; Jesus Christ did not die for man's sin; Jesus Christ was not the virgin born Son of God; Jesus Christ was not raised from the dead; there is no resurrection; you must perform certain rituals on a regular basis in order to go to heaven; baptism is acceptable by sprinkling, pouring, or immersing; babies must be baptized in order to go to heaven; you are required to pay a tithe to your church to insure your entrance into the presence of God.

In the coming months we will submit evidence concerning each of these subjects, asking of each one, "What does the Bible say?"
