Dinner in the Park - July 21

The Southwest Montana Arts Council is excited to present some smoky blues and smoked barbeque on Thursday, July 21, at Jaycee Park at 6 pm. Smokestack & the Foothill Fury, a blues and rockabilly band from Anaconda, will supply the music and Rotary will serve their famous smoked pit barbeque pork sandwiches. There will also be an art project for kids of all ages.

Smokestack & the Foothill Fury front man Smokey (Jared Yerkes) moved to Anaconda from the Deep South in March 2012. The trio plays authentic, raw blues reminiscent of Muddy Waters, Lightnin' Hopkins and Hasil Adkins.

Rotary's dinner menu includes: smoked pit barbeque pork sandwiches, barbeque baked beans, coleslaw, chips and a slice of watermelon.

The Southwest Montana Arts Council has been advocating, celebrating and nurturing the arts in Southwest Montana since 1994.

WEST WINS SHRINE GAME

What a game it was Saturday in Butte as the West came out after half time and ran away scoring 26 unanswered points to win the football game with a final score of 45-14.

Congrats to Nate Simkins who earned the honors of offensive player of the game. He had 108 yards on five passes and made two touchdowns. In the first half Nate pulled in a short pass but after getting by a tackle he put it into drive and ran for a 74-yard touchdown bringing his team ahead 19-14 with just over a minute to the half.

The East struggled with bad snaps, and plenty of penalties totaling up 120 yards. The West had more scoring opportunities but a two-point conversion failed and a bad snap led to a blocked extra point attempt.

Attorney General Fox Presents Outstanding Crime Victim Advocate Awards

2016 Winners from Helena, Red Lodge, and Glasgow
Attorney General Tim Fox presented three 2016 Outstanding Crime Victim Advocate of the Year awards at a ceremony this morning at the Lewis & Clark Library Community Room in Helena. This year's winners are: Joan Eliel, Investigator/Program Specialist with the Montana Department of Justice in Helena; Mitzi Vorachek, Volunteer Advocate with Domestic and Sexual Violence Services in Red Lodge; and Renee Jones, Victim Witness Specialist with the Glasgow Police Department.

Joan Eliel was nominated by Winona Tanner, Chief Judge of the Confederated Salish & Kootenai Tribal Court. Judge Tanner noted that Joan is the program administrator for Montana's Project Passport, End-of-Life Registry, and address confidentiality programs; she's also the coordinator of Montana's Native American Fatality Review Team. Joan is currently piloting two national projects: the Statewide Automated Victim Information Notification System and the Hope Card Project. The Hope Card Project is a patented approach to enforcement of protection orders and delivery of victim services, and can reduce the time on-scene for officers responding to incidents of protection order violations. Additionally, Hope Cards can provide a sense of security to victims, and allows them to receive potential services more conveniently.

Attorney General Tim Fox said, "Joan has worked tirelessly to promote the benefits of the Hope Card by educating courts, law enforcement, victims, and national organizations on the availability of the cards. She extended the project to the Native American populations, as well as to the tribal courts of Montana. The Hope Card Project would not be a success without the dedication Joan has demonstrated, and she has undoubtedly strengthened relationships between state and tribal agencies and communities."

Mitzi Vorachek's nominators emphasized her 30 years of experience in domestic violence prevention and intervention in Pennsylvania, Texas, and Montana. Her work has included serving victims, developing and conducting training; developing and producing TV programming; public speaking; and conducting domestic violence research. Additionally, Mitzi managed a domestic violence and rape crisis hotline that received nearly 50,000 calls per year.

When Mitzi returned to Red Lodge from Houston in 1998, there were no services in the area for people living in abusive relationships. "Mitzi returned to her home state of Montana intending to retire, but with the experience and skill she gained at the Houston Area Women's Center, it was in her nature to do something to help local victims," Attorney General Fox noted. "So, she started Domestic and Sexual Violence Services, or DSVS, from her home. Mitzi personally hosted a 24-hour helpline and reached out to professionals in the Billings community. Today, with seven employees, DSVS provides services to victims in Carbon and Stillwater Counties, partners with ASPEN in Livingston to provide emergency financial assistance to victims in Park, Sweet Grass, and Meagher Counties, and provides statewide prevention education through its Power Up, Speak Out! Program."

Renee Jones is the Victim Witness Specialist within the Glasgow Police Department. Renee's nominators said she not only gives a voice to victims of domestic violence, but she has also evolved her program to encompass all crime victims. Her nominators added that Renee's previous experience in working with at-risk youth and families in Texas has been extremely beneficial to the rural communities of Northeastern Montana, bringing fresh perspective and insight into local agencies who work with victims.

Renee's timely interaction with crime victims is credited with enhancing information sharing among local agencies. Attorney General Tim Fox said, "Renee's ongoing efforts continue long after offenders have been sentenced. She's attended parole hearings for the victim and followed the offender's progress to make sure that the victim's voice continues to be heard. Renee's selfless dedication to victims and her job has enabled her department to become one of the leaders in domestic violence prosecution in the state. Renee's consistent optimism and kindness do not go amiss as she deals with difficult prosecutions and helps victims make decisions that are the best for themselves."

Summer Reading Grand Finale!

Dillon Public Library's formal Summer Reading Program – Ready, Set, READ! – will draw to a close on Thursday, July 21st with a full schedule of festivities. Summer Readers are asked to gather at 9:45 a.m. in the ShopKo parking lot. Readers will have a police escort moving south on Idaho Street, turning on Glendale and proceeding to the Old Depot Park. All children will be able to participate in various Olympic Games (child style) set up in the park. At 11:00 a.m., the group will move back to the Library yard, where lunch will be served, carnival games will be available to play, and there will be a toy store in the Library basement. At noon, there will be a drawing for a Grand Prize in each of three age groups (6 & under, 7 – 10, and 11 and up). And that will close our summer reading programming. We encourage all parents to fill out a survey to let the Library staff and Board of Trustees hear what you thought of the programming provided to your children this summer.

The Teen and Adult Summer Reading drawings will continue until all food coupons are awarded, so adults and teens can keep putting names in the jars (one for every book read) for weekly drawings. Our thanks go out to the generous businesses which provided meals to give away in this program. All we ask from winners is that they give a great big thank you to these local businesses for supporting our first year of adult and teen summer reading: China Gardens, the River Café, 4-B's Restaurant, Dairy Queen, Taco John's, Mac's Last Cast, The Old Bullpen/Nathan's Hotdogs, and McDonald's.

MONTANA WESTERN RANKED THE BEST COLLEGE IN MONTANA BY MONEY MAGAZINE

The University of Montana Western has been ranked the best college in Montana by Money Magazine in their annual "Best Colleges" report.

Money determined which of the country's roughly 2,000 four-year colleges and universities deliver a great education at an affordable price and help students launch promising careers. In its third year, the Money Magazine 2016-17 national report ranked colleges and universities from 48 states and Washington D.C.

"We are thrilled to have been ranked as the best college in Montana," Chancellor Beth Weatherby said. "The ranking is directly attributed to the success of Experience One. Our students are realizing remarkable success and people are taking notice of our unique approach to education."

Montana Western joins Princeton, Auburn and Duke as among the nation's best universities.

The ranking listed Montana Western's one-of-a-kind Experience One (X1) program among their findings. X1 is Montana Western's innovative block scheduling program where students take a single class at a time, three hours each day for 18 days before moving on to the next. UMW is the only U.S. public four-year university offering block scheduling.

Money Magazine pointed out that Montana Western offers the nation's only four-year degree in natural horsemanship. The program uses an innovative experiential approach to working with horses, turning a student's passion for horses into a successful career.

The report touted the affordable tuition, small class sizes and location of Montana Western as additional reasons why UMW is the best college in Montana.

Along with Experience One, Montana Western maintains small class sizes, boasting a 17:1 student/professor ratio.

Montana Western has experienced tremendous growth under Experience One, including the following measures of success:

UMW's enrollment has increased by 36 percent from 2003 to 2015, outpacing all other four-year campuses in Montana.

In fall 2015 we admitted our largest entering class in our 120-year history.

In spring 2016 we awarded the largest number of degrees in the university's history.

University degrees awarded increased by 135 % in the last 10 years leading all Montana University System institutions.

The ranking took into account the remarkable location of Montana Western as a factor for its distinction. UMW is located within the Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem and is surrounded on three sides by the Continental Divide and seven mountain ranges.
