MONTANA WESTERN PROFESSOR ASSISTS IN CREATION OF NEW K-12 HEALTH STANDARDS

University of Montana Western professor of health and human performance Megan Chilson has assisted in the development and adoption of new health and physical education standards for K-12 public schools in Montana.

Montana's Office of Public Instruction (OPI) health and physical education standards were developed by content experts and educators meant as a guide for teachers, according to the OPI website.

"The last set of standards were adopted 17 years ago, so there was much that needed to be revised and updated," Chilson said. "The new standards are much clearer and easier for school districts to assess and meet the guidelines."

The latest standards, adopted in July 2016, were created to tackle issues such as obesity, type II diabetes and mental health, including modern topics such as cyberbullying.

Chilson has been involved with the effort since 2014, working on the drafting and negotiated rules committee for the revision.

"I was pleased to be a part of this important project that sets policy for the physical and mental well being of Montana's children," Chilson said.

Chilson said she is looking forward to using the new standards in training teachers and seeing the updated policy in action.

LOCAL PHEASANTS FOREVER CHAPTER ANNUAL FUNDRAISER IS AUGUST 27

The Beaverhead County Pheasants Forever Chapter #862 annual dinner, raffle and auction fundraising event is on Sat., Aug. 27 from 5:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Dillon Elks Club.

The event features a slow-roasted beef BBQ dinner, Beaverhead Brewing Company beer, Willies Distillery bourbon and whisky tasting, door prizes, a silent auction, hunting gun raffles, a bucket raffle and live auction. All funds raised stay in Beaverhead County to help the chapter continue its habitat restoration and stewardship work near Poindexter Slough.

This fundraising event promises to be a whole lot of fun for men, women and youth, said Pheasants Forever President Ron Fick. The raffles and auctions will include a ski vacation, gourmet dinners and brunches, spa-type services and, of course, high-end hunting gear, firearms, clothing, as well as hunting and fishing excursions and a special youth elk hunt. We invite Dillon residents to have a great time, while supporting the chapter's local habitat stewardship activities.

Through Beaverhead County and state partnerships, the chapter ensures all funds raised are leveraged to have the most beneficial local impact, added Fick.

To find out more about the event and to purchase dinner/event tickets ($25 for dinner or $55 for dinner and membership), visit <https://squareup.com/store/PFbeaverhead> or call (406) 925-2533. Tickets are limited.

Events like these that raise needed funds for local organizations would not be possible without the generous support of local and Montana businesses and families, said Fick. Our sincere gratitude goes out to ABC/FOX (Butte), the African Oasis, Anderson & Platt Outfitters, the Bank of Commerce, Beaverhead Brewing Company, Bequet Caramels (Bozeman), Big Sky 2 Cinemas, Black Coffee Roasting (Missoula), Brit's Bake Shop, Cabelas (Missoula), Circle 3 Ranch, the Dillon Bookstore, the Dillon Liquor Store, Edward Jones, Frontier Anglers, the Gallery, Inc., Headframe Distillery, Identity Hair & Nail Salon, the Knockabout, KXLF Television, Lakeland Feed & Supply, the Longhorn Roper restaurant, McCoy Spring Ranch, the Milk Pail, Montgomery Distillery, Murdocks Ranch & Home Supply, the Old Hotel, Patagonia, the Pita Pita,
