Don Ray Brackenbury

Don Ray Brackenbury, passed away peacefully on August 11, 2016 with his wife Elaine by his side. Don was born October 7, 1930 to Howard Brackenbury and Rosa Durfee Brackenbury in Almo, Idaho. He was named "Dawn Ray" after the first light of day, but changed the spelling to "Don" He was the third of six children. He attended school in Almo and Elba, but dropped out in the eighth grade to go to work as a cowboy. There were not a lot of cars back then, so they rode horses everywhere they went. His first car was a Model A. Because of where the gas tank was positioned on the car, the only way to go up a hill was in reverse. He was drafted into the Army from March 1951 to March 1953. He liked to tell stories about being in the army. Before they were issued uniforms, he and his buddies marched around in their cowboy boots and hats thinking they were pretty important.

After the Army, Don and his brother Bob rode their horses from Almo to Malta, ID and Naf, UT to attend dances. He met Elaine Olson of Bridge, ID at a dance in Malta. They planned to get married on Don's birthday, but he was stuck out with the wagon building fence and didn't get back in time, so they were married three days later in Elko, NV on October 10, 1953 with Don's mom and dad and brother Bob as witnesses. Bob's main concern during the wedding was that Elaine wouldn't let Don continue to rodeo after they were married. She did.

Don and Elaine had nine kids; four boys and five girls (daughter Pamela passed away at age two). Don worked on various ranches in Idaho, California, Utah, Montana and Nevada. He was good with horses, knew cows and liked to flood irrigate, but he would get "itchy feet" after awhile, and move the family to a new job and a new place. On weekends, Don and Elaine would leave the kids with Elaine's dad while they went to rodeos. Don won several team roping, calf roping and bareback riding buckles.

When Don was 63, he and Elaine "retired" after a horse fell with him and tore his rotator cuff while working at Hagenbarth Livestock in Glen, MT. If you knew Don, you know retirement did not mean slowing down. Because he couldn't use his right arm, he taught himself to rope left handed. He and Elaine moved to Caliente, NV where they helped his son Hank and his wife Joi on their ranch. They later moved to Hank and Joi's ranch in Yerington, NV where they lived until the time of Don's passing.

Don was an avid reader and enjoyed history. He loved to tell stories and wrote a book of short stories, cowboy poetry and memories entitled Cowboy Poetry and Reminiscences which he self published with help from Elaine and his sister Gloria. He was also an enthusiastic gardener and he loved to take his kids and grandkids fishing. Fun things to look forward to when visiting Don were going to hunt arrowheads or to collect pine nuts. He was always ambitious and a hard worker, but he could make a game out of everything so that it didn't seem like work. If you played a game with Don, you played by "Brackenbury Rules" which meant he made up the rules to suit him as he went along. He was a joker and loved to tease, especially Elaine. Until recently, he walked two miles every morning before he did chores.

Don will be missed by all who knew and loved him. A celebration of life will be held on August 27, 2016 in Almo, Idaho. Don's wishes were to have his ashes spread on his walking trail and mountain in Rainbow Canyon at Caliente, NV.

Don is preceded in death by his parents, Howard and Rosa, his sister Betty Matsen, brother Lyle Durfee and daughter Pamela. He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Elaine; brother Bob Brackenbury, Murtaugh, ID; sister Gloria (Dick) Hodge, Heyburn, ID; Myrna Hathaway Chubbuck, ID; children Jesse (Samie) Brackenbury, Lancaster, CA; Debbie Brackenbury, Dillon, MT (children Justin, Kristin Robertson, and Austin); Hank (Joi) Brackenbury, Beatty, NV, (son Jared (Adriana)); Carey Reyes, Dillon, MT, (children Matt (Carly), Luke (Mikaela), Sabrina (Travis) McClure, and Robyn (Danny)); Howard Brackenbury, Butte, MT; Ted (Audrey) Brackenbury Dillon, MT, (children Heather (Trent) Merica, Tyler and Tucker); Stacey Roundy, Dillon, MT, (son Andy Steinle); Brandy Brackenbury, Mountain Home, ID (children Tymeir (Ritchie) Hinkley, and Stevie); eighteen great grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.

ACEs Task Force of Beaverhead County Offers Free Event

What can our community do to assure our children grow up to be healthy adults? Learn more about how Strong Families Build Strong Communities on Tuesday, August 30, 2016 from 5:30-8:00 p.m. in a free presentation at the Beier Auditorium on the University of Montana Western campus.

The evening's presentation focuses on how childhood experiences, both positive and negative, have a significant impact on lifelong health and the potential risks associated with experiencing or perpetrating violence. What factors protect children on their journey to adulthood? Why are protective factors useful? How do we identify where prevention efforts need focused? How can early intervention reduce a child's risk factor from experiencing future victimization?

Julie Fisher will explain what Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) are and how to build self-healing communities. She will provide insight into ACEs, the prevention of ACEs, the import of building resiliency and identifying healing tactics as critical protective factors.

Ms. Fisher is the Juvenile Justice Specialist for the State of Montana. She has shared her knowledge of ACEs and prevention efforts throughout Montana, and for national audiences. Julie represents the Montana Board of Crime Control on the Interagency Coordinating Council for Prevention (ICC) and the Montana Behavioral Initiative (MBI) planning committee.

According to Randy Schipman, Dillon Middle School Principal "We want to provide our children today with all the tools they need to succeed as healthy adults. Strong families are a crucial piece of assuring our children are strong and resilient in dealing with life's current and future challenges."

The Adverse Child Experiences Task Force of Beaverhead County which sponsors "Strong Families Support Strong Communities" is host for this free, informative event for Dillon and southwest Montana. Refreshments and kids' activities will be available.

For more information about the Adverse Childhood Experiences event or the ACEs Task Force of Beaverhead County, please call Melainya Ryan at (406) 683-6106 or Stephanie Vinson at (406) 683-3050.

BULLDOG STUDENTS AND STAFF GIVE BACK TO COMMUNITY

University of Montana Western Bulldog student-athletes and athletic department staff members will take part in the Bulldog Community Service Day this Thursday, Aug. 18 from 8 to 11:30 a.m.

Students and staff will go to 13 different sites helping out with various tasks such as general maintenance, cleaning and organizing. Over 500 service hours will be donated to the community during the day according to Athletic Director Russ Richardson.

Of the 13 organizations receiving help, 10 of them will be off campus. These sites include the Beaverhead County Fairgrounds, Beaverhead County Museum, BSW, Inc, Humane Society of Beaverhead County and others.

The freshmen football players will start a new tradition as well. They, along with others from the campus and community, will transform the "W" hillside letter back into the historic "M" by repositioning the rocks in the newly outlined "M." Once the transition is complete, future classes will help maintain one of the most recognizable landmarks in Dillon every year.

Richardson said he sees the community service day as a great opportunity to give back, as well as build relationships in the community. "It is opportunities like these that help integrate the Bulldogs into the southwest Montana community. We are looking forward to helping out these great organizations and lightening their workloads," Richardson said.

For more information, please call Colin Terrill, sports information/facilities director at 406-683-7419 or email at colin.terrill@umwestern.edu.

LOCAL PHEASANTS FOREVER FUNDRAISER

City Wages cont'ed.

By: MJ

An article I wrote this earlier this week titled "City Wages Paid" was as clear as mud. At the end of the article was a comparison of the mayor's salary to the salaries of Commissioners Rice and McGinley. I showed the mayors wage at $48,947±. That figure was a comparison figure if the mayor received a wage increase. His salary today after deductions is $40,264.53. This does not include the $12,355± retirement and insurance that is paid by the city.

City Treasurer: At the council meeting August 3rd the City Treasurer, Mr. Straus applied for a wage increase. After deductions his salary is $24,373±. This figure does not include retirement and health insurance of 6,000± paid by city. He works part time as the City Treasurer

NOTE: Mr. Straus has work closely with the mayor and been a key player in refinancing three bonds over the last two (2) years that has saved the city over 5 million dollars in interest expense. Along with that savings he has worked to reduce total future bond payments by 8.5 million dollars. These savings are spread out over the duration of debt.

Mr. Straus's letter asking for a wage increase was in the council's packet however I did not hear any discussion or reference to the letter at the meeting. Mr. Straus did receive the 2% wage increase that was given across the board.

If you would like to have a say in the wages of those on the city payroll call your representative on the council. The council has the final say on wages. If you don't know who your representative is, call 683-4245 and ask one of the city secretaries for the information.

Moose Lake Picnic Area Closed for Renovation

Moose Lake Picnic area located approximately 22 miles SW of Philipsburg will be closed Aug. 16 through 30 while renovations conducted by the Anaconda Job Corps are being implemented.

The Moose Lake Picnic area will receive new gravel pathways and new picnic tables will be installed. The closure will expedite the reconstruction, and maintain worker and public safety while this work is conducted.

For more information, contact the Pintler Ranger District office in Philipsburg at (406) 859-3211.

The Harkness Family and Friends

Fans of old Country Western Music will be thrilled to hear The Harkness Family and Friends in concert at 7:00 PM on Friday, August 26th at the Old Depot Theater in Dillon, MT. A benefit for the Beaverhead County Museum, this concert follows a number of performances at the theater in past years by members of the group and multiple appearances at Bannack Days. The audience will be treated to tunes such as San Antonio Rose, Amazing Grace and Your Cheating Heart. Admittance is by donation.

Max Harkness and Leila Kelley, brother and sister, have been playing since they were 9 and 10 years old. They grew up playing the old tunes of the West. Von Glasgo, guitarist, has delighted radio audiences and plays lead with the group along with Leila Kelley. In addition, Gary Kelley will keep the rhythm on bass guitar, Lisa Messick will join Max Harkness on the fiddle and Bill Roesener will play guitar and sing. The group is rounded out with Bea Harkness on the rhythm guitar. Most of the band members belong to the Gem State Fiddlers and donate time to play at retirement centers.

Dillon Rotary Club

Kevin Engellant, "Hook a Kid on Golf" Program Director, will be the featured presenter at the noon Rotary meeting scheduled for Wednesday, August 17, 2016. Kevin will provide an update on the "Hook a Kid on Golf" program that he brought to the Dillon community in 2014. This program is sponsored by the Dillon Kiwanis Club and Community Youth Initiative.

The Rotary Club will meet at the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church located at 203 East Glendale St. in Dillon. Visitors are welcome to join Rotarians for lunch. The presentation is scheduled to begin at approximately 12:20 p.m. For more information, email Craig Rehm at crehm@dadco.com or Roxanne Engellant at engellant@gmail.com.
