MONTANA'S BIGGEST WEEKEND KICK OFF

The Southwest Montana Arts Council will kick off Montana's Biggest Weekend with Movie & Art in the Park on Thursday, September 1, at Jaycee Park.

The family friendly, free event starts at 7:30 p.m. with the creation of cardboard box cars for our younger movie-goers to turn the evening into a 'drive-in.' SMAC will have all the art supplies and a limited number of cardboard boxes. At 8:00, enjoy the short film "Mile for Mile," a fifteen-minute film featuring running and conservation in the Patagonia region of South America. The evening's feature film The Goonies will begin at 8:20. This classic from 1985 tells the story of a group of kids on an adventurous pirate treasure hunt. The film runs one hour and 54 minutes.

There will be free popcorn and water as well as candy and soda for sale. Proceeds benefit the Southwest Montana Arts Council. Thank you to the Dillon Jaycees, Adventure Cycle and Sled and Patagonia for supporting the event.

The Southwest Montana Arts Council has been advocating, celebrating and nurturing the arts in Southwest Montana since 1994. For more information, contact 683-6208 or SMACarts@gmail.com.

btpdillon@qwestoffice.net • (406) 683-9844Letter to the Editor*DOING THE RIGHT THING

Here in the arid west, which includes much of southwest Montana, we continue to support unsustainable policies and practices that require using too much water. The inconvenient truth is we want infinite economic growth while consuming a finite resource.

Most large irrigated farm and ranch operations have state registered water rights, a few going back to the 1860's. Today, some surface water contracts exceed the average flow of the existing source. In layman language this would be called "over-allocated."

So the question is how do we keep our famous trout streams, the Big Hole and Jefferson, from being dewatered by over allocation? In today's dysfunctional political climate more regulations and mandates will not solve the problem. Building more dams and asking irrigators to voluntarily reduce their beneficial use will not work over the long term. If the public wants to ensure our high desert rivers are healthy aquatic ecosystems, we should make it happen by a science based form of habitat management. In effect, it's the right thing to do.

For example; when the Jefferson River calculated flow is reduced to 300 cfs (cubic feet per second), near Twin Bridges, irrigation and float fishing would be shut down, then reopened when river flows improve. This is reasonable habitat management when one considers we live in an area that receives on average 10 inches of rainfall annually.

Some will say this proposal will destroy our way of life and the local economy. They will claim that agriculture is our number one income producer in Madison and Beaverhead counties. Sorry folks. Not true. Dillon's trickle down source of silver is taken from the shallow pockets of government employees. All those hard working city, county, state and federal workers who make up a civilized community are in truth the numero uno nickel poopers. Dillon's supply and demand private sector, retail/food service, is number two followed by the highly subsidized "agri-culture" taking the third place, Bronze.

Madison County, as noted in Russell Rowland's new book, Fifty-Six Counties, depends on agriculture for only 10% of its economy and looks to tourism and wealthy retirees to boost its per capita income, which ranks number 5 in Montana.

So there you have it, Dear Readers, a few basic economic facts that might interest those who want and will participate in habitat management.

In this day and age of man-made, rapid climate change, we should manage our natural resources in a sustainable and renewable manner.

It's not going to be easy. There are people in positions of power who will ignore the consequences of NOT doing the right thing.

- BDNF AmeriCorps partnership project (Silver Bow County) $17,417

In the past five years, the RACs have approved more than $2.2 million in funding for projects that benefit National Forest system lands in these seven counties.

RAC projects must meet established criteria and improve federal lands in the following areas: roads, trails, infrastructure maintenance, soil and forest ecosystem health, watershed restoration, maintenance and improvement of wildlife and fish habitat, control of noxious weeds, and re-establishment of native species. At least 50 percent of all project funds are dedicated to restoring streams and watersheds; or road maintenance, decommissioning or removal. Projects may be on private land, but must show a direct benefit to National Forest System lands. Resource Advisory Committees were established in 2000 under the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act. In addition to approving project funding, the RAC is also dedicated to improving collaborative relationships. Each RAC is chartered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture under the Federal Advisory Committee Act and consists of 15 members representing a wide array of interests. The Southwest Montana and Tri County Resource Advisory Committees do currently have vacancies for members to represent the following interests:

SHOP LOCAL

Hi, this is Judy Siring from Farmers Union Insurance. Several studies have shown that when you buy from an independent, locally-owned business, more of your money is used to make purchases from other local businesses, service providers, and farms....this continues to strengthen the economic base of the community for the good of all who live here.....Remember to always shop local first.....Shop local....be local....

MARKING PARKING SPACES

On August 26th, the City will be marking parking spaces on Montana Street from Helena Street to Reeder Street. Please do not park on the east side of Montana Street that day. On August 29th, the City will be marking parking spots on Idaho Street from Helena Street to Sebree Street. Please do not park on Idaho Street that day. The project will start in the early morning of each day so that interruption to our businesses will be minimal.

NEW SESSION of STRONG PEOPLE

In January, 2016, the Dillon Strong Women™ Program became STRONG PEOPLE and welcomed men as well as women into the program. STRONG PEOPLE uses the same exercises that the Dillon Strong Women™ Program used.

The program runs (Monday and Thursday) in sessions eight to 12 weeks long, a new session begins Thursday, September 8, from 10 until 11:15 at the Dillon Elks Lodge. All former and new participants are encouraged to attend the free sessions August 22, 25, 29, and September 1.
