UMW AMONG LOWEST IN NATION FOR STUDENT DEBT BURDEN

The University of Montana Western was recently ranked 108 out of 1,300 colleges for the lowest student loan debt per borrower by LendEDU, beating out all other public Montana universities.

LendEDU is an online marketplace for student loans and student loan refinance. According to their website, LendEDU was created to help student loan borrowers find transparency without damaging their credit.

"Our affordable tuition along with Experience One make us a unique and attractive option for students from not only Montana, but the entire country," Chancellor Beth Weatherby said. "Montana Western consistently receives positive reviews for our innovative approach to education, premier programs and location."

Montana Western students take a single class at a time under UMW's block scheduling program called Experience One. UMW is the only U.S. public four-year university offering block scheduling.

The total cost of in-state tuition per year for freshmen and sophomores is $11,766.20 and $12,984.20 for juniors and seniors. Additional costs may vary per student.

"We are pleased LendEDU has recognized Montana Western as an institution where students can receive a high quality education without taking on a great deal of debt," Interim Financial Aid Director Arlene Williams said.

The LendEDU ranking comes on the heels of numerous positive rankings for UMW, most notably the Money Magazine ranking that declared Montana Western "the best university in Montana."

Scapegoat

By: MJ

A scapegoat is a person or group that is blamed for others doings or blamed for something they had nothing to do with. Why is it humans always look to pin blame on someone else for their own inadequacy? Example of not taking responsibility for your own actions; my wife's never on time, my husband did not tell me, you don't pay me for enough hours to get all the work done, if everyone else would do their jobs I could get mine done, I told him/her to do it…

Why is it we target someone else to take the fall for a problem we personally caused, instead of looking at what the real problem is; (ourselves & our actions)? We are compounding consequences when we disregard the truth. Your own actions will be revealed sooner or later.

Question: Have you ever been the scapegoat for someone else's problems? Have you ever made someone else the scapegoat to make yourself look good in the eyes of society or the eyes of an employer, a friend or a partner? If you are honest you probably have.

Sometimes it's very hard to be accountable for our actions. A whisper separate's people, open conversation leads to unity. There are many excuses we make when it comes to not taking responsibility for our own actions. Those excuses are a falsehood, a lie and will have an emotional effect on you.

Spay/Neuter Clinic

Letter to the Editor

Submitted by Chuck Dishno

Football season is just around the corner and soon our beloved Beavers will be back on the field taking on all challengers.

With this in mind I am reminded of my High School and their futile attempt at football.

Not too many people remember the three years that my hometown, Bly, Oregon tried to field a football team at Bly High School. It wasn't much of a team since there were so few kids in Bly High. In 1948 there were fewer than 60 kids in the combined junior high and high school combined.

To my knowledge, Bly School had never played football. We did have good baseball and basketball teams but were too small a school to get many football players.

When I was a freshman, the athletics coach talked the district into giving us some football equipment that had been handed down from some of the larger schools. The equipment wasn't much to be revered as it was pretty old with the old fashioned leather helmets. I had cut off my finger in September and wasn't in any shape to play, not that I would have been much good, since I only weighed in at about 115lbs.

The three years we attempted to play football were a disaster and we only won one game in those three years.

Most of the schools in our area were larger and had no problem fielding enough players but Bly had a problem getting 12 or 13 players which didn't leave much for substitution. We weren't the only small school though and the one win we had was because one school couldn't come up with 11 players and had to forfeit the game. Rules are rules and we were proud of the chance for the win.

The story went around for years that Bly actually did win another game. As the story goes, we were playing another small school, Paisley. Paisley wasn't much better than Bly in football and had traveled about 75 miles to take us on. We were so evenly matched that the score at the end of the game was 0 to 0. The referees decided to let us play one overtime period. About half way thru the OT, the logging train came into Bly and blew its whistle. Paisley thought the game was over and left the field. Six plays later, Bly scored and won the game.

All kidding aside, we had a great time in those three years and no one had been hurt. Maybe our pride but that is easily to heal.

Baseball was a different story and we won the county championship three years in a row. We also did well in basket ball but football was not our forte.

Such was life in my beloved hometown of Bly, Oregon.

The Harkness Family and Friends in Concert

Fans of old Country Western Music will be thrilled to hear The Harkness Family and Friends in concert at 7:00 PM on Friday, August 26th at the Old Depot Theater in Dillon, MT. A benefit for the Beaverhead County Museum, this concert follows a number of performances at the theater in past years by members of the group and multiple appearances at Bannack Days. The audience will be treated to tunes such as San Antonio Rose, Amazing Grace and Your Cheating Heart. Admittance is by donation.

Max Harkness and Leila Kelley, brother and sister, have been playing since they were 9 and 10 years old. They grew up playing the old tunes of the West. Von Glasgo, guitarist, has delighted radio audiences and plays lead with the group along with Leila Kelley. In addition, Gary Kelley will keep the rhythm on bass guitar, Lisa Messick will join Max Harkness on the fiddle and Bill Roesener will play guitar and sing. The group is rounded out with Bea Harkness on the rhythm guitar. Most of the band members belong to the Gem State Fiddlers and donate time to play at retirement centers.

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

KDBM / KBEV is in full swing gathering school supplies for local and rural school including Twin Bridges and Sheridan.

Please help with their great effort by donating supplies in the boxes provided at Kings, KDBM/KBEV or Womack's Printing. You can also drop off checks to help if you don't have time to shop, make them out to School Supply Drive and leave at radio or Womack's.

Thank for helping the kids get their education off to a great start this year with a few extra supplies they need.

ALERT: KEEP PETS AWAY FROM DECOMPOSING FISH

Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks is urging the public to keep pets out of contact with fish carcasses along the banks of the Yellowstone River. While the parasite associated with this fish kill has not been shown to cause health problems in humans or pets, bacteria or other harmful materials associated with decomposing fish could sicken pets.

FWP State Wildlife Veterinarian Jennifer Ramsey says, "It's always a good idea to keep your pets away from sick, dead, or dying wildlife."

ZONING COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATE

The City of Dillon Zoning Commission and Todd Hazelbaker, Director of Operations would like to remind everyone that they must obtain from the City a zoning compliance certificate before any construction or remodeling can be done on the exterior of any building. This includes the erection or placement of any additional buildings on the property, such as garages, sheds, and other outbuildings. A certificate is also needed for the construction of decks, fences, permanent signs and home businesses. The intent of the zoning ordinance is to protect the public health, safety and general welfare of the residents of the City; to implement the Growth Policy; and to recognize and balance the various rights and responsibilities relating to land ownership, use and development. If you have any questions please contact Todd Hazelbaker, Director of Operations, at 406 683-4245 or stop and visit his office at 125 North Idaho Street.

Bulldogs Start Season Strong, Take Three of Four at Johnson and Wales Tournament

The University of Montana Western Bulldogs Volleyball (3-1) saw their first action of the season this past weekend, heading to Denver to participate in the Johnson and Wales Tournament. New Head Coach Brent Lewis and his team started the season strong, finishing 3-1 on the weekend.

Embry-Riddle (2-2) was Montana Western's first opponent, with the Dawgs taking the match in four sets (25-21, 23-25, 29-27, 25-22). Kylie McCree (Belgrade, Mont./Belgrade HS) had an outstanding game, contributing 20 kills and a .500 total attack percentage (TAP) to the team effort. Britney Chilcott (Stevensville, Mont./North Idaho College) led the team defensively, registering 5 of the 14 blocks the team had on the match.

Next up for UMW was Benedictine Mesa (2-2). The Redhawks were no match for the Bulldogs, being dispatched in three straight sets (25-12, 27-27, 25-21). McCree put in another great performance with 12 kills and Bailey Wilson (Burley, Idaho/ Delco HS) had a solid .444 TAP. Callie Hanson (Spokane, Wash./ Columbia Basin College) dominated the assists game, tallying 27 of the Montana Western's 39 assists.

Saturday's slate saw two more competitors for the Bulldogs, starting with John Brown (4-0). The Wildcats proved to be a worthy opponent, beating the Bulldogs in five sets (23-25, 25-23, 25-22, 15-25, 16-18). Cady Siemion (Huntley, Mont./Huntley Project HS) and Chilcott had 13 and 10 kills respectively. Dylan Fowler (Belgrade, Mont./Belgrade HS) had an astonishing 34 digs, a career high. Newcomer Kiarra Johnson (Idaho Falls, Idaho/ Idaho Falls HS) contributed 35 assists to the effort.

The tournament wrapped up with a convincing victory over Loyola (La.) (0-4) in straight sets (25-17, 25-20, 25-18). Tessa Miller (Manhattan, Mont./Manhattan HS) topped the team with 11 kills and a .476 TAP. Hanson and Johnson shared assist duties, combining for 27 of the teams 32.

Next up for the Bulldogs will be another four game slate this weekend, when they participate in the Big Sky Volleyball Challenge in Butte, Mont. Live stats, as well as the weekend recap can be found on our website, umwbulldogs.com.

Fair Entertainment & Events

The 2016 Beaverhead County Fair will feature free musical performances on the mid-way by two local bands. The Ruby Range Band will play Thursday, September 1 from 5-7 p.m. and again on Saturday, September 3 from 4-6 p.m. Formed in the spring of 2016, the Ruby Range band features area musicians Geoff Roach, Verna Love and Jana Bousman. The trio shares a great love for music featuring rich vocal harmonies and just enough instrumentation with roots in rock, soul, and gospel. Since its formation, the band has been the featured performer at Beaverhead Brewing Co., The Torch at Virginia City, Legends in Whitehall, Willy's Distillery in Ennis, and at numerous benefits.

Following Saturday's Dillon Jaycee PRCA Rodeo performance, local band Fast Forward will entertain. Fast Forward refers to themselves as old souls who play classic songs that everybody remembers, even though none of the band members were born when most of these songs were recorded. Three of the band members are University of Montana Western Alumni. Shay Wacker and Cole Snider are former rodeo team members and Andrew Gilpin spent his time at UMW as a member of the football team. Brayden Wacker completes the band packing his bass guitar all the way from Billings. Their performance will start immediately following the rodeo (approx. 9 p.m.) on the mid-way stage near the 4-H concession stand.

Boots County Karaoke will hold live performances on the mid-way stage starting Wednesday, August 31 at 7:30 p.m. Boots Karaoke will continue nightly at 7:30 p.m. at the fairgrounds.

Paradise Amusements Carnival Company will open starting Thursday, September 1 at 3 p.m. Advance Sale Ticket Vouchers will be available for purchase starting August 22 at 3D. Advance sale vouchers cost $25 and include $5 of game tickets for the carnival. Vouchers can be exchanged for a full-session wristband at the carnival office. Advance sale vouchers will only be available until Thursday, September 1 at 3D. After Thursday, wristbands must be purchased for the full price of $30 at the carnival office.

The Beaverhead County Fair Open 4D Barrel Race will be held on Wednesday, August 31 at 6:30 p.m. The event
