DEATH NOTICE Beverly Hren

Word has been received of the passing of Beverly Hren around noon on Thursday, August 25. Beverly will be deeply missed. Obituary to follow next week.

Public Hearing August 17, 2016

By: MJ

A public hearing was held to accept comments on the Preliminary Budget for the City of Dillon for fiscal year 2016-2017.

Judge Crystal Thompson presented a document explaining the reasons why she was asking for an $11,000 dollar yearly raise. She sighted the late at night hours when she is called on to issue a search warrants, the week-ends where she is called in due to arrests, work load overall has increased... She explained and showed documentation that her request for the raise would move her in line with other judges in the state. Total salary she receives is $37,126.90 less FICA $2,626.89 less WC $161.53 equals gross salary of $34,338.48 plus 2,874.13, plus 10,813.70 equals $50,814.73 which is the total wage cost to the city for the judge position. The mayor presented the council with extended data showing more detail information on other judge's salaries around the state along with other pertinent figures for the council to consider.

City Treasurer Straus presented a letter asking for an $8,000 dollar yearly raise stating that this would be equivalent to the City Judges request. He sighted a comparison wage of a treasurer in Hamilton, Mt. Mr. Straus is part time employee, working 20± hours a week. After deductions his take home pay is $24,373±. The city pays another $6,177.60± for retirement and health insurance that brings the total wage cost to the city of $34,655.43. Mr. Straus stated he would like to be compensated fairly for his ability. Experience and what he has accomplished in savings for the city.

Mr. Straus made a suggestion that the city do a five year financial plan instead of a yearly plan. He also said there is nothing in the budget that would compensate or reward the employees for a job done, up and above the call of duty.

Both of these requests will go back to the council for a decision. If as a tax payer you want to have a say on the salaries call your representative, contact the mayor, write a letter to city hall.

Don't Widen the Plate!

In Nashville, Tennessee, during the first week of January, 1996, more than 4,000 baseball coaches descended upon the Opryland Hotel for the 52nd annual ABCA convention.

While I waited in line to register with the hotel staff, I heard other more veteran coaches rumbling about the lineup of speakers scheduled to present during the weekend. One name, in particular, kept resurfacing, always with the same sentiment — "John Scolinos is here? Oh, man, worth every penny of my airfare."

Who the hell is John Scolinos, I wondered. No matter, I was just happy to be there.

In 1996, Coach Scolinos was 78 years old and five years retired from a college coaching career that began in 1948. He shuffled to the stage to an impressive standing ovation, wearing dark polyester pants, a light blue shirt, and a string around his neck from which home plate hung — a full-sized, stark-white home plate.

Seriously, I wondered, who in the hell is this guy?

After speaking for twenty-five minutes, not once mentioning the prop hanging around his neck, Coach Scolinos appeared to notice the snickering among some of the coaches. Even those who knew Coach Scolinos had to wonder exactly where he was going with this, or if he had simply forgotten about home plate since he'd gotten on stage. Then, finally ... "You're probably all wondering why I'm wearing home plate around my neck.," he said, his voice growing irascible. I laughed along with the others, acknowledging the possibility. "I may be old, but I'm not crazy. The reason I stand before you today is to share with you baseball people what I've learned in my life, what I've learned about home plate in my 78 years." Several hands went up when Scolinos asked how many Little League coaches were in the room. "Do you know how wide home plate is in Little League?"

After a pause, someone offered, "Seventeen inches?", more of a question than answer.

"That's right," he said. "How about in Babe Ruth's day? Any Babe Ruth coaches in the house?" Another long pause.

"Seventeen inches?" came a guess from another reluctant coach. "That's right," said Scolinos. "Now, how many high school coaches do we have in the room?" Hundreds of hands shot up, as the pattern began to appear. "How wide is home plate in high school baseball?" "Seventeen inches," they said, sounding more confident.

"You're right!" Scolinos barked. "And you college coaches, how wide is home plate in college?"

"Seventeen inches!" we said, in unison. "Any Minor League coaches here? How wide is home plate in pro ball?" "Seventeen inches!"

"RIGHT! And in the Major Leagues, how wide home plate is in the Major Leagues?"

"Seventeen inches!"

"SEV-EN-TEEN INCHES!" he confirmed, his voice bellowing off the walls. "And what do they do with a Big League pitcher who can't throw the ball over seventeen inches?" Pause. "They send him to Pocatello!" he hollered, drawing raucous laughter. "What they don't do is this: they don't say, 'Ah, that's okay, Jimmy. You can't hit a seventeen-inch target? We'll make it eighteen inches, or nineteen inches. We'll make it twenty inches so you have a better chance of hitting it. If you can't hit that, let us know so we can make it wider still, say twenty-five inches.'" Pause. "Coaches ... Pause." ... what do we do when our best player shows up late to practice? When our team rules forbid facial hair and a guy shows up unshaven? What if he gets caught drinking? Do we hold him accountable? Or do we change the rules to fit him. Do we widen home plate? The chuckles gradually faded as four thousand coaches grew quiet, the fog lifting as the old coach's message began to unfold. He turned the plate toward himself and, using a Sharpie, began to draw something. When he turned it toward the crowd, point up, a house was revealed, complete with a freshly drawn door and two windows. "This is the problem in our homes today. With our marriages, with the way we parent our kids. With our discipline. We don't teach accountability to our kids, and there is no consequence for failing to meet standards. We widen the plate!"

Pause. Then, to the point at the top of the house he added a small American flag. "This is the problem in our schools today. The quality of our education is going downhill fast and teachers have been stripped of the tools they need to be successful, and to educate and discipline our young people. We are allowing others to widen home plate! Where is that getting us?"

Silence. He replaced the flag with a Cross. "And this is the problem in the Church, where powerful people in positions of authority have taken advantage of young children, only to have such an atrocity swept under the rug for years. Our church leaders are widening home plate for themselves! And we allow it." "And the same is true with our government. Our so called representatives make rules for us that don't apply to themselves. They take bribes from lobbyists and foreign countries. They no longer serve us. And we allow them to widen home plate and we see our country falling into a dark abyss while we watch." I was amazed. At a baseball convention where I expected to learn something about curveballs and bunting and how to run better practices, I had learned something far more valuable. From an old man with home plate strung around his neck, I had learned something about life, about myself, about my own weaknesses and about my responsibilities as a leader. I had to hold myself and others accountable to that which I knew to be right, lest our families, our faith, and our society continue down an undesirable path.

"If I am lucky," Coach Scolinos concluded, "you will remember one thing from this old coach today. It is this: if we fail to hold ourselves to a higher standard, a standard of what we know to be right; if we fail to hold our spouses and our children to the same standards, if we are unwilling or unable to provide a consequence when they do not meet the standard; and if our schools and churches and our government fail to hold themselves accountable to those they serve, there is but one thing to look forward to ..." With that, he held home plate in front of his chest, turned it around, and revealed its dark black backside. "... dark days ahead." KCoach Scolinos died in 2009 at the age of 91, but not before touching the lives of hundreds of players and coaches, including mine. Meeting him at my first ABCA convention kept me returning year after year, looking for similar wisdom and inspiration from other coaches. He is the best clinic speaker the ABCA has ever known because he was so much more than a baseball coach. His message was clear: "Coaches, keep your players—no matter how good they are—your own children, your churches, your government, and most of all, keep yourself at seventeen inches.

Dillon Jaycee Auxiliary Plans "Past, Present, Future" Parade

DILLON, MT – This year's theme for the Labor Day parade is "Past, Present, Future". To enter, please pick up an entry form at Womack's Printing Place, Bank of Commerce, or online at dillonjaycees.com.

Entries to be judged are due by Friday, September 2, 2016, by closing business hours at Womack's Printing Place, Pita Pit, the Bank of Commerce, or Dillon City Hall. Mailed entries must be received by Friday, September 2, 2016, to be considered for judging. Day-of parade entries are welcome to participate, but not eligible for judging. There is no cost to enter.

Divisions include: Youth Organization, Comic/Novelty, Adult Organization, Youth Horse, Adult Horse, Commercial, Advertising, Car, & Political. Entrants must be in position by 9:00 AM the day of the parade, with the parade beginning at 10:00 AM. Entry numbers must be picked up by 9:30 AM at the Northwestern Energy parking lot.

As in previous years, in order to protect our community's children, any group or individual who wishes to throw candy or promotional items must do so while walking, not riding in a vehicle or on horseback. This is intended to keep the candy away from vehicle tires and hooves, discouraging children from running out into the street to pick up candy. Dillon's Labor Day Parade is one of only a handful left in the state that allows candy-throwing. Thank you for your consideration while planning your parade entry.

Do Your Part... Prevent Wildfires

- Keep campfire small and manageable.
- Never leave campfire unattended.
- Make sure fire is "dead out" and cold to the touch before leaving.

ONE LESS SPARK
ONE LESS WILDFIRE

Do You Know the Truth... "Lake of fire, final abode of the rejecters of Christ"

(We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is a reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.)

Last week scriptures were given revealing hell as the place where all Christ rejecters go when their life on this earth ends. They will remain there until their final judgment, which will take place before a great white throne as recorded in Revelation 20.

Revelation 20:12 states, "And I saw the dead (spiritually dead, i.e., Christ rejecters), small and great, stand before God; and the books (the Bible) were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works." Finally in vs. 15 it declares, "And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."

In previous lessons we noted that the sin which condemns a person to an eternity in this terrible place is the sin of unbelief. This is stated in John 3:18, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

John 3:36 says, "He that believes on the Son has everlasting life: and he that believes not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abides on him."

The lake of fire is the manifestation of God's wrath on those who rejected the love of Jesus and the sacrifice He made in paying the price for their sin.

Conclusion: Since death can come at any time each person needs to be sure they have prepared for that event by asking the Son for forgiveness of sin.

I am a Christian

When I say that "I am a Christian," I am not shouting that "I am clean living." I'm whispering "I was lost, but now I'm found and forgiven."

When I say "I am a Christian," I don't speak of this with pride. I'm confessing that I stumble and need Christ to be my guide.

When I say "I am a Christian," I'm not trying to be strong. I'm professing that I'm weak and need His strength to carry on.

When I say "I am a Christian," I'm not bragging of success. I'm admitting I have failed and need God to clean my mess.

When I say "I am a Christian," I'm not claiming to be perfect. My flaws are far too visible, but God believes I am worth it.

When I say "I am a Christian," I still feel the sting of pain. I have my share of heartaches, so I call upon His name.

When I say "I am a Christian," I'm not holier than thou. I'm just a simple sinner who received God's good grace, somehow!

It is frightening that a majority of the voters in this election are uninformed to so many major issues and will vote only along party lines. Unless people get informed, history will repeat itself over and over again. (Insanity is to keep doing the same thing over and over but expecting different results. -Albert Einstein)

The Democratic Platform is for: unrestricted abortion (up to and including partial birth abortion); fetal stem cell research (growing human babies in test tubes to use for dissection and experimentation); assisted suicide; special rights for homosexuals and other "diverse" people; free medical and dental; free college and other education; freedom from religion (with the exception of some Far East religions and Islam religion); open borders; abolishment of the 2nd Amendment; black lives matter; taxing Christian churches; political correctness (which includes stifling of any expression contrary to the government "norm"). You can pick up more from MSNBC, CNN, ABC, CBS, NBC.

The Republican Platform is against most of the agendas of the Democratic Platform. You can easily pick up all of the Republican agenda on Fox News. You won't get it on MSNBC, CNN, ABC, CBS, NBC.

Food for Thought

Presidential Candidates

Clinton is a professional politician who has never had a real job but is very wealthy. Trump is a businessman turned politician. With the beginnings of some family money, he has created his own wealth and could be considered a "self-made man". Clinton relies on Political Action Committee money to run her campaign. Trump uses his own money for his campaign. Clinton will remain very wealthy after the election, win or lose. Trump may be close to broke after the election, win or lose.
