Bulldogs Falter at Big Sky Volleyball Challenge

The University of Montana Western Bulldogs Volleyball (4-4) road trip continued this weekend, seeing their travels take them just up the road to Butte, Mont. There they participated in the Big Sky Volleyball Challenge, hosted by Frontier Conference rival Montana Tech. Unlike last weekend, which ended in a 3-1 overall record, the competition proved to be too much for the Montana Western, as they dropped three of four matches to fall to 4-4 on the season.

First on the slate was Evergreen State College (1-4). The Geoducks and Dawgs went to five sets during the match, with Evergreen coming out with the W (25-20, 24-26, 35-37, 25-17, 13-15). Cady Siemion (Huntley, Mont./Huntley Project HS), Tessa Miller (Manhattan, Mont./Manhattan HS), and Bailey Wilson (Burley, Idaho/Delco HS) each had an outstanding game on the offensive side of the net, contributing at least 13 kills, with Miller registering a .478 total attack percentage (TAP). Britney Chilcott (Stevensville, Mont./North Idaho College) led the team defensively, registering 4 of the 11 blocks the team had on the match. Dylan Fowler (Huntley, Mont./Huntley Project HS) was on her game on defense as well, tallying 22 digs.

Friday's late game was a matchup against Corban University (4-0). The Warriors were the second straight team to take the Bulldogs to five sets, once again topping the Dawgs (21-25, 25-23, 20-25, 25-22, 14-16), handing them an 0-2 record for the day. Miller lead the team in kills once again with 12, and a TAP of .308. Chilcott dominated the ball on defense, leading both teams in blocks with 7. Callie Hanson (Spokane, Wash./Columbia Basin College) registered 19 assists in the losing effort.

Montana Western looked to turn things around on Saturday, starting with Dickinson State University (0-3). The Dawgs got on the winning side of the scorecard for the first time, handily defeating the Bluehawks in four sets (25-13, 25-21, 23-25, 25-22). Cady Siemion and Chilcott had 13 and 10 kills respectively. Dylan Fowler continued her hot streak, putting up 22 digs, with Hanson out-assisting the entire Bluehawks team by two with 40.

The action in Butte wrapped up with a losing effort against a very competitive #11 College of Idaho team (5-3), dropping the match in four sets (16-25, 25-17, 18-25, 17-25). Siemion topped the team with 17 kills, second out of all players in the match, and a .355 TAP. Fowler added 12 more digs to her total, giving her 77 for the four game slate.

The Bulldogs now get a much needed two weeks off before heading to Hastings, Neb. to participate in the Five Points Bank Invite. Live stats, as well as the weekend recap can be found on our website, umwbulldogs.com.
