Lorrayne Rebich

Agnes Lorrayne Pierce was born on March 24, 1925 and passed away peacefully on September 2, 2016 in Dillon, MT.

Lorrayne was the daughter of Thomas R. and Agnes Kau Pierce of the Horse Prairie Valley and she lived all her life in Beaverhead County. She grew up on the family ranch in Horse Prairie and in Dillon with her two brothers Thomas M. and Richard C. Pierce and her sister Gladys Adele (Adele Rouse). She was only three years old when her father died of appendicitis, after which her mother raised the family and managed the ranch.

Lorrayne first attended school in Grant, MT then high school at Beaverhead County High in Dillon, where she was the second young woman to be elected Student Body President. When she started high school the current building was still under construction, so her first few months of high school were taught in the building that became Western Montana College (then called Montana State Normal College). After graduation in 1943 she spent a semester at Montana State University in Bozeman before returning to her home in Dillon.

In 1946, Lorrayne married Raymond Rebich after his return from serving in the Navy. They lived in Dillon and then on the John Rebich ranch until moving onto part of the old Pierce Ranch south of Armstead in 1949, where they ranched until the summer of 1957. That year, the government purchased their land for construction of the Clark Canyon Dam. They moved to Dillon where Ray started to drive truck, then started his own trucking company, Ray Rebich Trucking, which they operated until he passed away in 1993.

Lorrayne and Ray had three children. Adele Lynn (Adele Taylor) was born in October 1949, Raymond John in June 1951, and Wayne Stephan in June 1963. In June 1968 their daughter Adele married Phil Taylor, and they still reside in Dillon where they own & manage the Sleepy Hollow Golf Course. In October 1968 Ray Jr. died at the age of 17 in a hunting accident south of Dillon. Their son Wayne married Wendy Eck in 1981 and they reside in Everett, WA.

Lorrayne loved Dillon and was proud to call it her home. She was preceded in death by her parents & her siblings Thomas & Richard, along with her husband Ray and her son Ray Jr. She is survived by her sister Adele Rouse, her daughter & son-in-law Adele and Phil Taylor, & son and daughter-in-law Wayne & Wendy Rebich, along with grandchildren Trista Snyder (47), Tory Taylor (44), Trent Taylor (42), Tennille Allison (37), Thatcher Taylor (30) and Kylie Rebich (24). She is also survived by 12 great grandchildren & 4 great, great grandchildren, as well as numerous nieces & nephews.

A visitation is scheduled for Thursday, September 8th from 4 - 8 PM and from 9 to 10:30 AM on Friday at Brundage Funeral Home, with funeral services starting at 11 AM at Brundage Chapel in Dillon. Interment will be at Mountain View Cemetery with luncheon to follow at the Catholic Center.

The family would like to give a special thank you to everyone at Legacy Assisted Living, Dr. Sandra McIntyre, and to the staff at Barrett Hospital and Healthcare, with special thanks to Marie Holt for her care and support of Lorrayne and her family during the past weeks.

Donations can be made to Beaverhead County Search and Rescue. A guest book is available on line at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

EMERGENCY CLOSURE OF CANYON CREEK WMA

Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks implemented an immediate emergency closure of the Canyon Creek Wildlife Management Area northwest of Helena Friday due to the threat from the Rattlesnake Fire burning nearby.

The Canyon Creek WMA is closed to all public occupation, hunting, and recreation until further notice. The Department will reopen the WMA when it is considered safe. The lightning-caused Rattlesnake Fire started Thursday, Sept. 1, and as of Friday morning has grown over 600 acres in size.

Prayers for Military Peace Keepers at St. James Episcopal Church:

There will be a service honoring military personnel who have provided a peaceful nation for all of us. They may be active or veterans, at home or abroad. The service will be held at 12 noon on the first Wednesday of every month at St James Episcopal Church (203 E. Glendale, Dillon, MT). All are welcome; families, friends, military personnel and anyone who would like to thank and pray for all of the Armed Forces of the United States. The next service will be held on September 7, at 12 noon. Any questions, call 683-2735. Please join us.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES

The KDBM / KBEV school supply drive is in full swing. School starts this week so they need your help to finished the drive with donations of supplies or you can drop off checks and they will shop for the students who need a little something extra.

Please take your checks to the Radio Station or Womack's Printing Place, or drop supplies in the boxes at the radio station, Womack's or Kings so they can get supplies delivered now that school has started.

BEAVERS WIN THE WAY THEY HOPED TO FOR THE STATE TITLE

Whitfish and Dillon met in the title game last year with the Beavers coming up on the short side of the score 17-13

Friday night at home the Beavers got the win the way they had hoped to do to end last season. Taking the game into the mercy rule they won behind three different quarterbacks and their bench got into the game by the second quarter.

The 47-0 win was the Beaver's first game. They were led by familiar names Troy Anderson passed for 52 yards and a TD, while running for 85 yards. Greenslade added a 52-yard scoring run in the second half to finish with a game-high 120 yards.

R.J. Fitzgerald ran for 70 yards and three touchdowns. Fitzgerald had two touchdowns and an interception to set up another to help the Beavers take a 34-0 lead by halftime.

Jamey Richardson added an interception return for a score and Graden Greenslade ran for an 18-yard TD.

Advantageous Bulldogs Down Yotes in Week Two Battle

Caldwell, Idaho- No. 25 University of Montana Western Bulldogs (2-0, 1-0) used another workmanlike effort from Sam Rutherford (Great Falls/Centerville) and J.D. Ferris (Dillon), as well as great starting field positions to beat Frontier Conference foe College of Idaho 26-13 in front of a packed house at Simplot Stadium in Caldwell, Idaho.

Much like last week's game against Dickinson State, the Bulldogs allowed a score before finding pay dirt. A 63-yard Yote drive was capped off by an 8-yard touchdown pass from Tyler Cox to Mike Kirby put College of Idaho up 7-0.

The quick shot across the bow awoke the Dawgs from their short slumber, going on a 26-0 run, and not allowing C of I to find the end zone again until early on in the fourth quarter.

Montana Western kicked off their first scoring drive with great field position, due to a short Hartvig Bondo punt. Ferris connected with Idaho native Matt Lickfold (Post Falls, Idaho/Post Falls) on a 27-yard pass, allowing Rutherford to tally his fourth touchdown on the young season with a 1-yard rush.

The Bulldogs forced four turnovers throughout the game, taking advantage of three of them. A College of Idaho fumble allowed Seth Mason (Hamilton) to put a 27-yard kick through the uprights for a 10-7 lead. A forced safety late in the first half brought the halftime score to 12-7.

J.D Ferris added to the scoring in the second half, as he found Tyler Murray (Hamilton, Mont./Hamilton) for a 24- yard pass to make the score 19-7. Following another C of I turnover, Ferris connected with Lickfold once again for a 19-yard touchdown pass to give the Dawgs a 26-7 lead.

The Yotes would put together an impressive 80 yard scoring drive halfway through the fourth, but would not score again, giving us the final score of 26-13.

Despite allowing 26 points, the College of Idaho's defense had an impressive day. Their 234 yards of offense allowed, was the fewest since 2014. Cox, despite this three interceptions, went 23 for 34, tallying 186 yards and a TD.

Ferris was 13 for 21 on the afternoon, good for 135 yards and two touchdowns. Rutherford added to his freshly broke school record by rushing for 83 and one touchdown.

The Bulldogs will open up their home slate next weekend when they host Eastern Oregon University at
