Paul Petersen

Paul Petersen passed away from pancreatic cancer on September 12, 2016, surrounded by his best friends Tom and Camy Paffhausen.

He was born in Dillon, Montana on March 19, 1966, to Bob and Teri Petersen. He graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1984 and attended Montana State University in 1985.

Paul had an unbelievable work ethic and took great pride in what he did. He loved that he was able to take his nephews hunting and was with them when they got their first deer. He joked with his nieces and liked giving them a hard time and in return they would give it right back to him. Paul was "the most fun uncle ever" and was both a confidante and motivator. He was generous with his time and mentored many kids in the roping arena and life. His prized horse, Mary, taught many kids how to rope. He was an outdoorsman and liked seeing his beloved dog Percy work. Never one to sit around, Paul fabricated many items to improve his life on the ranch. He invented and patented the Suckle Buggy, a product that is now sold in ranch supply stores around the country. Tough and stubborn on the outside, those who were close to him knew what a generous, loyal man he was.

Paul's life was dedicated to his work on the ranch of which he enjoyed all aspects and which he was able to carry out to the end. Memorials can be made to the Beaverhead County High School Rodeo Team.

Introducing...Sharon Grace Sat. 4-7 Lion's Den!

Paint and fabrication was completed by Montana Correctional Enterprises. These awesome workers should be very proud of what they have succeeded in creating!

All cancer survivors, care givers and family members are invited to come and meet Sharon Grace of Pink Heals Southwest Montana. As a survivor sign your name, or care givers or family members sign In Memory of or In Honor of your loved one on Saturday, Sept 17th, from 4 pm to 7 pm at the Lion's Den in Dillon.

Donations to the Pink Heals Southwest Montana Chapter will be transferred into cash cards for cancer patients or those with catastrophic illness. Donations towards the painting or maintenance of Sharon Grace are received into a separate bank and bank account. 100% of donations are kept local -- nothing ever leaves the location it was donated in! For more information call Joan at 406-925-1871 or Russ at 406-498-1753 or Ruth at 406-925-1765.

Montana Western ranks among top western colleges in U.S. News Annual Survey

The University of Montana Western has been ranked third among the top Regional Public Colleges in the West by the 2017 U.S. News & World Best Colleges rankings released Sept. 13, 2016.

Charity Walters, the university's registrar and director of institutional research, said the publication also ranked Montana Western near the top for western regional public and private colleges including third for students graduating with the least debt; fourth for best colleges for veterans; and eighth for best value.

"Many across the country are recognizing that we have a very special university here in Dillon, Mont.," Chancellor Beth Weatherby said. "With our unique approach to higher education, emphasis on student success and commitment to delivering quality education at an affordable price, many are taking notice." Montana Western has experienced over 10 years of remarkable success under Experience One, Weatherby said. "Our innovative method of teaching and learning where students take a single class at a time is credited with UMW leading the Montana University System in many success measurement categories." "Experience One gives us a unique advantage in that our faculty are able to provide a real-world teaching environment which gives our students a leg up as they enter the job force or graduate school," Weatherby said.

U.S. News defines regional colleges according to the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education and explains "these schools focus almost entirely on the undergraduate experience and offer a broad range of programs in the liberal arts."

The U.S. News rankings come on the heels of Money Magazine naming Montana Western the best university in the state. The University of Montana Western is the only public four-year U.S. college or university offering Experience One.

Letter to the Editor

There is much controversy about football player Colin Kaepernick not standing during the National Anthem. We must remember there is no law, no regulation that says an individual must stand. There are others who do not stand. Some Christian and non-Christian religions do not stand while the national Anthem is played. We must ask ourselves about respect and the flag!

Where was the American flag when Americans slaughtered the American Indians by the thousands? Was this respect for the flag?

Where was the flag for a hundred years when we had slavery? Did the flag show dignity or compassion?

Where was the flag when thousands of women could not vote and were second class citizens? Where was the respect?

Where was the flag when blacks were segregate, could not vote and were not classified as humans?

Where was the flag when war monger leaders sent young men and women to fight in unneeded wars so the rich could get richer?

Where was the flag when the President of the United States prohibited any photographs of caskets of dead soldiers killed in an illegal, unneeded war? And yes the caskets were draped with the American flag.

Where does respect begin? It takes respect to give respect! Wait, before you say anything I want you to know I stand at attention for the National Anthem. But I still have many thoughts about respect!

Lavon Brillhart

Joining Community Forces Meeting

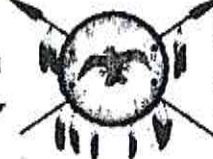

The Beaverhead Chapter of Joining Community Forces (JCF) will meet at noon Tuesday, September 20, in the upstairs conference room at the Bank of Commerce in Dillon. Public participation in this monthly meeting is encouraged. JCF is a national initiative dedicated to helping active duty service personnel, veterans and their families. For more information, call Jodie Jolly at 925-3563.

Beaver Head Hunters

The September meeting of the Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society will be Tuesday, September 20 at 7:00 pm in the museum research room. This month, after the short business meeting, we will each have the opportunity to briefly share what we did this summer. As always, the public is invited to attend.

WAR VETERANS FILE MEDICAL

On August 31st, 2016 Montana's roll back of access to Medical Cannabis went into effect.

Today, the Montana State Attorney General's office was served with a copy of a complaint by several citizens, two of which are Montanan's called to action to serve this country in Iraq & Afghanistan and a decades long public servant.

On August 31st, 2016, the Montana Supreme Court's decision - effectively killing Montana's medical cannabis program - took effect. One part of the new law is; the state made providers choose only 3 patients each, which effectively denies access to thousands of patients too sick to grow their own. The Lawsuit is seeking relief that includes restraining the State of Montana from enforcing the 3 patient limit for providers, so people can get access to medical Cannabis.

We are Montanan's Ensuring Access to Natural Medicine, a state based organization aimed at fixing the holes in the enforcement of the recent Montana Supreme Court decision on medical cannabis.

The case is titled, JASON BRANDLE, RORY GORDON, MELODY BROWN, BRAD RUSSELL, and MONTANANS ENSURING ACCESS TO NATURAL MEDICINE, a Montana Non-Profit Corporation, v. The State Of Montana. 1st Judicial District Court. Helena Montana Judge Reynolds, presiding. DDV-2016-754.

Montana Western hosts 25th annual Bulldog Booster Bash

The Bulldog Athletic Association Booster Bash Dinner & Auction is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 24, 2016 in the Keltz Arena on the Montana Western campus. The annual event begins following the Bulldog football game against Montana State University - Northern at 1 p.m. at Vigilante Field.

The Bulldog Booster Bash was started by Bulldog basketball coach Casey Keltz, for whom the Keltz Arena is named. Keltz retired in 1996 with 409 career wins in 28 years.

Tickets are $35 for single, $65 for couple or $250 for a table of eight.

Contact Megan Woolley at 406-683-7220 in the athletic department office for tickets and more information.

Are You Dying To Write A Goodbye Letter?

Tyrades! By Danny Tyree

In my spare moments, I'm jotting down ideas for my raw-yet-funny memoirs ("like" my Facebook page "Tyree's Tyrades" for updates on that and other book projects), so I was intrigued when I saw a Washington Post article by VJ Periyakoil, M.D.

Dr. Periyakoil is the director of the Stanford Palliative Care Education & Training Project and founder of the Stanford Friends and Family Letter Project.

The project encourages people to write a last letter to their loved ones, offering a mixture of "I love you," apologies, treasured memories and gestures of forgiveness. They've even developed a letter template to make it easier. Certainly terminally ill people would derive peace of mind from this, but it's also a great opportunity for people who are still healthy.

(In addition to the "sick" template and "healthy" template, someone will inevitably add the "fair to middling" template.)

It's good that we mortals have a deadline for saying all the things that need to be said. If we were still communicating from the Other Side, the missives would probably degenerate into something like those sickeningly upbeat Christmas letters. ("Getting a great tan here. George is sorry the rest of you can't be stabbed with a pitchfork through eternity...")

The letters give a chance to state how proud you are of your children and grandchildren, although there will always be a suspicion of the compliments being forced. ("I've never told you how proud I am of you. But if I have an out-of-body experience in the ER, I just know I'll overhear the doctors saying, 'I wish MY kid would invest eight years in an underwater basket-weaving major.'")

Granted, even the template may not be enough to help the more macho types share their feelings. ("I'd like to tell each of you how much you mean to me ---- but if I did, I'd have to kill you.")

Some people won't be able to stop once they start apologizing. ("I apologize for my emotional distance and being the strong, silent type. I apologize that my flatulence was of the same nature. I apologize to Rover for blaming him for the flatulence. I apologize to everyone else because Rover was really Rover II, because I ran over Rover and secretly found a look-alike at the pound...")

Some individuals are hesitant to write a farewell letter because they fear it will be a self-fulfilling prophecy. These superstitious innies would probably write something like "I was going to attend all your ballet recitals, but this black cat crossed my path once."

Watch for someone to monetize the project and offer to sell upgrades to the basic template. ("Sure, your dad could settle for the free confessions; but for an extra $75, we'll send a drone to eliminate all those half-siblings you didn't know about.")

Most people will choose to have the letters released after their deaths (at the funeral, at the reading of the will, etc.), but others will opt to share them while they're still alive and kicking and can provide valuable information. ("Here's where to steal an EpiPen and DELAY my demise...")

Alas, the letters may never catch on with certain politicians. ("No, can't think of anything I really regret. Accidentally wiping Sweden off the map comes close, I guess. Ya gotta admit, once the radioactivity dies down, it'll make a heck of a golf course.")

TWO SECTIONS OF YELLOWSTONE TO REOPEN FRIDAY; SHIELDS RIVER ALSO TO REOPEN

Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks will reopen two reaches of the Yellowstone River Friday to all uses.

The sections opening Friday include the reach from Point of Rocks Fishing Access Site to Emigrant Fishing Access Site along with the reach from Pine Creek Fishing Access Site to Highway 89 Bridge Fishing Access Site. The Shield River, a main tributary of the Yellowstone, will also reopen entirely Friday.

The 17.2 mile section of the Yellowstone from Emigrant Fishing Access Site to Pine Creek Fishing Access Site remains closed to all recreational use. FWP remains concerned that the disease has not run its course in this area most highly affected by the fish kill.

More information on the Yellowstone fish kill can be found at http://fwp.mt.gov/news/newsReleases/headlines/nr_4278.html.

FWP also reminds recreationists to Clean, Drain, Dry as this mantra is the key to preventing the introduction and spread of aquatic invasive species and other harmful organisms.

Bulldogs Move Up to No. 22 in Latest NAIA Poll

Despite dropping their first game of the season this past Sunday, the University of Montana Western Bulldogs moved up three spots from No. 25 to No. 22 in the latest NAIA Football Coaches' Top 25 Poll.

Convincing victories over Dickinson State University and College of Idaho overcame the tough loss to Eastern Oregon University this past weekend in the coaches' eyes, allowing the Bulldogs to slide up three spots.

Five other Frontier Conference teams found or kept spots on the Top 25 as well; No. 10 Eastern Oregon, No. 12 Southern Oregon, No. 13. Montana Tech, No. 21 Carroll, and No. 25 Rocky Mountain.

The Dawgs will look to continue their march up the rankings when they play the No. 12 Raiders this Saturday in Ashland, Ore. Kickoff is scheduled for Noon MST.

Do You Know the Truth... "Jesus Christ was the Virgin Born Son of God!"

(We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is a reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.)

After pronouncing a curse on Adam & Eve for their sin, God prophesied of the virgin birth of His Son in Genesis 3:15, "And I will put enmity between you (satan) and the woman, and between your seed and her seed; it shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel."

Every other human ever born was born as the seed of man. The only seed of a woman was the virgin born Jesus Christ.

Isaiah 7:14 also prophesied of this event, "Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel."

The following scriptures make it clear that the prophesies of this amazing birth came to pass in the conception and birth of Jesus Christ.

Matthew 1:18, "Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise (in this way): When as his mother Mary was espoused (engaged) to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost."

When Joseph discovered his fiancée to be with child, an angel appeared to him and said, "...Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. And she shall bring forth a son, and you shall call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins."

Matthew 1:20b-21.

This messenger of God then states that these thing were done in fulfillment of the prophesy give in Isaiah 7:14 (above).

Conclusion: The Biblical record leaves no room to doubt that Jesus Christ was the virgin born Son of God!
