Assistant Head Coach for Montanan Western

Matt Strickland has been named as the assistant head coach for the Montanan Western men's basketball team, head coach Steve Keller announced today.

Strickland will be entering his third year of coaching, previously being a women's assistant at Gillette College in Gillette Wyo. He also has worked basketball camps for Central Michigan University.

Strickland played his high school basketball career at Price High School in Los Angeles, Calif. In the 2008-2009 season Strickland helped the knights win the CIF Southern Section title. Matt then transferred to Mount Pleasant High School in Mount Pleasant, Mich. for his senior season. During his senior season at Mount Pleasant they won the Saginaw Valley League Championship before later losing in the Class A Elite Eight playoffs. While in high school Strickland was a 2010 Class A All-State honorable mention.

Matt went on to play college basketball for Gillette College Pronghorns in Gillette Wyo. from 2010 to 2012. Matt still holds the single season record for 3 pt. FG% at 43% and is 3rd on the singles season assist record with 91 for the 2011-12 season. After playing two years with the Pronghorns, Strickland transferred to Billings, Mont. to play for the Rocky Mountain College Battlin' Bears. While playing for Rocky, Strickland helped them win back to back Frontier Conference Titles from 2012-2014. During these seasons Matt and the Bears also made it to the NAIA National Tournament.

Matt graduated from Rocky Mountain College with a Bachelor's in Exercise Science and a Minor in Coaching Theories

DILLON STAYS UNDEFEATED

Dillon had five touchdowns from 5 different players to remain undefeated Friday at home against the Polson Pirates.

The final score was 38-6 in Class A non-conference game between the two undefeated teams.

Quarterback Troy Andersen passed for 161 yards and had 73 yards rushing along with putting points on the board. Dillon's offense had their way with the Pirates and the defense stopped most of what the Pirates tried to get done.

The game started early with Dillon putting up points. Polson had a quick three and out and then Gabe Hupp caught the punt and run up the Polson sideline. He jumped over players and turned out of a tackle before running the rest of the way by himself for a 65 yard touchdown get the game off to a 6 -0 start for the Beavers. Todd Nordahl got the kick for the extra point up 7-0. RJ Fitzgerald went in for a 16 yard score and finished with a game high 75 yards rushing. Graden Greenslade pushed in from 3 yards to put the Beavers up 24-0 after half time. Dillon's next possession ended with Andersen keeping the ball for a 23 yard run to the goal line. Tory Wakler pushed in from a yard out to finished the Beavers scoring for the big win.

Bulldogs Win Thriller to Open Conference Play

Great Falls, Mont., September 16, 2016- Perseverance has been the name of the game when it comes to the University of Montana Western Bulldogs volleyball team this season, and Friday night's game was no exception. The Dawgs (6-7, 1-0 FC) rallied back from a 0-2 set deficit to take the match in a thrilling five set victory (16-25, 16-25, 27-25, 25-19, 15-13) to open up conference play against the University of Great Falls (6-8, 0-1 FC).

The Bulldogs had three players with over 20 attacks on the evening. Tessa Miller (Manhattan, Mont./Manhattan) registered 20, Kylie McCree (Belgrade, Mont./Belgrade) had 29, and Bailey Wilson (Burley, Idaho/Delco) led the Dawgs with 35. For the Argonauts, Madison Wilhelm had a game high 52 assists. Callie Hanson (Spokane, Wash./East Valley) led both teams with a .545 attack percentage.

On the defensive side of the ball, Dylan Fowler (Belgrade, Mont./Belgrade) was her consistent self with 14 digs. Also with 14 digs was Jami Flink (Missoula, Mont./ Sentinel), who took advantage of some rare playing time and turned in a "phenomenal back row performance," in the words on head coach Brent Lewis. Britney Chilcott (Stevensville, Mont./Stevensville) tallied 4 blocks in the winning effort. Lewis talked about how the team had a plan going into the game, and that was what eventually helped them secure the victory. "We had a very specific game plan that we were trying to execute on both side of the net. It wasn't going so well before intermission, but we regrouped and finally got back to the game that we planned on playing. Playing as a team and some internal fire from the girls helped us pull through."

Montana Western was 0-3 in matched that went to five sets on the season, which is something the team was looking to redeem themselves on. "I told them this was the chance that we were waiting for. At the switch we were down 8-4, and told them they could still finish strong. They did and finally found themselves on the winning side of a five-setter," Coach Lewis said.

With the victory the Bulldogs only find themselves one game under the .500 mark, coming back home to play at the Bulldog Athletic Recreation Center for the first time this season. They will be opening the home portion of the conference slate tomorrow night when they take on MSU-Northern at 7:00 p.m. A full recap of all the action, as well as a live stream of the game can be found on umwbulldogs.com.

"Bird's-Eye View Trail"

Please join us at Bannack State Park on September 24th at 10:00 AM for the Grand Opening of the "Bird's-Eye View Trail". This brand new hiking trail rolls through sagebrush prairie and ascends through patches of conifers, providing a magnificent view of Grasshopper Creek and the autumn colors of its willow and cottonwood trees. The trail is 2.7 miles long, and takes about 1 ½ hours to complete. The hike will be followed by an optional tour of Grasshopper Creek, which houses a variety of wetland plant and bird species. The event will begin at the Visitor Center.

STUNTMAN MAKES IT ACROSS CANYON

Stuntman Eddie Braun had made the jump that Evel Knievel had attempted but couldn't do.

Eddie Braun made a once in lifetime dream come true by rocketing himself over the Snake River Canyon and landed safely on the other side. With spectators including Evel Knievels widow and daughter the crown stood still many holding their breaths the rocket shot up, ran out of steam and headed back down. People waited asking Eddie to pull the chute from their side for a safe landing.

The rocket slowed down, the main chute popped open the crowd cheered until minutes later the speakers announced he's ok. There were tears of joy for many and celebrations for all.

STATE HOSPITAL LAWSUIT

The Montana State Hospital is being sued by 4 phychiatric patients saying that the were subjected to long isolation periods of up to 24 hours a day for up to a year. They say it was doctor-ordered for of treatment and convenient for the staff. The suit list several nurses and individuals and sues them individually and in their officials capacity.

Helena District Court Judge Kathy Seeley has set a hearing for today on a request to remove the patients from isolation while the case go to court. The patients are being represented by an organization that is a federally mandated civil rights protection and advocacy system for the state known as Disability Rights Montana.

The claim is that the patients suffered extreme psychological and emotional harm from nurses, who used a level system that granted privileges to threaten them and administrators who didn't hold staff accountable for their treatment of patients.

Lady Bulldogs Basketball Tab Nakashima as Assistant Coach

Tony Nakashima has been named as the assistant coach for the Montana Western women's basketball team, head coach Lindsay Woolley announced today.

Nakashima will be entering into his seventh year of coaching, previously spending time at Bethany College in Lindsborg, Kansas and Warner Pacific College in Portland, Ore. He also coached three years of high school basketball in Oregon and California, along with time spent coaching at the AAU level.

Prior to his college hoops days, Nakashima was a high school standout. By the time his playing days were over at Portland Adventist Academy (Portland, Ore.), Tony was ranked 1st in steals, 2nd in 3-pointers made, 5th in assists, and 7th in career points. Nakashima was also named to the All-State Honorable Mentions team during his senior year.

Tony went on to play college ball at Hawaii Pacific University before transferring to Pacific Union College to finish out his collegiate career.

"Tony is going to bring some experience and energy to our staff," head coach Lindsay Woolley said. "I think he is really going to thrive on the recruiting trail, and I know our players are going to be responsive to his style of coaching." Nakashima graduated from Pacific Union College with a degree in Business Administration and Marketing.

No. 22 Bulldogs Fall in Heartbreaker to No. 12 Southern Oregon

Ashland, Ore., September 17, 2016- The University of Montana Western football team made the 13-hour trip to Ashland, Ore. with hopes of upending No. 12 Southern Oregon, last year's national runner-ups. The Raiders had other ideas though, as a touchdown in the last minute dashed those hopes, beating the Bulldogs 24-20 in front of 2310 fans at Raider Stadium.

After a feeling out process in the first quarter, SOU found the scoreboard early on in the second when quarterback Jack Singler connected with Matt Retzlaff for a 6-yard touchdown pass. The Bulldogs would answer back almost immediately when J.D. Ferris (Dillon, Mont./Beaverhead County) capped off a 5-play, 68-yard drive with a 2-yard pass to Ryan Sullivan (Sidney, Mont./Sidney) to even up the score at 7-7. The back and forth action continued when Sean Tow ran the ball in from three yards out to put the Raiders up 14-7, which would end up being the score at the half.

Scoring was hard to come by again in the third quarter, with the only points coming by way of a Marcus Montano 22-yard field goal to give SOU a 17-7 lead heading into the final quarter of the game.

Montana Western chose not to go down without a fight. Ferris connected with Charlie Switzer (Richey, Mont./Richey-Lambert) on a 10-yard pass for his second touchdown of the game, pulling the Dawgs within three at 17-14. Ferris wasn't done though, as his 7-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Murray (Hamilton, Mont./Hamilton), his third of the afternoon, put the Dawgs on top with only 2:55 remaining by a score of 20-17. But with 51 seconds on the clock Singler hit Zach Davis for a 7-yard score to put the Raiders on top for good, with our final score of 24-20.

The Bulldogs racked up a total of 437 total offense yards in the game, led by J.D. Ferris' 345 yards and three touchdowns. Hunter Thompson (Great Falls, Mont./CMR) led the rushing game with 69 yards on 17 carries. The receiving core was paced by Beau Brekke (Salmon, Idaho/Salmon) who had 118 yards on six catches. SOU's Jack Singler passed for 387 yards and two scores.

On the defensive side of the ball, Jason Ferris (Dillon,
