Daniel Louis Caplis, 64,

Daniel Louis Caplis, 64, passed away recently at his home in Hall, Montana. Dan was born in Missoula and was a lifelong Montana man. Dan joined the Army Reserve while attending college and received training in the medical corp which gave him a desire to enter medical school. A year or so, he returned to Montana and worked various jobs in Missoula, becoming a master carpenter in the process. In 1987, he followed his passion for the outdoors when he bought the Peat Bar and Steakhouse in the remote town of Lima, Montana.

Several years ago, Dan bought a large view lot in Hall, Montana and was in the final stages of completing a fabulous new house.

Dan is survived by his daughter Lateri Ponsiano (Darren), grand children Bradley and Bailey Ponsiano, sisters Damian Godden (Richard) and Maureen Means (David) and brothers Bill (Connie) and Tom (Chris). He was preceded in death by his parents Bill and Vi Caplis.

Dan also had many close, lifelong friends that he kept in contact with on a regular basis despite his remote location.

Graveside funeral services for Daniel Louis Caplis will be held on Monday, October 3rd, 10:00am, at the New St. Mary's Cemetery, corner of Scofield Street and O'S Street in Missoula, Montana. (Don't go to the Old St. Mary's at 641 Turner Street).

A reception luncheon will follow at St. Francis Church social hall (basement of church), 420 W. Pine Street, Missoula, MT.

If you have any questions or concerns feel free to email LaTeri Ponsiano at late.riponsiano@yahoo.com

Dances with Words Announces Fall Series Lineup

The University of Montana Western Dances with Words visiting author series announces its 2016 fall readings.

The series debuts Oct. 11 with poet Richard (Rick) Robbins from Minnesota State University, Mankato. Robbins has published five books of poems, most recently "Radioactive City" and "Other Americas." He has received awards from The Loft, the Minnesota State Arts Board, the National Endowment for the Arts, and the Poetry Society of America. From 1986-2014, Robbins directed the Good Thunder Reading Series at Minnesota State University, Mankato, where he continues to direct the creative writing program.

Michael Czarnecki, poet and publisher at FootHills Publishing, will read at the series on Oct. 20. Czarnecki wrote his first poem in 1966 and waited almost 20 years to give his first public reading. He has since given well over 400 featured poetry readings throughout the United States. His poetry is influenced by the works of Robert Frost, Robinson Jeffers, Gary Snyder, Lew Welch and many others.

Portland, Ore. novelist Willy Vlautin will read from his works on Nov. 14. Vlautin is the author of four novels: "The Motel Life," "Northline," "Lean on Pete," which won two Oregon Book Awards, and "The Free." "The Motel Life" was made into a 2012 film starring Emile Hirsch, Dakota Fanning and Kris Kristofferson. Vlautin is also the singer and songwriter of the band Richmond Fontaine which has released several albums and toured the world extensively.

O. Alan Weltzien will close the Dances with Words fall series on Dec. 8. A self-described "born-again poet," Weltzien is a longtime English professor at the University of Montana Western. He has edited, co-edited, or authored half a dozen books including a memoir, "A Father and an Island: Reflections on Loss," and his first book of poetry, "To Kilimanjaro and Back." Weltzien has received two Fulbright Fellowships and one University of Montana Faculty Exchange Award. He will read from his latest books, "A Cultural History of the Pacific Northwest Volcanoes" and "Rembrandt in the Stairwell," his third book of poetry.

All readings are at 7:30 p.m. at The Cup, located in Montana Western's Swysgood Technology Center.

The Dances with Words series is free and open to the public.

COMMENT SOUGHT ON PROPOSAL TO STOP STOCKING RAINBOWS AT HEBGEN PUBLIC MEETING SET FOR OCT. 17 IN WEST YELLOWSTONE

Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks (FWP) is seeking public comment on a proposal to stop stocking Rainbow Trout in Hebgen Reservoir in 2017.

Studies completed over the last 20 years have repeatedly shown that a majority of the Rainbow Trout in Hebgen Reservoir come from wild sources and from natural reproduction occurring in the tributaries that feed Hebgen. Most recently research demonstrated that 87% of fish sampled from the reservoir were of wild origins.

Given that natural reproduction has been demonstrated to sufficiently sustain the Rainbow Trout fishery, and considering the cost to licensed anglers to stock the reservoir, fisheries biologists recommend moving forward on this proposal to discontinue the stocking program.

This action would be closely monitored to ensure the fishery remains consistent or improves. If declines are observed in the Rainbow Trout fishery, FWP would consider returning to some level of stocking Rainbow Trout in future years.

The public can review and comment on the prepared environmental assessment online at http://fwp.mt.gov/news/publicNotices/environmentalAssessments/speciesStocking/pn\_0122.html

Comments will be accepted until 5 p.m. on Nov. 2, 2016. In addition to online, the public may email comments to davemoser@mt.gov or submit comments via mail to:

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks
c/o Hebgen Wild Trout EA
1400 S. 19th Ave.
Bozeman, MT 59718

A public meeting has been scheduled in West Yellowstone at the Holiday Inn on Oct. 17 from 7-10 p.m. to discuss the proposal.

Do You Know the Truth... "Will the Bodies of the Dead be Resurrected?" (Part 1)

(We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is a reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.)

The word 'resurrection' is used 45 times in the New Testament. It is derived from a Greek term meaning literally 'to stand up' and refers to dead bodies that come forth from the grave.

The word 'raised' appears 35 times in the New Testament and also refers to physical bodies coming forth from the grave.

As noted in a previous lesson the spirit leaves the body at the point of death. The spirits of those who have believed in Jesus Christ go into the presence of the Lord as noted in 2 Corinthians 5:6 and 8, "Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord. We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." The spirits of those who have not accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior are under God's wrath (John 3:36) and go into the fires of hell as recorded in Luke 16:19-31.

In speaking of the physical component of man the scriptures note that it returns to dust. Note Job 34:15, "All flesh shall perish together, and man shall return again unto dust." Also Ecclesiastes 3:20, "All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again."

In stating what both he and his forefathers believed the Apostle Paul stated in Acts 24:15, "And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both the just and the unjust."

Conclusion: Our next lesson will give references to what happens to each one following the resurrection.
