NRA Finals

The NRA Finals were this last weekend in Butte.

There were many local contestants.

Dillon Hahnkamp won the Tie Down Champion and the Rookie of the Year in the Tie Down.

Donnie Benson of Dillon was the runner up and won the average at the rodeo.

Other Dillon contestants were Quinn Mader (Breakaway roping), Madison Sorden (Breakaway roping), Tanner Hollenback (Saddle Bronc), I believe he won the 3rd round), Cole Thoreson (Saddle Bronc), Kelsey Robinson (Barrel Racing), Ian Austiguy (Team roping), Chase Briggs (Team roping), Ike Folsom (Team roping), Max Klutter (Team roping).

That is a remarkable showing from this area considering the finals is for the top 10 in each event in the whole state. Complete results can be found on the Northern Rodeo Assoc. website.

CONGRATULATIONS

Airmen Alex Newman just graduated from basic training in San Antonio, Texas. His proud parents Melinda and Randy Newman along with his brother Daniel attended the ceremonies.

He is attending tech training at Sheppard Air Force Base in Texas at this time.

Letter to the Editor

Lavon Brilliant is at it again, verbal drivell flows like vomit off his chin.

Just once intellegent words he could say...

But no, always same crap different day

Heres a song that he could sing...

He could throw his hat in the ring

His vast experience could form his words

Then his editorials wouldn't smell like turds

If he's the smartest man by far...

He should climb into a campaign car

When he has campaigned East, West, North and South

He'll earn the right to run his mouth

If you don't run and make the cut...

Why don't you keep your mouth shut!

Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society

Do you have old photos that don't list a date? How can you tell which of your cousins named Mary it is in the photo, if they look similar but were born 12 years apart? What is the purpose of that chain that seems to be pinned on Grandma's dress? Karen Helle has spent years learning about and making several authentic costumes from different eras. She will bring some of the costumes she has made to show us the details. Looking at what they are wearing, can reveal clues about the date of the photo. The time frame discussed will roughly be from the 1850's to 1930's. If you would like to learn more about dating photos, come to the Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society meeting on Tuesday October 18 in the Museum Research room at 7:00 pm. Perhaps you could bring a photo or two along and see if you can date them from the things you learn. As always, the public is invited.

btpdillon@qwestoffice.net • (406) 683-9844Attorney General Fox Warns of Circulating Scam Texts

Attorney General Tim Fox and his Office of Consumer Protection (OCP) at the Montana Department of Justice want to alert Montanans to recent reports of scam text messages that are designed to appear to be sent by banks, credit card companies, or other financial institutions circulating among 406 area code phone numbers. Attorney General Fox encourages all Montana consumers to learn the telltale signs of these types of scams, and to utilize OCP's easy-to-use online reporting forms to alert scam investigators. The online reporting system allows OCP to watch for trends in scams and to alert the public more quickly.

These fraudulent text messages usually contain a link to a website that may look legitimate, and may even have the financial institution's name in the web address. However, clicking on the link may install damaging software on a device, or redirect to a website that asks the consumer to 'confirm' his or her identity by providing personal information such as a name, bank account number, credit card number, online banking user ID and password, and more.

"Scammers are always looking for the next way to steal information, whether it's through a new con or by exploiting the way people communicate - like through text messaging," said Attorney General Tim Fox. "That's why it's important to try to stay one step ahead of the latest frauds by staying knowledgeable. One way for people to stay abreast of the newest scams is by signing up for free email Consumer Alerts through my Office of Consumer Protection."

A general rule of thumb for consumers to follow in order to protect themselves from identity theft scams is to never provide personal or financial information via a phone call, email or text message exchange that the consumer did not initiate. Instead, he or she should find a statement from the financial institution that claims to be contacting him or her and call the number or visit the web address listed on the bill. This way, Montana consumers can be sure they are using legitimate contact information for the business, instead of potentially falling prey to a scammer.

The Federal Trade Commission recommends these additional tips for dealing with scam and spam text messages:

- Don't reply to the text and don't click on links provided in the message
- Delete any text messages that ask you to confirm or provide personal information. Legitimate companies don't ask for information like your account numbers or passwords by email or text.
- Report these text messages to your wireless carrier. Forward the original

Letter to the Editor

This is to say thank you to our council members, McIssac, Maass and Straugh for having the common sense to vote NO on the open container law. Shame on you who cannot see the problems this will cause our community. we have long been known as a "drinking community" and that is one reason the law was put in. It will not clean up our cups, bottles and cans dropped al over town...that is pure lazyness! Drop it whenever and wherever it becomes empty! Since we can go from place to place I can take a full drink into another establishment and not buy one there - - is that good business. Our youth will have it more accessible and can hand it off to the over 21. Don't we already have enough problems with drugs and alcohol in Dillon?! I don't want my grand kids going to a park where people can come and go with alcohol. Why don't we put it on the ballet where we all have a vote? I and my household vote NO - how about you?!

City Fathers/Employees attend Continued Education

By: MJ

Councilmen Hand, McIsaac, Garry, Shafer, Nye, City Treasurer Neal Straus, City Attorney Jim Dolan and Mayor Klakken all attended League of Cities & Towns continued education event. MMIA (insurance) also participates.

The gathering provides training classes on personnel issues, water, sewer, taxes, law changes, web sites... The venue provides much needed support for participants along with educational materials. It is reassuring for Dillon's representative to find out that they are not out there alone. They are able to discuss on a one-on-one basis the problems and solutions with other representatives from participating towns/cities. Eye to eye contact with people is an immeasurable tool for all everyone.

To maximize the information provided the attendees from Dillon take advantage of the presentations by splitting up and going to different courses. More information gathered is more information that can be shared amongst them.

Vendors also set up booths during the event. This gives the participants the opportunity to talk face to face with people they may or may not be doing business with today or in the future. Example: software firms, engineers, architects, companies that supply products... The city (tax payers) pay expenses for attendees.

Beaverhead Search and Rescue News

Submitted by: Mel Rice, Public Relations Officer

The Beaverhead Search and Rescue held its monthly meeting on Wednesday, October 5. The meeting was called to order by commander Tommy Goins with 38 members in attendance. There were a number of items discussed.

The first order of business was the discussion of Airport Days at the Dillon Airport. Members in attendance were Jason and Lindsey Erickson, Larry Skiles, Brian Vinson, and Steve Scott. Several pieces of equipment were taken up and used as show and tell, specifically equipment used in searching for downed aircraft.

Future trainings were discussed. Avalanche and Winter Survival training will be the next major training and will take place in February. There may be others offered, it will depend on what training opportunities become available.

There were three callouts during the past month. The first was for a Youth Challenge individual who walked away from the UM Western compound up Birch Cr. After walking away he made a trek over the East Pioneers to the Grasshopper Valley where he was picked up and taken to Rocker. The second came because of a Spot activation in the Fox Creek area on the south end of the Big Hole Valley. It turned out to be an accidental activation. We don't know whether these activations are for real or accidental so each and every call is treated as an emergency. The third callout was for two individual that were overdue. A 50 year old and his son were on the White Pine Ridge cutting wood when they buried the truck in a mud hole.

It was also confirmed by the FWP that the Unit's annual fish derby will be held on Saturday, January 28, 2017. The derby will be held at Clark Canyon Reservoir providing the ice is good.

October 22 is the onset of the general hunting season for elk and deer. The S&R Unit would like to remind everyone the weather this time of year can change in a matter of minutes. Roads can be dry and drivable one minute and impassable the next. Temperatures can fluctuate as much as 30+ degrees in a matter of hours. Please be prepared for all possible conditions that you may encounter. Also let someone know where you are going and when you plan on returning. If plans change, as they often do, take time to notify individuals as to your changes.

One last thing, there have been many sightings of bears and several encounters with them. Be bear aware out there. They tend to gravitate to dead animals and in some instances they can find your animal faster than you can. Take care and have great outdoor experiences with each and every outing.

For the "Good of the Order", Dr. Mike Clarke received a note from Governor Steve Bullock thanking him for his "leadership and commitment to professionalism with the Beaverhead Search and Rescue Unit. Your unit's dedication to the air search and rescue program in Montana is truly admirable and deeply appreciated". Thank you for all your efforts Mike as the Training Officer and one of the unit's young leaders.

If you are interested in the Beaverhead Search and Rescue and would like to become a part of our unit, contact any member. They can get you an application or just show up to one of our regular monthly meetings. We meet the first Wednesday of every month.

Mary-ology

"Mary-ology," a study of the woman who said "Yes" to being the Mother of our God, is the topic of October's Inquiry Class in Dillon led by Fr. Russell Radoicich of Holy Trinity Orthodox Christian Church in Butte.

"The Cup" lounge area downstairs in the Swysgood Technology Building on the campus of UMW at 5:30 pm on Thursday 10/20 is the time and place to gather for this informal discussion.

All people of any, or even no, faith are welcome, which is why it is called "Inquiry." For more information call Toni at 865-0081.

Wear your white to show your support!

Friday night (October 15) at the football game, our students are sponsoring a "White Out". At the end of the game, the student section will be throwing colored corn starch into the air, after the football players sing the school song. This colored corn starch should brush off of clothing and wash out easily, but we wanted to get the word out so that students, parents, and fans could move away from the student section quickly if they did not want to participate.

Our students did this last year as well, and they are excited about doing it again this year!

Letter to the Editor

Alcohol Consumption On Premises

One last bit of information the public needs to know in regard to open container repeal. One question on the last post was does the State have a no open container law. Well yes in a way. In order to serve alcohol you must have a State liquor license. There are 3 types. One is a full liquor license or a beer & wine only and a brewery license. All require alcohol to be consumed on the PREMISES. A catering license can be obtained but is only for special events and not for day to day off premises. If they allow customers to take alcohol outside the premises it is a violation and large fine can be imposed. If continually violated the State may revoke the liquor license. The State's intent was to keep alcohol inside the premises and not out in the general public.

The goal of the Mayor & 5 council members was to allow people to drink outside the bars and also buy a beer and walk across the street to a park. Did they know what the State liquor law said? If so they are encouraging breaking State Law. If they didn't know then they didn't do adequate research before voting on this repeal. It does not accomplish their goal unless the owner of the liquor wants to risk the penalties. So all they accomplished is letting people buy alcohol at a store and drink on the sidewalks, streets & parks. Even if you agree or disagree on this subject there is something wrong when you local government is ignoring State law. What is next?
